LOUISIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE SPECIAL INTERIM VOTE

On Thursday, November 8, 2012 a special interim vote was called via a postcard mailing to all clergy and lay delegates asking them to approve or disapprove allowing the Retired Minister's Homes Board to apply for tax exempt status as a non-profit organization. This action was deemed necessary due to a change that excluded the Retired Minister's Homes Board from participating in the denomination's tax exempt status.

The vote by the delegates was to approve.

CLERGY SESSION

The Clergy Session of the 2013 Annual Conference was held at Brown Chapel, Centenary College, Shreveport, Louisiana.

The Rev. Mickey Cloud offered an organ prelude, and Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey called the Clergy Session to worship and order. Led by the Rev. James Haynes, the clergy sang "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty," and Bishop Harvey offered the opening prayer. The Rev. Chiasson played the offertory, and an offering was received for the pension program of the Central Conferences.

The Rev. Sonya Lars read Exodus 16:31-35, and Dr. W. Ralph Ford presented a sermon entitled "Manna in the Wilderness."

The Bishop led the business of the Clergy Session by first recognizing the Rev. John Edd Harper and the Rev. Gary Willis for their work in the Conference.

Part II of the report “Pertaining to Ordained and Licensed Clergy,” Disciplinary Questions 17 through 56 was presented by various members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Corrections, deletions, and additions were made to the pre-printed report and noted by the Rev. John Edd Harper for printing in the Conference Journal. Bishop Harvey conducted elections and votes as necessary. Rev. Harper recorded election results.

The Clergy Session also considered the following parts of the Disciplinary Questions: Part III, “Certification in Specialization and Certified Lay Ministry”; Part IV, “Certified Lay Ministry”; Part V, “Diaconal Ministers”; Part VI, “Appointments and Concluding Business.” Bishop Harvey conducted votes as necessary, and Rev. Harper recorded the results.

Rev. Gary Willis moved that the entire report be approved, as corrected during the proceedings, by the Clergy Session. The vote was recorded by Rev. Harper.

Rev. Larry O’Dell presented the Harry Denman Evangelism Award to Rev. Mike McLauren.

Rev. Donnie Wilkinson, chair of the Order of Elders, gave information on upcoming activities organized for elders and other clergy of the Conference. Rev. Janet Davis, chairperson, spoke about activities of the Order of Deacons. Rev. Patty Hewitte, chair of the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members, reported on Fellowship activities.

Bishop Harvey addressed the Session on the topic of our covenant relationship, specifically on the need to trust one another and trust in God. The Bishop invited the clergy to join her in praying intentionally for one another on our birthdays. She also declared her expectation that the clergy “not be people of compliance but of commitment” and to be in conversation with one another. Speaking about appointments, the Bishop reiterated the necessity of making “mission field appointments,” focusing on the pastor’s effectiveness and ability to lead in transformative ways. She also spoke on the need to engage in “consultation” in various settings and throughout the year. The Cabinet will begin working on an “excellence standards” document for use by the Conference.

Rev. James Haynes led in the singing of “A Charge To Keep I Have,” and the Clergy Session was adjourned.

LAITY SESSION

The session was opened with gathering music led by Pianist Freida Peel (Monroe Lay Leader) and Song Leader Danny Peel.

Carolyn Dove, Conference Lay Leader, welcomed the Laity and announced that Pete Aguila, secretary was ill so Amanda Price would serve as the secretary for the Laity Session.

Henry Camburn, Certified Lay Minister, offered the opening prayer for the session.

Gordon Bartage, Shreveport Lay Leader, introduced the Board of Laity membership.

For the conference year ended December 31, 2012 the Daughenbaugh Matheny (D-M) Scholarship Fund received from the various districts plus laity breakfast receipts totaling $22,876.76. We disbursed scholarships totaling $21,850 to Louisiana United Methodist students attending Centenary College and Dillard University. The ending balance for the D-M Scholarship Fund totaled $11,496.27 in Capital One Bank. There is a balance of $37,446.12 in the Endowment Fund at the La. United Methodist Foundation. Only interest on these funds can be used for scholarship.

Through April 30, 2013 the D-M Scholarship Fund received from the various districts was $13,544.14 plus $325.20 from Lechtenfel Fund and earned $9.47 in interest. The ending balance at April 30, 2013 for the D-M Scholarship Fund is $63,141.94, of this amount $25,375.08 is available for scholarship and the balance in the Endowment Fund at the Foundation is $37,766.86.

Carolyn Dove referred to the 1000 Club information in the Laity Session Booklet. She announced as of today The Well has received $119,524.88, Faith Crossing $83,297.51, and New Song $77,176.59 for their loan repayment. This information and the printed information should be considered while deciding whether to continue the Bob Lay Memorial 1000 Club. After discussion Kathleen Conrad made the motion to retain the 1000 Club as a program of the Conference Board of Laity. Motion passed.

Carolyn then asked for approval to change the name of the Bob Lay Memorial 1000 Club to Church Starts Ministry. After discussion Richard, the delegate from FUMC of Zwolle, called for the question. Recommendation for the name change from the Conference BOL was adopted.

Terrell Deville, Associate Conference Lay Leader, presented the Church Starts Ministry Policy/Guidelines document as it appears on Page 96 of the Pre-Conference Report. A friendly amendment was requested to insert the word revitalizing to the purpose statement for Church Starts Ministry. Amendment was accepted by task force. Recommendation passed for new Church Starts Ministry Policy/Guidelines.

Terrell also presented the recently revised document for the Bylaws of the Board of Laity Louisiana Annual Conference as it appears on the Pre-Conference Report, Page 92. The revised document was unanimously passed.

Edna Hickman, SCJ UMW President announced the United Methodist Women's Assembly will be held April 25-27, 2014 in Louisville, KY. The theme is: "Make It Happen!" She told the women that "We will make it happen! We must make it happen". We have been challenged to have 12,000 women in Louisville during that week. Each Jurisdiction is expected to meet their goal. The goal for the SWJ is 3,000 women. Information is available on the website so that you can download posters, flyers and videos. The website address is: www.assembly2014.org.

Carolyn Dove indicated that there is an Evaluation Form on the last page of this Laity Session Booklet. The Board of Laity would appreciate their input so it can better serve the Laity of the Louisiana Conference.

The 1000Club/Church Starts Ministry can be found on page 99 of the Pre-Conference Report.

Eloise Cox thanked the Laity for voting "yes" to the changes suggested as presented to them today by the Conference Board of Laity. She believed that this is a wonderful ministry, and we will work hard "Building New Churches - Reaching New People for Christ, and helping with other church needs as possible". She especially thanked those that have been supporting The 1000 Club for many years. She acknowledged and thanked all new members and said she was looking forward to gaining more.

This is Eloise's first year as Conference Chair, so she is looking forward to getting to know all district chairs and congregations and challenge all district chairs to have a Church Starts Ministry representative at the local church level.

In addition to the name change, there are other suggestions the board may want to pursue and she will need everyone's help. She would like to get a new brochure printed out and schedule a meeting with chairs and local representatives to meet, greet, discuss what we might need to do differently and what to discontinue.

Please take time if you have not read my Pre-Conference Report where you will find the number of churches that have helped since the inception of this ministry. You will also find on <http://www.la-umc.org/> the name and year each church in your district that has donated to this need.

Al Franks, Director of Lay Servant Ministries, indicated that a full report on this subject can be found on page 97 of the Pre-Conference Report.

Legislation approved by the 2012 General Conference changed the name of Lay Speaking to Lay Servant Ministries. This name change better describes the laity activities of the UMC and moves the emphasis of laity activity from just lay speaking to Lay Servant Ministries. Later in this Annual Conference the delegates will be asked to vote to ratify this name change.

The Louisiana Conference is fortunate to have such fantastic District Directors of Lay Servant Ministries and Lay Leaders. Their dedication and work to organize and conduct basic and advance Lay Servant Ministry training events twice a year is key to the growth of lay leadership in our conference.

I know that each of you are in fact already leaders in your church, your district and this annual conference. But we all should grasp every opportunity we can to learn and to grow in knowledge and leadership skills and be ready to step up as we are called to various leadership responsibilities in our service to God.

Al Franks indicated that The Certified Lay Ministry program is growing in the Louisiana Conference. Al recently attended meetings of Conference Directors of Lay Servant Ministry in Nashville and he is convinced that our program is by far the strongest. Our training and requirements far exceed any other Conference and our Certified Lay Ministers are equipped to serve with a higher level of proficiency in many areas in our churches, districts and conference. With the addition of 4 new Certified Lay Ministers at this Annual Conference we will have a total of 12 Certified Lay Ministers in the Louisiana Conference. The annual Certified Lay Ministry training and orientation that was conducted in April has resulted in 8 more persons committing to working to become a Certified Lay Minister.

The United Methodist Church has some tremendous challenges ahead of us. When speaking to groups of laity and clergy, Al has made the statement that the "salvation" of the UMC is not going to be through the clergy; it is going to be through the laity. If the church is to make a difference in the world, every one of its members must begin to act and think like leaders. Leadership is not for the few and the special, the exception rather than the expected. Whether the mysterious thing called “leadership”: comes naturally or is an acquired talent, every Christian must come to terms with it. A biblical style of leadership and language of leadership must become endemic in the church. The laity leaders are going to be the ones to help place the spiritual center on those that are being called to loving service.

Al encouraged the laity to seek out the training opportunities that are offered by the Lay Servant Ministries and take the training that will equip them to be more effective leaders and mentors.

Video Testimonials of Lay Ministries in the Local Church was shown.

There was a Service of Dedication and Commitment to Servant Leadership led by Certified Lay Ministers Steven Bellard, Donna Whittington, Phyllis Jefferson, Vicki Huckeba, Rick Watson, and Henry Camburn, Katelyn Delia and Theresa Watson also participated in the service.

Opportunities to Participate or Serve on Three Day Weekends were highlighted.

Carolyn Dove expressed sincere thanks to the Laity for attending the Laity Session and highlighted the participation of the 2013 Laity Session Task Force under her direction: Gordon Bartage, Eloise Cox, Katelyn Delia, and Freida Peel.

MORNING SESSION

MONDAY, JUNE 3, 2013

Gathering music was led by Dr. Marcia McFee, the Music Leader for 2013 session of Annual Conference.

Bishop Cynthia Harvey called the forty-third gathering of the Louisiana Annual conference into session saying that we have worshipful work to accomplish over the next three days.

Dr. David Rowe, President of Centenary College, welcomed the conference to Shreveport recognizing and offering appreciation for the Centenary staff. He presented the Bishop with a book entitled, “The Paul Brown Era at Centenary College.” He recognized all graduates of Centenary. He then lifted up various community projects by the students and choir. He stated that Centenary continues to emphasize preparing students for leadership in an increasingly global context. He offered prayer for the conference and invited the session back at Centenary College in 2014.

The opening prayer was offered by Austin Rinehart, a recent graduate of Centenary now enrolled in Garrett Theological Seminary.

Mrs. Renee' Evens, Chair of the Courtesy Committee, or Provost Don Cottrill will report these at the close of each business session. I move that any reports not presented but are before the Annual Conference as part of the Pre-Conference reports, be received by the Annual Conference and published in the 2013 Louisiana Annual Conference Journal.

The motions were adopted by the Conference.

MOTIONS OF THE DEAN

Rev. Ellen Alston presented the following motions to the Conference for approval:

1. "I move that beginning Monday at 10:30 a.m., June 3, 2013 the main floor of the Physical Education Center of Centenary College be designated as the Bar of the Conference and that only voting members and special guests are to sit in this area.
2. I also move that Tuesday's order of the day be set at 2:05 p.m. for the Board of Ordained Ministry Report and that
3. Monday's order of the day be set at 2:05 p.m., and Tuesday's order of the day be set at 11:30 a.m., and Wednesday's order of the day be set at 8:55 a.m. for the retirees' recognitions, and an order of the day be set for Wednesday at 9:15 a.m. for the passing of the mantle for retirees.
4. I further move that the printed program be the agenda for the Annual Conference Session and that the Bishop be empowered to make changes in the agenda necessary to complete the business of the Conference.
5. I finally move that the printed material that is to be distributed to the Annual Conference session be cleared through the secretary prior to distribution."

The motions were adopted by the Conference.

EPISCOPAL COMMITTEE REPORT

Rev. Ellen Alston gave the Episcopal Committee report. She referred the conference to the Pre-Conference report book. She welcomed Bishop Harvey and her family to Louisiana. She presented the Bishop with a fleur de lis pendant made by the Louisiana artist, Mignon Faget. She presented Dean Harvey with a cedar wood United Methodist cross and flame made by Phillip Morris, a native artist of Woodworth. Rev. Alston then presented Elizabeth Harvey, the Bishop's daughter, with a fleur de lis necklace made by Rev. Sherry Zehner. Dr. Marcia McFee ended the report with music.

BISHOP HARVEY PRESENTED HER EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

While this is not my first day—it is the first day of my first Annual Conference with you.
...And our adventure begins.

I have been looking forward to this since September 1. It seems like just yesterday that we crossed the Mississippi River Bridge behind the Red Cross Disaster response truck on the heels of Hurricane Isaac.

Dean, Elizabeth and I now call Louisiana home and call you family. You have been gracious in every way and I have never been more proud to say I am a United Methodist and even more so to say that I am the bishop of the Louisiana Annual Conference. Already, you have taught me what it means to be people of faith.

I have to admit to you that I am incredibly anxious. I have been to about 25 annual conferences but never thought I would be in this role. I should have paid more attention, visited less with my buddies and drank less coffee and Diet Coke in the hallways.

As I have shared with many of you, I never prayed to be a bishop. I prayed for God to use me. I was willing to put myself out there for God to use me as God saw fit. My prayer at Jurisdictional Conference was simply to receive enough votes so as not embarrass myself. But here I am – called to lead in an incredible place, at an incredible time – for such a time as this.

It is an incredibly complicated time to lead the church.
While not a zoo, it is complicated.

I have spent the last nine months listening and learning. As I toured the annual conference last fall and visited the districts, I tried to be keenly attuned to what you were asking, needing, saying and even not saying. I was listening beyond words to the unspoken yearnings and requests of the heart.

You asked me then what my vision was for the annual conference. I shared at that time that I had some hunches, but were I to share a vision it would simply be Cynthia Harvey's vision, not the vision of the Annual Conference. I wanted to hear from you, experience you. I also wanted to hear what others were saying about you.

Today, I want to share the fruit of all of these conversations with you and about you. I believe that through this nine-month process what has emerged is what I pray is a common way forward; a reaffirmation of our common values; an explanation of the vision and mission that will guide the conference leadership as we serve together; and finally, a suggestion for a path for us in the days to come that will allow us to serve Christ, our church and our community.

We will reaffirm the mission of the United Methodist Church to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

By the way, you will receive copies of all of this in tomorrow morning's RIGHT NOW.

As we live this mission in the annual conference I believe that:

Compelled by Christ's love, we the people, lay and clergy leaders of the Louisiana Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church are:

- Leading others into abundant life in Christ.
- Engaging with our surrounding communities locally and globally in significant ways.
- Learning, living and telling the gospel story to the nations.
- Reaching out and drawing in people from all walks of life resulting in vibrant, alive, and vital congregations.

Notice the “ing” words, the action. If you were able to look into the future you would see an Annual Conference that is leading, engaging, learning, reaching out and drawing in.

If we are not leading others into an abundant life in Christ, we cease to be the church. We are about making disciples not members. We must deepen our discipleship by leading people to an experience of what it means to be in right relationship with Jesus Christ.

What does it mean to engage with our surrounding communities locally and globally in significant ways? If in fact we are intentional in making mission field appointments, of calling our clergy and our laity to serve not just the church at the corner of First and Main but at the intersection of people's lives, you have to be a place that is synonymous with the community.

Our churches must be THE place for the community. When the cabinet thought about this, the word we used -- which I am not sure is even a word -- is that the churches in our communities needed to be the Bomb-diggity!

The place to be. There should be little daylight between your church and the community. You ought to be the place for the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts to meet; you ought to be the place where the local high school football banquet is held. You ought to be at every home football game, choir concert, Rotary Club meeting. You should be the place people turn to in time of need. . . where funerals and weddings are held.

You must be the face of the church in the community. Ministry in the public square is important to our life and work.

You have an incredible story to tell, you just have to tell it. I think this is one of the most difficult things for us to do -- tell our story. But friends, if you don't tell it, who will?

You have to tell people about this abundant life in Christ; you have to tell people about your connection in the community. You have to share your own experience of the living God. This is old-fashioned evangelism. We fear that word sometimes don't we. You have to live this testimony by living out of your own life. Living and telling the story by how you live, who you are -- to BE -- is a telling of the story. When people meet us--before a word is uttered--they ought to get a sense that there is something extraordinarily different about us.

Our communities are changing before our very eyes and if we don't respond to the changing needs of our community, we will become irrelevant. Some of us are already there. Some of our churches yearn to be the church of 25 or 50 years ago.

I totally understand the desire to return to the church week after week and find comfort in the familiar, but friends, what is familiar to us does not often reflect the places we now live. We have to go beyond our comfort zone. This may mean we have to give up some things. It may even mean we have to learn some new things. We might have to broaden our belief system. We may not agree on everything, but we have to learn to embrace one another.

John Wesley once said, "Though we cannot think alike, may we not love alike? May we not be of one heart, though we are not of one opinion? Without all doubt, we may. Herein all the children of God may unite, notwithstanding the small differences."

May we not love alike?

I hope you notice that vital congregations come at the end of the preferred future. It is a result of our work. This is intentional on my part.

You see worship attendance, membership, professions of faith are incredibly important and critical to "who" we are-- but they are outputs.

There are many churches across the denomination and even beyond the United Methodist Church that worship millions, have huge membership rolls and conversions by the thousands, but they are not leading change in the communities they live in and around the world.

Transformation occurs when we invest ourselves in making a difference. I am convinced after talking to you last fall that when we lead others to an abundant life in Christ, when we engage with our communities, when we learn, live and tell the gospel story, when we reach out and draw in -- we won't be able to help ourselves.

We will have an increase in worship attendance, membership, professions of faith because we have made a difference and people will want to be a part of our exciting faith communities. Hear me, You are not off the hook for measuring these--actually they become more critical because we now measure with the expectation they represent transformation.

We will lead boldly and courageously into the unfamiliar, the uncomfortable.

When I was the head of United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), I had a brilliant Monitoring and Evaluation person. She had come from the Rockefeller Foundation and frankly was probably under-employed at UMCOR. I did not understand a single word she said most of the time. So, I asked her to tutor me.

We spent a few hours each month together and it was in one of those meetings that the heavens opened for me. We used an exercise of a project in Kamina, in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. It was a water project. She asked me what my expected outcomes were.

I puffed up because I knew the answer to this one. I said, we are going to dig three wells and the catchment area is about 20,000 people, so that means 20,000 people that did not have safe water will now have safe water to drink, wash dishes, brush their teeth with the toothbrushes in the hygiene kits we delivered... She turned to me and swiftly said, “wrong.” “Those are outputs not outcomes.

What will be different because we will dig three wells in these villages?” Now, that’s a different question that requires a much different answer.

They will have safe water therefore they won’t get as sick and we will have a healthier community which means that they will be able to work, feed their families, have healthier babies.

It also means that since it is the girls’ job to fetch water--which is a day long process and therefore they cannot go to school – girls will now be able to go to school and receive an education. This could also mean they don’t get pregnant at an early age which means they will likely live longer since they won’t die in childbirth because they are so young.

When they do have children, their children will be healthier because the women can learn about prenatal care.....

Outcomes – because we have made a difference in people’s lives, we can transform not only their lives, but the world. So, yes, Bishop nice vision, but how do we live it out? We have to have a basis for our decision making. Why do we do the things we do? Why are we who we say we are? We have to have core values, values that we hold dear, that are non-negotiable to our way of being in ministry.

These are not my core values; they are the core values I saw in you or what I sensed that you desire for how you want to be in the world. I heard you say these things, if not in words, certainly in your actions.

In order to live into our vision for our preferred future, we will live and lead with:

INTEGRITY

- We will describe honestly what we see with grace and compassion.
- We will be guided and directed by missional purposes.
- We will be forthright and transparent in all that we do.

We will live and lead with

ACCOUNTABILITY

- We will measure our actions and decisions by their connection to our mission.
- We will be accountable to each other for this connection to purpose.

We will live and lead with an

UNRELENTING LOVE FOR ALL PEOPLE

- We will place the needs and interests of people before the needs and interests of the institution.
- We will prioritize transformative relationships over sustaining buildings and budgets.

We will lead and live with

COURAGE AND RISK

- We believe that new times call for new actions.
- We are willing to trust ourselves and each other, and risk acting in new and courageous ways in order to transform a dying institution into a vibrant movement of faith and action.

We will live and lead

HOLDING NOTHING SACRED BUT THE MISSION

- We will be open to the creative movement of God's spirit, not institutional priorities, in order to serve the mission.

Admittedly, these scare the heaven out of me. And they should make you a little nervous too. If they didn't, I would say they would not be core values. We are often way too nice. We are from the South, so we can't help ourselves. We have to speak the truth in love. When we value integrity we create a sense of trust that is frankly missing. There is a deficit of trust among us and therefore we have conversations that are not helpful and have an undercurrent of dishonesty that does not always count on grace and compassion.

If indeed we are guided by our missional purposes, we will do so with the greatest of integrity, lifting up what is right and good. This does not mean that I am right and good and you are wrong and bad, but that the missional purpose is the right thing. We are people who will lead not by doing things right, but doing the right things.

Imagine with me for a moment what it might look like if we were honest and transparent with one another and created a place of trust among clergy and laity? We would honor each other's work rather than question it. Not only would this be efficient, it would be celebratory.

Not many people like or enjoy being accountable. This often means making difficult decisions. It means you have to be result driven. You have to be effective! You have to do what you said you would do or are expected to do. This is a "kissing cousin" to integrity. You have to do what is right for the sake of the mission and be willing to account for it – it is not always popular.

All of the core values scare the "heeby jeebies" out of me, but these last few really do. As your bishop, I am responsible for the institution, but I am not responsible for saving it. I am not an institutional preservation kind of girl.

I am about relationships, the people, transformation. e often place more value on our buildings than our people.

I know that you made a decision to invest in new church starts as a first priority, but might I remind you that we call this Congregational Development and Transformation. This is about transforming people's lives, and leading others to an abundant life in Christ. Exciting things are happening in this area and I cannot wait for you to hear from Donnie Wilkinson and Rob Weber.

Buildings, while important, should not define us as the people of God and certainly not as a church.

Last month I attended a forum of the active bishops. We had a moving worship service at the border wall at a place called Friendship Park. Now, Friendship Park is not a park as you and I know it. It is simply a location along the border wall just feet from the beautiful Pacific Ocean where families gather to see their loved ones, albeit through a tiny square opening the size of a postage stamp. It is barely big enough to stick your pinky through it and touch your loved one on the other side.

Every Sunday a United Methodist pastor gathers with a congregation on the U.S. side and the Methodist pastor gathers with a congregation on the Mexican side. It is at that wire mesh wall that people worship, sacraments are shared. No building, just people. All it takes is 20 seconds of insane courage, just 20 seconds of embarrassing bravery and I promise you something good will come of it.

My daughter painted a canvas for me with these words that sit on the window sill of my utility room. It is one of the last things I see before I walk out the door. All it takes is 20 seconds of insane courage....

We are in a time and place as the United Methodist Church that calls for new action. We have to be courageous, take smart risks. Remember we have never traveled this way before.

We cannot continue to be the church we have been. We have to look to other places to inform us – is it science? Is it medicine? I try to make it a habit to watch a TED talk. TED stands for Technology, Entertainment, Design. These are 18-minute talks by the world's most fascinating doers and thinkers. I try to watch one each week in a field totally unrelated to mine to learn something new.

Just last week, Bob Mann--good United Methodist and chair of the Manship School of Mass Communications at LSU--spoke to our LEAP (Leadership Excellence Advancement Program) graduates, made up of mid-career pastors. He introduced me to British historian A.J.P. Taylor who in 1957 said that "All change in history, all advance, comes from non-conformists."

He goes on to say that if there had been no troublemakers, no dissenters, we would still be living in caves. "Today's realism will appear tomorrow as shortsighted blundering. Today's idealism is the realism of the future."

Today's realism will appear tomorrow as shortsighted blundering. Today's idealism is the realism of the future."

While I am not suggesting all of you become troublemakers, I am suggesting that you experiment, that you take risks, that you exercise creativity, that you become innovators. Look into the future. What do you see? Remember that today's realism will appear tomorrow as shortsighted blundering.

I read a recent interview in the New York Times with the CEO of YOUSEND IT. He says, "If we are not failing, at least a little bit, we are not trying hard enough. If you don't do that, you're going to end up with a culture that is stagnant and not thinking about the next generation of products and experiences."

Does that sound familiar? When we experiment, risk, and are even non-conformists, my hunch is that we might fail a few times but I am convinced that we will discover new ways of "being" that bring about God's kingdom on Earth as it is in heaven.

I have this feeling that the answer is right in front of me and I just can't see it. This life's work we are called to is a game of inches. We have to just be able to put one foot in front of another and take a step. Sometimes it might be into a pile of "you know what" and other times it might just be the life-giving step we need to take.

A mother sent her young son out on pitch dark night to be sure the barn door of the family farm was locked. He left but returned in just a few seconds. His mother asked, "What's wrong?" "I can't do what you asked because it is too dark and I can't see the barn from the house." Mom handed him a flashlight and sent him out again, only to return a second time in less than a minute.

"What's wrong this time?" "I still can't see the barn the flashlight isn't strong enough to see that far." The mother sent him out a third time saying, "you don't need to see the barn. Just walk to the end of the light." (Gil Rendle's Monograph "Doing the Math of Mission: Fruits, Faithfulness and Metrics")

When we walk to the end of the light the next portion of the path is revealed. You just have to take a step in the right general direction.

What I know is that standing still isn't going to cut it. Now, that doesn't mean we don't have to take time to reflect, discern, ponder. But it does mean we cannot be paralyzed in our movement. This is scary stuff. All it takes is 20 seconds of insane courage, just 20 seconds of embarrassing bravery and I promise you something good will come of it.

Finally, we are spirit led people. We have to respond to the spirit's nudges in order to remain faithful to our call to serve the mission.

Oh if we could just be a movement again. I often think John Wesley is spinning like a top in his grave. All he wanted is for his pastors to get on their horses and go to where the people were. Jesus said go out into "all the world," not go into the church.

John and I share a dream. He says, "I continue to dream and pray about a revival of holiness in our day that moves forth in mission and creates authentic community in which each person can be unleashed through the empowerment of the Spirit to fulfill God's creational intentions."

I want you to be unleashed by the Spirit!

And when you are, that you:

- Lead others into abundant life in Christ.
- Engage with our surrounding communities
- Learn, live and tell the gospel story
- Reach out and draw in people from all walks of life

When you are unleashed by the spirit you will live and lead with:

INTEGRITY

ACCOUNTABILITY

UNRELENTING LOVE FOR ALL PEOPLE

HOLDING NOTHING SACRED BUT THE MISSION

Your cabinet is committed to traveling through your districts again this fall as we continue to flesh out what it means to live out of these core values. We want you to try these on and see how they fit. How do these look in your community?

When I talk about leadership development, this is what I mean. A leader in the Louisiana Annual Conference is compelled by Christ's love to lead others to abundant life in Christ; engages in the community; learns, lives and tells the gospel story; reaches out and draws in people from all walks of life.

A leader in Louisiana leads with Integrity, is accountable, shares an unrelenting love for all people, leads with courage and takes risks. A leader in the Louisiana Annual Conference holds nothing sacred but the mission.

Our ability to develop principled Christian leaders – both laity and clergy – could be, I believe, the “make it” or “break it” for us.

First of all I believe, many of our laity are waiting to be asked. You have incredible expertise at your fingertips, friends, but you have to know your people in order to know what gifts they bring.

I want you to know your congregation. Pastors you ought to know who is in church and who isn't. You need to know who your givers are and how much they give. Giving, or the lack thereof, is a spiritual matter. If you are going to tend to the spiritual needs of your congregation, you need to know who they are and where they are.

If you will recall, I had a whole other life before I entered ministry. Like many of you, I was called to ministry out of the pew. Between my husband and me, we have held every leadership position known to humanity in a church. Pastors recognized that we had gifts to share and someone tapped us on the shoulder and asked us to serve. We taught Sunday School, led the youth, cleaned the toilets, mowed the grass. I am still trying to figure out where toilet bowl cleaning and grass mowing are listed as gifts of the Spirit.

Some of my most memorable and formative ministry happened when I was serving as a lay person. I am sure you share similar experiences. Times and places where you were spirit-led in ways you never imagined God would use. We all have!

I believe in what I call the Order of the Laity. I believe our laity are the most underutilized folks around. When our clergy and laity work side-by-side, incredible things happen.

Now, I know that often when people forecast numbers for our beloved United Methodist Church it sounds like a weather forecast, or worse yet, like the disaster App I installed on my phone my first days at United Methodist Committee on Relief. It tells me where disasters might be occurring in the world – earthquakes, tsunamis, tornadoes, hurricanes, volcanoes. Yes, there really is an app for that.

The reality is that Louisiana is in much better shape than most annual conferences in the United States. The average age of our ordination class this year is 44.8. Not bad when the average age of our clergy denominationally is in the mid-50s.

Currently, our elders under appointment are around 54 years old and our local pastors 56-57. This is not too bad.

But our forecast over the next few years is partly cloudy at best with storms anticipated. Let's look at the forecast.

If normal retirement is 65 or 40 years of service, 65 of our clergy will be 65 or have 40 years of service by 2014, and that number jumps to 92 by 2016.

This tells me that our ability to identify and help people cultivate a culture of call to ministry will be critical.

I would venture to say that these numbers reflect our laity as well. If our churches are to be the "bomb-diggity", we are going to have to woo people to our churches. We are going to have to woo young people from our seminaries to Louisiana. I want this to be the place to serve in the connection.

I want Louisiana to be the "bomb-diggity" for young clergy. That means we have to make room for them, we have to continue to develop their leadership skills and hone in on their passions.

Our pews are getting grayer and I must admit I am one of those, but I want for our churches to be relevant to the "20-somethings". . churches that focus on the things that are important to them. We must continue to be relevant, and one way to do that is to continue to listen to what our young people are telling us, and not just listen but respond. Or better yet, allow them to respond.

We have to be intentional. We can't just say we want young people and expect them to come.

We can't just say we want young people, and when they do come, get upset because they spill coffee on our carpet or make noise in worship or God forbid that they sing different songs or use their cell phones for their Bible.

If I was in a church today, instead of asking people to put away their cell phones, I would ask them to take them out. Silence them to avoid chaos, but I would ask them to use them during worship. Go to Facebook and post your status – "I am in church today, praising God." Or Tweet – "Heading out on a mission trip," or better yet, "Awesome sermon today!"

I always worry a little when I visit your churches because I don't carry a Bible; it is on my iPhone. I wonder if you think I am checking my text messages or watching YOU Tube videos of talking kittens while you are reading the scripture, or worse yet, preaching. We cannot lead the church the same way today.

And I must tell you that leading the church today is messy! Leading the church today can cause trouble!

The reality is this: We have to be the church of the young and the mature. We have too much work to do for anyone to think they can sit and watch from the sidelines.

Imagine sitting here in 2016. Will we share stories of leading others into abundant life in Christ? Will we talk about how lives have been changed because we have engaged with our communities? Will you be able to say that you reached out into your community in a way that frightened you? Will we have learned, lived and told our stories to the nations? Will there be evidence that we have reached out and drawn in people from every walk of life? Will we sit together and be able to say that we have faithfully led with integrity? That we have been accountable? That we have shared and experienced an unrelenting love for all people? That we have led courageously and taken risks? Maybe even failed a few times? That we have been open to the movement of the spirit and held nothing sacred but the mission? I hope so. Because I don't know about you, but this is why I am here.

I think it was Parker Palmer that said that we can either break apart in chards or break open in possibilities. I choose "break open in possibilities."

The Lord said, I now make a covenant, in front of all your people. I'll perform dramatic displays of power that have never been done before anywhere on earth or in any nation. All the people who are around you will see what the Lord does, because I will do an awesome thing with you!

I cannot wait to see what awesome things God has in store for us. If you will recall, at the installation service I used a simple line from Joshua, chapter 3 as the Israelites prepare to cross the Jordan. They were to keep their eye on the Ark of the Covenant, and as long as they followed it, they would know the way they should go even though they had never travelled that way before.

It has been nine months, and I am clearer than ever before that if we face the future together we will know the way we should go even though we have never traveled this way before, and God will do an awesome thing with us!

CFA REPORT #1

Rev. Elaine Burleigh presented the CFA Report number one. She referred the conference to the Pre-Conference report highlighting the Special Sundays Offerings, Footnote #10-That clergy moving to a new appointment is to receive their salary from the old appointment through June 30th; Footnote #15-the newly formed CFA Investment Committee; the Conference Audit; that the Louisiana Conference donated $10,000 each to the Oklahoma and Central Texas Conferences to help with expenses from the recent tornadoes and explosion; and Footnote #13-the Conference Contingency Fund grants. Rev. Burleigh stated that the Contingency Fund has over $1 million in the account and that CFA has set a policy for expending the Contingency funds. newspapers asking them to publish a letter of the United Methodist's stance on marriage between a man and a woman in their newspapers.

CMT REPORT

The CMT report was given by Rev. Wybra Price. He referred the conference to the Pre-Conference reports for the individual program reports. Rev. Price stated that CMT is reviewing how the work of the CMT programs can shift their work to the local churches so the Conference becomes less of a service provider and more of a missional strategist. He called on UMM to present their only "for action" item.

DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRIES REPORT

Mr. Wayne Prejean and Mr. Gard Wayt gave the report of the UMM, Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries which would be an encouraging and supportive contractual commitment between Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of Louisiana, Inc., which is not a United Methodist Organization but an independent non-profit corporation, and the Louisiana Conference United Methodist Church. The relationship will be financial only when requested by the corporation and is voluntary by the Annual Conference. The organization is a missional corporation charged with carrying out the Christian mission of The United Methodist Church by teaching Disciple Bible Study in prisons. The corporation operates under its own articles and by-laws but will report to the Annual Conference each year. The ministry was founded in 1999 in North Carolina to teach Disciple Bible Study to prison inmates. In 2010, the Connectional Table blessed the ministry and encouraged its growth. To date, Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina and Illinois have adopted the program. Mr. Mike Grace asked for support through prayers, gifts and service. He stated that the corporation works closely with the Department of Corrections to identify prisons that could benefit from the ministry. Mr. Prejean moved for the adoption of the relationship. It was seconded. Questions were entertained. The question was called. The vote was taken and the report was adopted.

RESTRUCTURE COMMITTEE REPORT

Mrs. Margaret Johnson gave the report of the Structural Vision Team. She said that the team was appointed by Bishop Hutchinson in 2012 after the Annual Conference session. She said that the team was charged with studying and recommending an alternative structure for the ministry and mission of the Louisiana Annual Conference. She also stated that all of their recommendations are consistent with the Book of Discipline. She introduced the members of team. She stated that the team tried to identify the strengths and weaknesses of the program ministries and what programs could be done at the local church level. She highlighted the team's recommendations and also recommended that the work of the committee should continue for another year for further study and come back to next year's session of Annual Conference with recommendations. She also talked about the formation of the Joshua Team which will provide short and long term vision casting that supports the purpose, focus areas, and guiding principles of the conference. It will also develop goals and objectives with measurable outcomes for the conference and will coordinate the various conference ministries to more effectively accomplish our shared mission. The Joshua Team will be a two year pilot program and will report back to Annual Conference in 2014. Mrs. Johnson moved for the adoption of the report. Questions were entertained. It was moved to include the conference lay leader on the Visioning Team. It was seconded. The vote was taken and the motion was passed. The report of Restructuring Team was adopted. Bishop Harvey appointed the members of the Joshua Team: Revs. Wybra Price, Leslie Stephens, Lynn Malone, John Cannon, Bernadine Johnson and Andy Goff. Laity: Sue Cathchings, Brad Burkman, Scott Hughes, Renee Evans, Clara Scott and Anthony Alfred.

He said that the board has developed new criteria for campus ministries to ensure accountability and to partnership with local churches. He also stated that the board reduced its 2014 budget by $87,200. Revs. Scott Wright and Angela Bulhof shared their experiences as campus ministers.

REDISTRICTING RECOGNITION SERVICE

Revs. Lynn Malone and Ellen Alston gave the report of the Redistricting Recognition with Service of Recognition. Rev. Alston reminded the conference that the redistricting was a result of the previous year's Annual Conference action to approve the SVTF and CFA reports to reduce the conference by one district. Rev. Malone stated that there was no perfect plan but one district had to be eliminated. The team considered such things as geography, demographics, new church development, membership, financial viability for future districts but in the end it was about the missional strategy to engage in the most fruitful way to make Disciples for Jesus Christ, that decided the district lines. Rev. Alston announced that the Alexandria District was eliminated and the churches merged with the Lake Charles, Monroe, Acadiana and Shreveport districts, however, Judy Gross, the District Administrative Assistant, will continue to maintain an office at the Wesley Center to assist the Lake Charles district with the transition. Each district superintendent was given a walking stick as a symbol of their work to use during the Recognition service. All the districts were identified and blessed: Acadiana, Alexandria, Baton Rouge, Lake Charles, Monroe, New Orleans and Shreveport. The members of the conference were asked to stand when their district was blessed. Bishop Harvey announced that Rev. Ralph Ford was leaving the Baton Rouge district office and accepting the position of the Conference Dir. Administrative Services, Treasurer, Benefits Officer, Secretary and Statistician. Rev. Van Stinson will become the new Baton Rouge District Superintendent. Rev. Lynn Malone is also leaving the Monroe District and will pastor First UMC in Monroe. Rev. Ellen Alston will become the new Monroe District Superintendent.

TRANSITION TASK FORCE REPORT

The report of the Transition Task Force was given by Mrs. Ann Sutton. She stated that the Transition Team was charged with assisting the annual conference with moving from the 2012 budget into the approved 2013 budget which included clarifying and interpreting the implementation of the recommendations of the SVTF and to evaluate conference resources and use them the best way possible. She stated that the Team worked with and listened to the various program boards and agencies. The Board HED&CM reduced their own 2014 budget by $87,200. The conference commended the board. She said that the funding plans for Dillard University and Centenary College will remain the same. There was concern for those areas of ministry that lost conference staff such as VIM, Christian Education and Youth. The Team encouraged those ministries to develop new ways to do ministry. She also stated that MultiCultural Ministries has many problems and needs to take more responsibility. The Youth ministry has been re-evaluated. She moved for the adoption of the report. It was seconded and approved.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER ADDRESS

Mrs. Carolyn Dove gave the report of the Conference Lay Leader.

Good morning Bishop Harvey, Provost Cottrill, Chancellor Buzzy Anding, Rev. Miller, clergy and laity of the Louisiana Conference. I come before you today to say thank you for allowing me to serve as your Louisiana Conference Lay Leader. I feel like I have been on a roller coaster ride with embracing all the fun, scary, and humbling experiences of this past annual conference year. I thank you for your prayers.

As your Conference Lay Leader I have been blessed with a fantastic Board of Laity that has been open to change, has had the ability to disagree in a loving manner, to practice being servant leaders, making and keeping commitments, praying and supporting one another, leading by example, and sharing the love of Christ and his church in their daily lives. I am truly blessed to be the leader of this extra ordinary group of laity! I think this experience has been Boomdignity.

Yesterday during the Laity Session we made the decision to maintain and rename the Bob Lay 1000 Club to Church Starts Ministry with a new emphasis on how funds might be utilized to birth a new church, revamp an existing church, or enhance a church's mission. We will work alongside Rev. Rob Weber in accomplishing some exciting approaches to mission outreach for those churches who wish to "do and be" the church outside the traditional lines. We are excited about the possibilities. The Church Starts Ministry program will be a second mile giving opportunity.

Also yesterday Valla Johnson announced the 23 Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship fund recipients. We are so proud to make this investment in these United Methodist students who will lead us into the mission fields. Thank you for your continued support of this fine program and these United Methodist students.

We experienced a rare occasion during the Laity Session in that all eight of the Certified Lay Ministers were to be in attendance and participate in some manner. One of the Certified Lay Ministers is a lawyer and was called to court yesterday therefore he was unable to be with us. I praise the Lord for these persons who have made and fulfilled the commitment to become Certified Lay Ministers who give assistance to their local churches and/or their districts in an assorted number of venues. If you would like to learn more about this area of service please contact Al Franks our first Certified Lay Minister in the Louisiana Conference. This year we are certifying three more Certified Lay Ministers. Hallelujah!!

To obtain information about any of the Board of Laity membership and programs go to the Louisiana Conference United Methodist church web page OR contact me directly. All of my contact information is printed in the journal and your district superintendent has my information also.

I would like to call on Rev. Charlie Langford to make a presentation to a youth and an adult of our laity. (Rev. Langford will present the Harry Denman Evangelism award to Katelyn Delia and Sue Catchings.)

During this past annual conference year I have had the opportunity to serve on the Extended Cabinet. You might ask what is that? I think most of you know who serves on the Appointed Cabinet: the Bishop, the District Superintendents, and the Provost. The Extended Cabinet's membership is the Conference Lay Leader, the president of the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation (Rob Fairly a lay person), the Director of Administrative Services, and the Director of Congregational Development and Transformation. I have been humbled to sit at the table with this group of Christian leaders who have made the commitment to serve God's church in this specific manner. I have learned much, laughed a lot, cried a little, and prayed a whole lot in my attempt to represent the laity of the Louisiana Conference and to do what I think is best for the laity of the Louisiana Conference as a whole not for any one person or group. This is HARD WORK! But when you serve the Lord there is/can be a sense of fulfillment to think you have made a difference in the kingdom work.

Rev. Ellen Alston gave me a book titled “If You Know Who You Are....You’ll Know What to Do.” Let me say that again: “If You Know Who You Are...You’ll Know What to Do” This is a book of many questions for the reader. In my reading I came across this statement and familiar scripture. “All endings are beginnings....we just don’t know it at the time.” The scripture Isaiah 43:18-19. Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old, I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. While this scripture isn’t our annual conference scripture Exodus 34:10 it has a similar meaning to me: God will provide IF I’m willing to hear, listen, obey! It is all up to me.

Yesterday you heard the Bishop speak of the Core Values that have been adopted for the Louisiana Conference. These Core Values: Integrity, Accountability, Unrelenting love for all people, Courage and Risk, and Holding nothing sacred but the mission are for ALL (both clergy and lay) to utilize in making any decision in your daily life and the church arena. We are ALL (both clergy and lay) children of God who are striving toward John Wesley’s concept of perfection. We are in this church together to serve our God and share the good news of Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior to all people of this world. Laity we cannot and should not push the saving of the lost to the clergy’s job description and exclude ourselves. We are ALL disciples of Jesus Christ whether we are ordained to a specific calling or not.

Please join me as I make the commitment to these Core Values as my tools in guiding me to serve my Lord and Savior and representing you the Laity of the Louisiana Conference. Using these Core Values won’t always be easy BUT they will be worth it.

I have heard it said the book of Discipline is written for the clergy and doesn’t have much relevance for the Laity. If you think this then you might want to take another look at the book of Discipline. An example of this is paragraph #2702 titled “Chargeable Offenses and the Statue of Limitations.” At first glance you might think paragraph #2702 is speaking only of the clergy BUT if you read all of paragraph #2702 and stop to read #2702.3 it says “A professing member of a local church may be charged with the following offenses, and, if so, may choose a trial.....” Professing members are the laity of the church. I’m not going to share all the offenses with you but wanted to share this information with you SO that you would have a better understanding of the book of Discipline and also realize we are ALL (both clergy and Lay) called by God to serve his church and to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The ministry of the laity motto is “All God’s People in All Places, And in All Times, Are Called to Love And to Serve.” I invite you to join me and your conference board of laity in living out this call to ministry.

I would like to close with thanking the conference Board of Laity, the youth delegates, the Certified Lay Ministers, and local church laity for helping make the Laity Session and the Laity Breakfast of this 2013 Annual Conference the best it could be. Thank You Laity!

He offered appreciation to the United Methodist Foundation for the matching seminary student loans. He then asked for prayer for all 32 seminary students from Louisiana and those in the process to become an ordained or licensed minister from Louisiana.

Bishop Harvey took a moment of personal privilege to recognize Larry Norman, the Conference VIM Director, Jodie Harper, the Conference Youth Director, and Dawn Young, the Conference Director of Christian Education for their incredible work while employed by the Conference office. Larry Norman and Dawn Young's positions at the conference office were eliminated by Annual Conference 2012 action. The churches will take on more responsibilities in these areas. Mrs. Jodie Harper was leaving the Youth Director position for personal reasons.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS REPORT

The Conference Board of Pension report was offered by Rev. Wayne Evans. Rev. Evans began the report by referring the conference to the Pre-Conference report. He thanked the congregations for providing pensions to the clergy of the United Methodist Church by paying their pastor's pension and the pension apportionment to the conference. He reminded the session of the pension resolution that is printed in the journal which states that all churches have an ethical, moral and legal responsibility to pay the pension benefit for their pastor(s). Rev. Evans then expressed his appreciation to Rev. Larry Miller for his work as the Conference Benefits Officer. He presented Rev. Miller with a personalized pen. He reminded everyone that the pension apportionment was reduced by $250,000 in 2013 and 2014. He then stated that the Pre82 past service rate for 2014 will be $677 which is an increase over 2013.

A short video from GBOHB that summarized the CRSP plan changes for clergy was shown. The new DC portion plan will have a 1% matching contribution feature. Beginning January 1, 2014, clergy will need to contribute at least 1% of their plan compensation into their UMPIP retirement account to get the full 3% contribution from their church employer for a total of 4%. Rev. Evans then explained that less than 1/2 time clergy will not be eligible for the CRSP plan starting on 1/1/14. The conference has adopted a plan that will contribute 10% of their plan compensation into their UMPIP account. Also, for the CRSP DB billing to the churches for 1/2 time, 3/4 time and full time clergy pension billing changed. Beginning 1/1/14 the cap will reduce to $6000 from $8000 based on 10% of plan compensation instead of 12%. He then stated that surviving spouses that remarry will continue to receive their annuity benefit; however, it must be requested for those that have stopped receiving the annuity. Rev. Evans stated that the CPP death and disability benefit is available to full time clergy only. He then highlighted a couple of changes to the health insurance plan that participants can now receive flu and other vaccinations from their pharmacy and the plan now allows two dental cleanings per year. He informed the conference that pension assets total over $16,000,000 and the CBOP extended its commitment to the CCPI pledge by $50,000 or one year. Rev. Evans moved for the adoption of the report. There were no questions and the report was approved.

LYDIA PATTERSON

Mr. Richard Hearn offered the report of Lydia Patterson. He recognized Rev. Becky Conner as the Louisiana Conference's representative to the institution. He also recognized Miss Elka Vagar, a recent graduate and valedictorian of Lydia Patterson, who just received a scholarship to attend Southwestern University in Georgetown. Mr. Hearn shared that Lydia Patterson just graduated 85 students and all of them will attend college. He stated that the graduates were awarded over $1.5 million worth of college scholarships. A short video was shown. Miss Vagar expressed her appreciation to the conference for their support. Mr. Hearn offered the services of Lydia Patterson to help churches reach the Hispanic communities in their areas.

EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

Mr. Jim DeLaune, Rev. Ellen Alston gave the report of the Episcopal Residence Committee. Mr. DeLaune referred the group to the Pre-Conference report and the 3 page blue handout. He stated that the housing of the bishop is the responsibility of each conference, according to the Discipline of the UMC. GCFA has also established guidelines for the episcopal residences. In the past, the Board of Trustees and conference office has been responsible for the episcopal residences. The conference owns two episcopal residence properties; a 3,300 square foot house on Woodstock and a condo in Shreveport. The Woodstock property is 30 years old and in need of repairs. Because of other priorities, the Woodstock property has been neglected. In 2012, the Episcopal Residency Committee (ERC) was appointed and has met several times over the last year. Mr. Jim DeLaune, Rev. Ellen Alston, Rev. Elaine Burleigh and Mr. Mark Montgomery are the members. The committee has studied the conference policy and GCFA guidelines. He stated that the episcopal residence not only functions as a home for the Bishop but as a conferring and command center for the Bishop to perform her duties of the conference, jurisdiction and general church. He said that the Woodstock residence needs over $440,000 worth of repairs to comply with GCFA guidelines. He also stated that after consultation with real estate professionals, the value of both residences total approximately $820,000 ($680,000 for Woodstock and $139,600 for the Shreveport condo). The committee is recommending selling both properties and purchasing or building a new residence in Baton Rouge. Mr. DeLaune moved the sale of both properties and use $265,000 of Conference Contingency funds to purchase or build a new episcopal residence. The motion was seconded. Rev. Larry Stafford asked what will happen if the committee can't find a home in the $1 million price range or if the sale of the two properties doesn't bring the expected income. Mr. DeLaune responded by saying that the committee has asked CFA for $265,000 from the contingency fund and the United Methodist Foundation has agreed to finance any balance if needed. Speeches were made for and against the motion. Mr. Kenny Beauvais of CFA reported that CFA voted non-concurrence with the motion. CFA felt that $265,000 is 25% of total contingency fund that has just been established and did not want to commit to that amount of money. They did, however, concur to grant $100,000 toward the purchase or construction of a new home. The CFA recommendation was for the committee to use the proceeds from the sale of the two properties with the $100,000 grant for a total budget of approximately $920,000. Mr. DeLaune stated that if it was approved to sell the Woodstock property, then the repairs would not be made. Rev. Lamar Oliver asked if there were any restrictions on the Shreveport condo donation. Dr. Donald Avery stated that there were restrictions on the condo when it was first donated to First UMC in Shreveport but those limitations have expired and could no longer be enforced. Rev. Oliver also asked why wasn't the funding for the new episcopal residence a part of the CFA report that was given the day before. Mr. DeLaune responded by saying that the funds requested were from the Contingency Fund and not the budget. Dr. Ralph Ford asked why did CFA agree to the $100,000 amount. Mr. Beauvais responded by stating that $100,000 was 10% of the balance of the Contingency fund. Rev. Gene Finnell offered an amendment to motion to state that the conference would accept granting $100,000 from the Contingency fund rather than $265,000. It was seconded. Rev. Joe Awotwi asked what plans were in place to maintain a new house? Mr. DeLaune responded by saying that the Committee on the Episcopal Residence is now established and would oversee the maintenance. Rev. Larry Miller informed the conference that the Conference Administration fund has $15,000 in the budget, CFA grants $20,000 annually from the Contingency fund and GCFA provides $10,000 annually for the maintenance and utilities of the home totaling $45,000. Ms. Sherry Smythe offered an amendment to Rev. Finnell's amendment to allow the Episcopal Residency Committee to borrow up to $165,000 from United Methodist Foundation and receive a $100,000 grant from the CFA Contingency fund to give the committee its original requested amount. The amendment to the Finnell amendment was seconded. Discussion ensued. The vote was taken and the amendment to the Finnell amendment carried. Parliamentary discussion ensued and the question was called on the Finnell amended amendment. The vote was taken and the motion to take $100,000 from the Contingency Fund and borrow $165,000 from the UMF for the new episcopal residence passed. Rev. Andrew Sutton asked how the loan from the UMF would be paid back. Rev. Miller responded by stating that the easiest thing to do if the conference chooses to spend the $265,000 was to take all the money from the Contingency fund so there will be no fees or interest to pay back. Repayment of the loan was never defined. Rev. Quinn O'Bannon moved to table the agenda item until the next day. It was seconded and the vote to table the motion was taken and passed.

Dr. Don Cottrill made various announcements and Rev. Freddie Henderson dismissed the service with prayer.

The hymn of Commitment, Call and Renewal was "He Leadeth Me: O Blessed Thought." The Recessional hymn was "Lead On, O King Eternal" and the postlude "Toccata" from Symphony #5 was performed by organist E. Ray Peeples. The service was concluded. A reception at Bain Hall followed the service.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 2013

MORNING PRAYER SERVICE

Bishop Harvey offered the day's opening prayer. The morning prayer service, entitled "Re-calculate: Let Go" with the scripture coming from Luke 12:29-32. The focus was praying for the ability to "let go" of the fear of making mistakes that hold us back.

COMMITTEE ON THE JOURNAL

Rev. Frances Hooton gave the report of the Committee on the Journal announcing that the 2013 Conference Journal will be published in a larger printed format. It will go from the smaller printed size to a larger 8 ½ x 11 format due to the change in GCFA's Business of the Annual Conference report. She then stated that the previous day's minutes had been reviewed and were in good order. She moved the adoption of the minutes. The vote was taken and the minutes were adopted.

RECOGNITION OF RETIREES #3

Rev. Juan Huertas introduced the last 6 of the 17 retirees that offered their retirement speeches: Revs. Larry Stafford, Mary Ann Robinson, Dave Fortuna, Dottie Smith, Connie Breaux and Ed Dilworth.

PASSING THE MANTLE

Rev. Huertas then began the service of Passing the Mantle. The opening hymn was, "What Gift Can We Bring." Rev. Huertas recognized the 17 retiring clergy. Bishop Harvey presented each of the retirees with a walking stick saying that even though they are retiring, they will never retire from the church or from making disciples for Jesus Christ. Rev. Ed Dilworth, the representative of the retiree class, placed the mantle on the shoulders of Rev. Betsy

Eaves, the representative of the new full member class, symbolizing the Passing of the Mantle. The closing hymn was, "Go Forth for God."

Dr. Don Cottrill offered several announcements stating the offering received during the Ordination Service the previous night totaled $5752 which was dedicated for the Holy Land Tour. He also announced that the conference office has a staff opening for a part time Youth Ministry Strategist. Applications will be accepted until June 17th. Rev. Ellen Alston offered appreciation for Mrs. Judy Gross, as the District Administrative Assistant for the Alexandria District for the past 18 years. Mrs. Gross will be staying on as the administrative assistant through the end of the year. Other appreciative acknowledgements were offered to: Revs. Larry Miller, Larry Norman and Dawn Young. Each will no longer be appointed at the conference office for their respective positions. Each also received a walking stick in support of their next appointment.

Mr. Jim DeLaune continued the Episcopal Residence Committee Report from the previous day. Dr. Donald Avery moved to un-table the Episcopal Residence report from yesterday back onto the table and floor and continue the conversation. It was seconded. The vote to un-table the Committee on the Episcopal Residence Committee report passed. Chancellor Buzzy Anding announced that because of conference rule #16, which requires that any motion to ask the conference to borrow funds must be received and reviewed by CFA at least 2 weeks prior to the conference session so that that body can do the work of the Book of Discipline, made the 2nd amendment to the motion from the Episcopal Residence Committee regarding the purchase of a new residence out of order. Chancellor Anding stated that the original motion from the committee is still on the table of requesting $265,000 from contingency. Rev. Woody Hingle asked how many estimates were received for the repairs? Mr. DeLaune stated that Mark Montgomery worked with one construction firm. Rev. Hingle moved to amend the original motion to sell the Shreveport condo, take the $265,000 from the Contingency fund and obtain two more estimates on the repairs and renovate the residence instead of purchasing a new one. It was seconded. Rev. Brady Whitton asked that since the Contingency fund is for the use of spiritual matters and concerns, he asked the committee to share how purchasing a new home was spiritual, ethical and missional and stated that the concern of the conference was spending over $1 million on a residence. Mr. DeLaune responded by stating it is the responsibility of the annual conference to provide an episcopal parsonage according to Par. 638 of the Discipline. He stated that the committee tried to be good stewards and tried to stay within the goals and needs of conference. Rev. Alston stated that the core values of the conference were also considered in the process. The wise stewardship of the conference could help free up time and energy of mission matters. Rev. Larry Stafford spoke against the amendment to renovate stating that the current house doesn't meet GCFA standards and is not functional for the Bishop. Rev. Ricky Willis asked if the standards from GCFA are required and why did CFA not approve the $265,000 from Contingency? Mr. Kenny Beauvais stated that CFA is authorized to spend up to $100,000 of contingency and that CFA did not want to spend more than that amount on this one issue. Mr. DeLaune stated that the GCFA standards are not required but will be brought to next general conference for approval. The question was called. The vote was taken and amendment failed. Rev. Fred Wideman spoke for the original motion stating that the residence will serve a missional purpose and development. It will serve our conference for many years in the future. Mr. Kelly Larkin moved to postpone the report pending re-evaluation and until further information can be provided. It was seconded. Rev. Ray Varnado asked the ERC (Episcopal Residence Committee) what amount was spent buying the original Baton Rouge parsonage and what would that amount be today with inflation? Bishop Harvey said that she will take his question as a comment. Rev. Lamar Oliver called the question to postpone the report. It was voted and the question to vote passed. The motion to postpone did not pass. Mr. Ron Broussard asked if the ERC can find a residence that is less than the $1 million proposed amount. Bishop Harvey took that as a speech against the motion. Ms. Lisa Roberts spoke for the motion saying that the conference needed to take the recommendation of the committee and approve the motion. Rev. Larry Stafford called the question on the motion. It passed. Even though question had been called, Bishop Harvey allowed more questions for transparency. Dr. Sam Holladay asked what is the cost of land? Mr. DeLaune responded by stating that the lot is in an expensive and prime area of Baton Rouge and the cost of the land is included in the total package which is over $1 million. Mr. DeLaune read the original motion again. Bishop Harvey called for the vote. The vote was taken and the motion to use up to $265,000 from CFA Contingency along with the proceeds of the sales of the Baton Rouge and Shreveport homes to purchase or build a new Episcopal Residence passed.

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Revs. Donnie Wilkinson and Rob Weber offered the report of the New Church Development. Rev. Wilkinson began the report by reminding the conference of the mission for the Conference which is new church and congregational development.

Rev. Rob Weber recognized the churches that are involved with the Town & Country ministry. He then recognized anyone that was involved with any of the three new church starts: The Well, New Song and Faith Crossing United Methodist Churches. He also shared that he is seeing old dying churches starting to bring in new members and resurrecting the church. He is seeing new churches serving the older churches and communities. He informed the conference that New Song has taken over a building that was once a building not of God and now it is serving God. He said that reserve funds will not be used for new land but for new inventive ways to develop churches. The fear of some is leaving the older ministries behind and beginning new ways to do ministry. He stated that it is about seeing the will of God and be willing to act on that will. He informed the group that a fund at the UMF has been set up for New Church Starts in honor of his father, who had once started a new church. He invited the conference to participate in New Church Starts and Congregational Development by praying, especially for efforts in the New Orleans, Lake Charles and north Monroe areas. He also encouraged people to register for Discipleship Coaching training and pray for the new church planters. He recognized Rev. Robert Johnson as starting a new congregation in the Lafayette area. He ended the report with prayer.

COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

Rev. Larry Miller presented the Committee on Nominations report making the following changes: On the Louisiana Interchurch Conference, move the name of Monica Monk to the Clergy group and add the name of Collin Hughes to the Laity group; on the Conference Board of Pensions, remove the name of Jimmy Owens and add the name of Darryl Tate; and on the Conference Board of Global Ministries, under Remove, delete the name of Joe Burke as he will remain on the board. The report was adopted.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Judge Jay Caraway offered the Board of Trustees report. He reviewed the two resolutions.

Resolution #1 regarded the sale of the Alexandria and New Orleans District parsonages. The proposal to sell the Alexandria District parsonage rationale was due to the elimination of the district. The rationale to sell the New Orleans District parsonage was because the parsonage is 37 miles from the district office and also because the current district superintendent already owns his home.

Resolution #2 regarded abandoning and closing Bethany UMC in Shreveport District because it has been abandoned.

Rev. Marie Williams asked what will happen to the proceeds of the New Orleans District parsonage and how will the district provide a house for next District Superintendent? Rev. Gene Finnell responded by saying that the proceeds will be invested with UMF and the interest would be used for the housing allowance for the District Superintendent or to purchase a new home. The Alexandria parsonage sale proceeds will be divided between the districts proportionately that are involved in the re-districting.

Rev. Ben McGeehee moved to make an amendment to Resolution #1 to include in the Therefore Statement, after the last comma that reads “.... be authorized to sell the said district parsonages” add the words, “and to purchase a new district parsonage for the New Orleans District, ...”. It was seconded. Rev. McGehee said that in 2009, the Conference adopted a policy that recommended that churches provide a parsonage instead of a housing allowance for their clergy as the standard for the Louisiana Conference. Therefore, he would like to see that everyone abide by the same standards and follow our own conference recommendations and that since the District Superintendents try to enforce this policy that they should also abide by it. There was no further discussion. The vote was taken and the amendment passed. The vote was taken on the amended motion and it passed. Judge Caraway offered appreciation to Rev. Larry Miller and Chancellor Buzzy Anding for their work with the Board of Trustees.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

The Constitutional Amendments were presented by Rev. Ellen Alston and Mrs. Sarah Kreutziger. Rev. Alston reviewed the amendments and said that the amendments cannot be amended. She stated that it will take a 2/3 aggregate vote of all the denomination’s delegates to pass the amendments.

CONFERENCE DELEGATION PROPOSAL

The Conference Delegation Proposal was given by Rev. Ellen Alston and Mrs. Sarah Kreutziger. Rev. Alston stated that General Conference 2012 action gave each conference the option to elect General and Jurisdictional delegates one year earlier. This provides for more timing and preparation of the delegates for the work that needs to be done for General and Jurisdictional conferences. Ms. Kreutziger shared a letter that was received from the College of Bishop’s from the SCJ Jurisdiction which expressed concerns of electing delegates a year early and reviewed those concerns. A counted vote was taken. The proposal passed by 265 for and 191 against the option to elect the general and jurisdictional delegation a year early.

Bishop Harvey announced that Dr. Ken Reed and his wife, Bobbie, are absent from Conference for first time in over 50 years due to Bobbie’s health problems.

Rev. Donnie Wilkinson moved to adopt the core values document below as the core values of the conference. The vote was taken and the motion passed.

Mission, Vision and Core Values of the Louisiana Annual Conference UMC

MISSION

The mission of the Louisiana Annual Conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

VISION/PREFERRED FUTURE

Compelled by Christ's love, we, the people, lay and clergy leaders of the Louisiana Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church are:

- Leading others into abundant life in Christ.

- Engaging with our surrounding communities locally and globally in significant ways.
- Learning; living and telling the gospel story to the nations.
- Reaching out and drawing in people from all walks of life resulting in vibrant, alive and vital congregations.

CORE VALUES

In order to live into our vision for our preferred future, we will live and lead with:

INTEGRITY

- We will describe honestly what we see with grace and compassion.
- We will be guided and directed by missional purposes.
- We will be forthright and transparent in all that we do.

ACCOUNTABILITY

- We will measure our actions and decisions by their connection to our mission.
- We will be accountable to each other for this connection to purpose.

UNRELENTING LOVE FOR ALL PEOPLE

- We will place the needs and interests of people before the needs and interests of the institution.
- We will prioritize transformative relationships over sustaining buildings and budgets.

COURAGE AND RISK

- We believe that new times call for new actions.
- We are willing to trust ourselves and each another, and risk acting in new and courageous ways in order to transform a dying institution into a vibrant movement of faith and action.

HOLDING NOTHING SACRED BUT THE MISSION

- We will be open to the creative movement of God's spirit, not institutional priorities, in order to serve the mission.

Dr. Cottrill announced that the 2014 Annual Conference will be a week later, which may become the new normal, in an attempt to close the time gap between the session of Annual Conference and the effective date of the new appointments. It will be held on June 8th through June 11th at Centenary College in Shreveport. Mrs. Carolyn Dove asked that the Agenda Committee consider Annual Conference dates that are more conducive for the laity.

SERVICE OF SENDING FORTH

Bishop Harvey began the Service of Sending Forth and Deconsecration of the Space by thanking the conference for being kind and gentle during her first session of the Annual Conference. She stated that the appointments have been set and that the Louisiana Conference is the bomb-diggity! She asked Dr. Marcia McFee to close forty-third session of the Louisiana Annual Conference with music.

The 2013 session of the Annual Conference was adjourned.

RULE 16. ALTERATIONS OF MOTIONS, ETC.:

When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a committee report is read, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Conference, and may not be altered except by action of the Conference.

In order to provide an efficient manner to inform the Annual Conference of any intention to introduce changes, deletions, or additions to the printed CFA recommended budget, such intentions must be provided in writing to CFA no later than two weeks prior to the opening of Annual Conference.

The presenter of the budget amendment shall introduce the amendment during the "Introduction of New Business" on the day of Annual Conference. In addition, the presenter shall provide sufficient copies of the Budget Amendment Form* to distribute to the Annual Conference in accordance with conference rules. All proposed budget amendments shall be presented to the conference for deliberation when CFA presents the printed budget for adoption. At this time, the Chairperson of CFA shall state CFA's response to the budget amendments received. No additional budget amendments will be accepted from the floor without the Annual Conference suspending this conference rule.

* A Budget Amendment Form can be obtained from the Conference Treasurer's office and must be returned to the Chairperson of CFA by the above deadline. The required form shall identify, (1) the person, church, or agency making the proposal; (2) the Report Number in the CFA proposed budget; (3) the line item proposed to be changed, deleted, or added; (4) the proposed dollar amount adjustment to the line item, and (5) the basis for which such proposed adjustment is being made.

RULE 17. UNDEBATABLE MOTIONS:

The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

1. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally
2. To suspend the rules
3. To lay on the table
4. To take from the table
5. To call for the previous question
6. To reconsider a non-debatable motion
7. To limit or extend the limits of debate
8. To call for the orders of the day

10. To divide the question (if objection by a delegate is made).

RULE 18. RIGHTS OF THE MAIN QUESTION:

The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit or refer, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider. No new motion, resolution, or subject shall be entertained until the one under consideration shall have been disposed of. The foregoing does not apply to secondary motions if otherwise allowable in the existing parliamentary situation.

RULE 19. PRECEDENCE OF SECONDARY MOTIONS:

If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:

1. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
2. To adjourn
3. To take recess
4. To order the previous question
5. To lay on the table
6. To limit or extend the limits of debate
7. To postpone to a given time
8. To commit or refer
9. To amend or to substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment)
10. To postpone indefinitely

RULE 20. TABLING RELATED MOTIONS:

No motion, which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere, or which adhere to them.

RULE 21. REFERRING REPORTS, ETC.:

It shall be in order for the Conference to refer to a committee a section or a part of a report or resolution, which is before the Conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

RULE 22. PROCEDURE FOR CONSIDERATION OF SUBSTITUTES:

When a resolution or committee report is properly before the Conference for consideration and action, even if amendments thereto are pending, a substitute therefore may be offered by any member moving that the same be substituted for the report or resolution under consideration. The Conference shall then proceed first to perfect the original report or resolution, including consideration and action upon any amendments which may be offered to it. The same perfecting process shall then be followed with respect to the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the report or resolution; provided, however, that the motion for the previous question shall not be in order on the adoption of the report or recommendation or on making the proposed substitution until opportunity has been given for at least two (2) members to speak on each side of the question of substitution or adoption.

RULE 23. PREVIOUS QUESTION:

When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending), he/she shall indicate to what he/she intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If he/she does not so indicate, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present and voting for its adoption; and if it is accepted, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies without further debate.

RULE 24. MOTION AFTER SPEECH:

It shall not be in order for a member immediately after discussing a pending question, and before relinquishing the floor, to make a motion whose adoption would limit or stop debate.

RULE 25. EXCEPTIONS TO MAJORITY VOTE:

A majority of those voting, a quorum being present, shall decide all questions with the following exceptions:

1. One-third (1/3) of those present and voting shall suffice to sustain a call for a count vote in case the decision of the chair is doubted. A tie vote sustains the chair.
2. A call for a vote by orders shall prevail if sustained by one-third (1/3) of the members of the order from which the call came, present and voting.
3. A two-thirds (2/3) vote shall be required to sustain a motion to suspend or amend the rules; to sustain a motion for the previous question; to set aside a special order; to consider a special order before the time set therefor; to sustain the request of the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges for the presentation of any person on the final day of the Annual Conference.

RULE 26. RECONSIDERATION:

A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

RULE 27. CALENDARS, REGULAR AND NON-CONCURRENCE:

The Secretary shall keep a chronological record of orders of the day and of reports of committees, which record shall be called the Calendar, and the matter of business placed on it shall be considered as recommended by the Committee on Agenda (the Cabinet) to the Conference, unless by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Conference an item is taken out of its order.

When a committee presents a report on a given subject, as part of its report, it must also list the numbers of all petitions relating to this subject on which the committee voted non-concurrence.

RULE 28. MOTION TO ADJOURN IN ORDER EXCEPT:

The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except:

1. When a member has the floor.
2. When a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
3. When the previous question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending.
4. When a motion to adjourn has been lost, and no business or debate has intervened.
5. When the motion to fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn is pending.

The foregoing does not apply to a motion for final adjournment of the Conference.

RULE 29. SPEAKERS FOR AND AGAINST:

When the report of a subject is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the presiding officer to ascertain, when he/she recognizes a member of the Conference, on which side he/she proposes to speak; and he/she shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.

Except for undebatable motions, no motion shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two against the said proposal, provided that right is claimed before the chairperson or duly authorized member representing the committee's report or the minority report, if there be such, has been recognized by the presiding officer to close the debate.

When all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the chairperson and/or duly authorized member or members presenting a committee's report (and a minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right of the chairperson and/or other member or members to close the debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of five minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the report under consideration; provided, that this five minute limit shall not apply to a motion to substitute a minority report for a regular (majority) report of a committee.

RULE 30. EFFECTIVE DATE:

All actions of the Annual Conference shall become effective upon the final adjournment of the session of the Annual Conference at which they are enacted, unless otherwise specified, except as provided otherwise in the Discipline.

RULE 31. SUSPENSION OF RULES:

The operation of any of the provisions of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Conference.

RULE 32. ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY:

In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by these Rules of Order, the Annual Conference shall be governed by the current edition of Robert's Rules.

JAMES LELAND ADAMS APRIL 15 – FEBRUARY 22, 2013

James Leland Adams was born in Brandon, Mississippi to Lynn and Leila Speer Adams into a family of eight brothers and sisters. He was blessed with a high intelligence and curiosity which kept him in good stead all of his life. He was an avid reader and liked to fish. His curiosity was extended to the computer which he mastered at a relative mature age.

James graduated from Brandon High School in 1943. James received his call for the ministry at week-long campground revivals in tents with sawdust on the ground in Shiloh, Mississippi. They would preach all day with family covered-dish dinners. James lied about his age and joined the navy during World War II. After the war he met and married the love of his life, Erma Jewell Thornton in 1948. They became life-long partners in everything they did for the rest of their lives. They had three sons: James David Adams, C. Michael Adams, and Mark Steven Adams. Mike continues to live in Alexandria, Louisiana today.

James and Erma were both active in the Gulde Methodist Church in Mississippi. James was a Sunday School teacher. One of his first students was the lovely Mary Ann Mobley, former Miss America/actress. He continued his close work with the youth of his churches throughout his ministry helping "Miss" Erma tour states with two singing youth groups – The Saints and Sinners and the Nolley Notables.

James served five churches in this first charge while attending Millsaps College where he received his Bachelor of Arts Degree. Of course, this would have been impossible without the help of his devoted wife, Erma.

James received his Bachelor of Divinity from Vanderbilt University in 1958 while serving churches in Tennessee. He mastered Hebrew and Greek to better understand the Biblical teachings. He also found time to teach High School.

James was ordained a minister by Bishop Paul Martin in 1969 in Shreveport, Louisiana. He served the following churches in Louisiana: Iota/Maxie, Crowley, Luling/St. Johns, Maplewood/Hackberry, Summer Grove, Jonesboro, Tallulah, LaPlace, Jena and First Church of Bossier City.

From 1966 to 1989 James and Erma worked faithfully for the Retired Ministers' Homes Board. Finally they were transferred to Pineville, Louisiana to set up this office as a full-time position. They helped build homes and apartments for retired ministers and their wives and became interested in real estate.

But a role reversal of sorts became soon evident. "Miss" Erma was the superstar agent and Broker/Owner and Mr. James became one of her agents. "Miss" Erma was once asked by a real estate colleague, "How much do you pay Mr. James?" She retorted, "The same thing he paid me when I was the preacher's wife – nothing."

Mr. James lost his beloved wife and partner, Erma Jewell Thornton Adams in 2012. The last ten years of his life, Mr. James was a stroke survivor. the family would like to extend their sincere thanks to the caregivers of more than one nursing home in the Alexandria area, especially the Lexington House. He kept his mind active until the very end. In fact, he started writing an unfinished book on the Bible after his stroke. When asked years earlier what would like written on his epitaph, he replied, "Keep your mind active."

James Leland Adams succumbed to life on February 22, 2013. The Rev. Carolyn Fletcher beautifully officiated at his funeral service on Sunday February 24, 2013 at Greenwood Memorial Park in Pineville, Louisiana.

The family requests that any donations be made to the Retired Ministers' Homes Board, Inc., 1610 Regatta, Shreveport, LA 71119 (318-635-9212).

MARY KATHRYN McNEIL BLACKWOOD
OCTOBER 6, 1932 – JANUARY 7, 2013

Mary Kathryn Blackwood was born October 6, 1932, in Natchez, Mississippi, the daughter of George Lewis McNeil and Ruby O'Quinn McNeil. She received a bachelor degree in education from Belhaven College in 1953. She taught school for several years before devoting her life to her husband's (Wallace P. Blackwood) ministry. Together they served in the Louisiana Methodist Conference for over forty years. After their retirement, they resided on Myrtle Grove Farm in Washington, Mississippi, her childhood home.

Mrs. Blackwood is survived by two sons: Mac Blackwood and wife Patti, of Washington, Mississippi and Marc Blackwood and wife, Sissy, of Natchez, Mississippi. She also had three grandchildren: Kris Blackwood of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, Joelle Blackwood Cooper of Hattiesburg, Mississippi and John Harrison Neal of Minden, Louisiana; two step-grandchildren Katie Beach of Vidalia, Louisiana and Paige Dickey of Natchez, Mississippi along with a number of great grandchildren.

FAYE GRETCHEN BLACKSTOCK TURNER BLAKELY
FEBRUARY 20, 1915 TO JUNE 5, 2012

Faye was born on Baker Hill in North Malvern, Arkansas...daughter of Rev. Lewis Blackstock, a Methodist minister, and Emma Woodall Blackstock. Her father died four months before she was born. Her mother later married a Mr. Turner, who adopted Faye. Sadly, Emma died when Faye was five years old. She was then adopted by the Harkness family of Walco, Arkansas. When Faye was 18 she met George Eldred Blakely, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Blakely of Social Hill, Arkansas, and they began to 'walk out'. Very soon they were married and Faye and Eldred lived and worked on the Blakely farm, where their son, Rev. William C. Blakely was born on October 19, 1934. A few months later the young Blakely family moved to California, where Eldred worked nights in a mine. One night, a bright light appeared in the mine and a voice told Eldred to get out. The mine collapsed moments later. Shortly thereafter, Eldred felt called to preach, and they headed home to Arkansas. So Faye was the daughter of a Methodist preacher, her husband became a Methodist preacher, and her son would later become a Methodist preacher, as well. The stories about meeting Eldred and their courtship were among the stories she loved to tell over and over, everyday, if possible, and to everyone.

For many years, Eldred and Faye served in rural circuits in Arkansas, driving from church to church in an old Model A, and returning to college during the week, with Bill asleep on the back seat, lying amongst the cantaloupes, melons, and home-canned vegetables, and with a chicken coop on the back of the car. During these years in college, Eldred and Faye took turns going to classes so someone could watch over Bill.

In 1941, when World War II started with the bombing of Pearl Harbor, Eldred drove to McGehee, Arkansas to enlist in the military, but failed the physical due to a foot injury in his teen years. Many pastors became chaplains...creating a shortage of preachers on the ground in Arkansas. The Blakely's were assigned to Locksburg, Arkansas and a station with NINE other preaching locations. This meant a different church almost every night. After that, the family moved regularly.

When Bill was 16 he was accepted into Tulane University, and the family transferred to Gentilly UMC in New Orleans. Faye worked at Maison Blanche for a while during this time. She would go downtown and look at the designer clothes in the windows and go home and make beautiful copies of these dresses, as well as trousers, jackets, coats, and other clothing for her family and later, for her son's family. She was a marvelous seamstress until she could no longer see to thread her machine. Faye was always interested in artistic pursuits and she painted with oils, worked with ceramics, and painted many of them freehand. Most of her work was donated to church bazaars to raise money for the churches where they served...even after Eldred 'retired' to Malvern, Arkansas, where they attended the 1st UMC.

Eldred went to his rest in 1986. She moved to Bossier City to assisted living accommodations in 2005, near most of her remaining family, where she joined the Fellowship UMC. She had several tumors removed from her brain over a period of years, which resulted in almost total hearing loss. In 2011, with her hearing gone and unable to see clearly, she moved into a nursing home in Shreveport, until just before she, too, joined her husband...a meeting she prayed for daily for many months.

Although Faye did not marry a preacher, she lived the life of a preacher's wife for over 50 years, and together, they served over 36 churches. She was very proud to be instrumental in starting several UMW circles, which still exist today.

Faye left behind one son, Rev. William C. Blakely and his wife, Bettie Ruth Durrett Blakely; granddaughter, Carolyn Blakely Wells and her husband Byron Wells and great-granddaughter Marilyn Blakely Wells, and great-grandson, Logan DeWitt Wells; grandsons David Benjamin Blakely, and Christopher Brent Blakely and his wife, Aurora Antoinette (Toni) Canavan, and her son, Tom Canavan; grandson-in-law, Paul Evans, and great-grandson, Blake Evans, and great-granddaughter Margo Elaine Evans Amend, and her husband, Ryan Keith Amend, and great-great grandson, Austin Keith Amend. She was pre-deceased by her husband, George Eldred Blakely, her brother, Lewis Blackstock, and her granddaughter, Charlotte Faye Blakely Evans.

Faye had a strong sense of self and steadfastness, which has certainly been passed down through her family, though few of us will admit it.

VIOLA LOUISE DOTSON DAVIS
FEBRUARY 17, 1934 – OCTOBER 20, 2012

John Wesley once said “Do all the good you can. By all the means you can. In all the ways you can. In all the places you can. At all the times you can. To all the people you can. As long as ever you can.” That sums up our mother, Viola Louise Dotson Davis.

On February 17, 1934 in Lindsey, Louisiana Mom was born to Oscar and Amelia Dotson. She departed this life on Saturday, October 20, 2012 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Mom attended and graduated from East Feliciana Industrial Training School in Clinton, Louisiana and afterwards, served as a substitute teacher at various schools in the area. During this time, Mom met the love of her life, the Rev. Wilbur G. Davis, Sr. of Clinton, Louisiana. They were married in 1953, and to this union, Wilbur G. Davis, Jr. (Deceased), Ronald O’Neal Davis (Kennesaw, Georgia), Cedric J. Davis (Redondo Beach, California), and Nicki Davis-Cosby (Cincinnati, Ohio) were born. In addition to her role of wife and mother, Mom worked at East Feliciana State Hospital in Jackson, Louisiana where she retired in the late 1980’s which allowed her to pursue both her calling and passion as “pastor’s wife.”

If you were ever blessed to be in discussion with Mom for any amount of time, it was evident that both her church and our Methodism was central to who she was. To visit her at home, you were sure to find close at hand her spiritual weapons which consisted of her Bible, our Book of Discipline, our Book of Worship, our Books of Hymns, and various Upper Room Devotionals.

Aside from Mom’s love for Christ, her “kids,” five grandkids, family, and friends, nothing seemed to excite her more than preparing for Annual Conference and the various Conference and District meetings. Her love for her local and former church homes and her choir friends was evident in our weekly chats.

In the week before Mom went “Home”, she lay in her hospital bed heavily medicated and in a very dazed state. Most of her days were full of mumbling and rambling and it left us guessing what she was trying to convey. In the midst of one of her apparent worse days and moments, Mom begin singing in her sleep as clearly as if she was in her choir:

“Count your blessings
Name them one by one
Count your many blessing
See what GOD has done”

At the end of our visits home or her visits to see us, Mom would remind us all before our departing prayer, to “count our blessings.” Then, in her last days here on Earth, with all strength and conviction, she held on to these very words.

Though we dearly miss our Mom, we are reminded that “at all times...we are to give thanks.” We thank God for her wisdom, her love, and her faith in God that lives on within us.

EDITH CHILDARS EDWARDS
DECEMBER 7, 1914 – AUGUST 30, 2012

Edith joined Horseshoe Drive United Methodist Church on December 2, 1984 and was a member until her death in August 2012.

Edith was a very active member. She loved her church and every member. She was very active in the United Methodist Women and loved to do home, hospital, and nursing home visitation. We could always count on her for a heart-felt, uplifting, meaningful prayer. Her smile and soft spoken words were always there for everyone she met.

DEBRA HOLLAND FINCH
APRIL 22, 1962 – OCTOBER 12, 2012

Debra Holland Finch was born in Jonesboro, Louisiana, Jackson Parish, on April 22 1961 to Morine and J. D. Holland. She grew up in a small home with 5 half-sisters and 2 half-brothers. She was known as the baby of the family and carried the nickname of Skeeter, given to her by her father.

Debra graduated High School with a G.E.D. She grew into a beautiful bride and wed John E. Finch from Shreveport Louisiana, on December the 6, 1983. For twenty-seven years they grew in love and faith in God. They had four children they raised together, three girls and a son.

She was employed by the Bienville Parish School Board for 10 years, where she worked as a Cafeteria Technician. Then she worked several more years in Lincoln Parish. She loved to serve the children those fresh cafeteria rolls that she took much pride in baking. She had a passion for flowers and loved the simple things in life. One of her favorite things to do was to go fishing and camping with the kids and grandkids.

Debbie supported her husband John as he started his journey in ministry following an eye-opening liver transplant in 2000. She was there by his side for three months in the hospital with much of that time spent in ICU, never giving up hope in her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

She dearly loved her church family at Clay United Methodist Church where her husband served as pastor. She passed into eternity on October 12, 2012, after a short battle with cancer. She is and will be greatly missed. Love you Debbie.

JAMES H. HUMPHREYS
JANUARY 6, 1937 – NOVEMBER 10, 2012

James H. Humphreys (Jim) was born January 6, 1937 in Moultrie, Georgia to James T. and Evelyn Cross Humphreys. Jim went to be with our Lord on November 10, 2012. He had fought valiantly with a long illness and continued to minister in the service of Christ up until his body could no longer match the desire of his spirit. In all, Jim served as a minister for 41 years. His faith and his spirit never lagged.

Jim graduated from Georgia Tech in Textile Engineering. He served his country as a 2nd Lieutenant in the United States Army Chemical Corp. He later graduated from Emory University –Candler School of Theology. He was ordained as a United Methodist Minister and assigned to the Louisiana Annual Conference in 1963.

Jim served on the staff of First United Methodist Church in Baton Rouge and he pastored Haughton, Bethel-Magnolia, Grace United Methodist Church and Wesley Chapel in Ruston, Homer-Wesley Chapel, Memorial in Opelousas, and St. Luke-Simpson in Lake Charles. In retirement, he served as Associate Pastor at First United Methodist Church in Lake Charles. Jim served all with dignity, grace and a deep love for the people God gave him the privilege to serve.

Jim also served on the Louisiana Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the Louisiana Conference Board of Church and Society. He was a member of the Lion's Club and Rotary Club where he received the Paul Harris Fellow Award.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents; his twin brother, Charles Burney Humphreys; and Charles' wife, Glenda Humphreys.

Words can never capture the essence of a person. Jim Humphreys was far more in life than these few words can adequately convey. In those of us blessed to know him, his true worth lives on. Jim was a gentle giant of love. He was a man of few words, but you knew you had been touched by the grace and love of God when you were in his presence.

As a preacher, Jim was more than adequate, faithful to the Scripture, clear in his delivery and compassionate in applying God's Word to the hearts of those he served. As an administrator, Jim was meticulous and deliberate. After all, he was an engineer, first! You never had to worry if Jim's charge conference reports or audits were correct. They always were. But it was in pastoral care, that Jim was a giant among us. He was a model of compassion and care. If any of us could have walked alongside him in his pastoral and hospital visits we would have learned how it was meant to be done. No one has ever done it better. The love of the people he served toward him is proof enough.

Jim had a quiet strength that never wavered from seeking the best solution in difficult situations. He was steady and resolute, but not overbearing. His deliberateness at times might be maddening, but the final expression of his wisdom would generally be right on the mark. Jim was full of humor. He and his brother, Charles, both took their charge from God seriously, but they did not take themselves so seriously that they could not laugh at themselves and their own foibles.

An excerpt from a poem written by his grandson, Noah, for this PaPa in 2012 states: "As I get older my shoulders climb higher on the steps of Glory! As I go up I feel so happy. When I was young I wanted to be in a family who loves me for who I am. This has been great for me now that I am up here with Jesus!" I echo what Noah said. Jim was accepted just as he was by family and friends. Jim, we loved and still love you, just for who you were – a gentle giant of compassion, grace and love. You are missed and will not be forgotten."

Jim is survived by his wife of 49 years, Martha Sue Sanders Humphreys; a son, Jeffrey Warren Humphreys and his wife, Caron Flynn Humphreys and their son, Connor Flynn Humphreys; and a daughter, Mindy Anne Humphreys Edmonds and her son, Noah Drake Edmonds.

JOHN H. LAVO
DECEMBER 1, 1931 – FEBRUARY 12, 2013

John H. Lavo, known as Brother John, served in the Louisiana United Methodist Conference since 1979.

John was born at home on December 1, 1931, to Ervin and Helen Lavo in Fort Seneca, Ohio. He graduated from Old Fort High School in 1949 lettering in basketball and baseball. He attended Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio, until enlisting in the United States Air Force in 1951. John married Anne Hiestand, who he met in seventh grade and dated in high school and college, on July 4, 1952. He served in the Air Force from 1951 – 1973 and is a veteran of the Korean and Vietnam Wars. He began his Air Force training as an airman Air Traffic Controller in California, but his desire was not to be found on the ground. He went to Officer Candidate School in Texas followed by pilot training. He served as a Command Pilot and Flight Instructor in KC-97s and KC-135s.

During his Air Force career, John received The Distinguished Flying Cross, two Air Medals, and two military meritorious service awards. He returned to Heidelberg College to complete his Bachelor of Arts in 1966 and lettered in golf. In 1969, while still active military, he assumed lay leadership in the base chapel program as a Sunday School superintendent. John had attained the rank of Lt. Col. at the time of his retirement from the Air Force. He felt called to provide Christian mentoring for airmen through Bible studies at his home. Those studies expanded into Saturday night gatherings for fellowship and worship at the base chapel. John was recognized for his spiritual and moral leadership in this program by the Chief of Chaplains of the United States Air Force in 1977.

John continued to feel God's call and entered full time ministry in 1979. While pastoring a local church, he attended Perkins Theological Seminary and completed his advanced studies in 1987. He served as associate pastor at Christ United Methodist in Shreveport and as senior pastor at Greenwood United Methodist –Bethany Charge. John served at the two-point charge of Love Chapel-Haughton United Methodist until Love Chapel became a single charge. He retired from Love Chapel but after a short time he was called to Brushwood United Methodist in Dubberly where he served seven years until his death. He attended the first walk of the Cross Bayou Emmaus in 1996 and continued to serve the Emmaus community as Spiritual Director until 2013.

John is survived by his wife of 60 years, Anne; his sister Nancy Reed and spouse; his niece; two children: Susan Holeyfield and spouse; John C. Lavo and spouse; five grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

John had a heart for God, his family, and the church. He loved his work and served faithfully until he was called home February 12, 2013.

“The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”

Psalm 23 (NIV)

WILLIAM K. MCDONALD
MARCH 27, 1935 – JULY 22, 2012

Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days. Psalm 90:14

Rev William (Bill) K. McDonald was born on March 27, 1935 in Jersey City, New Jersey and raised in Brooklyn, New York. Bill entered Heaven on Sunday, July 22, 2012. His parents, William R. and Mary N. McDonald, and his sister, Mary McDonald, preceded Bill in death. Rev. McDonald is survived by his wife, Judy McDonald; daughter, Joyce (David) Herkins, West Chester, PA; sons, Kevin (Betsy) McDonald, Downingtown, Pennsylvania and Sean (Laura) McDonald, Malvern, Pennsylvania; sister, Rosemary (Tom) Ahern, Breezy Point, New York; stepsons, John Morino (Marilyn), Forest Hill, Louisiana and Nicholas Morino, St. Louis, Missouri; 10 grandchildren, 2 great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Bill entered the ministry late in life and found his calling.

Bill received his BS in Industrial Engineering from Utica College, Utica, New York. After graduation, he worked for GE within the Aerospace Group, Missile and Space Division, where he participated in the design of missile control subsystems for the Atlas D and F/G missiles, the re-entry vehicles for the Minuteman series of missiles and various other space program related projects. After taking a year sabbatical and traveling a year in Europe, Bill worked for Alexander Proudfoot Company, an international consulting group specializing in improving business performance, either bottom line or SEC compliance, as a management consultant. Bill then became Vice President of Prep, Incorporated Designing and developing and producing career assessment and skills training programs for the educational and employment training market.

In 1979, Bill became President of A.V. Labs, a Long Island, New York based company that produced audio-visual programs in filmstrip-cassette and video tape formats for education, training, and promotional purposes.

In addition to the above, in 1983 Bill received a Silver Screen Award from the International Industrial Film Festival for a promotional piece on A.V. Labs capabilities and services. After selling AV Labs to a company in Louisiana, Bill bought a sailboat in England, and planned on sailing around the world. One of the obligations of the sale included that he would come to Louisiana to educate the staff on the product line. God had other plans.

Bill met his wife Judy in Louisiana. He returned to Europe, sold the sailboat, and returned to Louisiana to buy a house in the woods. After 10 years of being self-employed, Bill went into the ministry. He never looked back. He always said it was the best decision he ever made. When an issue arose that needed attention, his response was always, "No problem", and it was not either. He continued his education well into his 70s and loved every moment of the experience. Bill embraced everyday as a joy; even in his last days, he expressed with a smile that the cancer he had was "no problem."

Bill served the congregations of Boyce, First United Methodist Church, MacArthur Drive UMC, and Glenmora UMC. Bill felt that each church was his family.

Those who knew Bill could see his smile, hear his laugh, and remember that he truly believed that each day was a gift from God to be treasured, loved and embraced. From Bill's last sermon, these are his words:

My friends, tears and sorrow may flow today; I would ask that they give way to anticipation and joy. Even as we part company, we all remain in God's loving care, and we move on as active participants in God's master plan. May God continue to watch over each and every one of you in the future; may He bless your endeavors, forgive your mistakes, and guide your efforts to do His will. And in the end, may he bring us all back together, and to life everlasting. Amen.

DAISY 'LAVERNE' DAVIS MOUSER FEBRUARY 21, 1922 – OCTOBER 7, 2012

Daisy 'LaVerne' Davis Mouser, born February 21, 1922 in Clinton, Oklahoma to Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Davis, died at age 90 the morning of Sunday, October 7, 2012 with loved ones by her side at the Oaks of Louisiana. She is survived by her daughter Sherry LaVerne Mouser, son Jon Craig Mouser, four grandchildren: Shawn, Vinson, Christopher, and Christina, three great-grandchildren: Tanek, Kaia and Finnegan, and three daughter-in-laws: Betty, Vicki, and Jasmin who she loved 'as if they were her own flesh and blood'.

LaVerne was the daughter of a Methodist minister whose father, grandfather and two generations above were also ministers. She gave her heart to Christ at an early age and earnestly spent her life trying to do what she believed was God's will.

She met Roy Enoch Mouser at Centenary College in 1939. They married in 1941 and moved to Dallas, Texas where Roy was ordained as a minister and entered the Methodist Conference in 1948. The Conference was very fortunate throughout the years because when they appointed Reverend Mouser to a church, they got TWO ministers for the price of one! Being the wife of a Methodist pastor was a great joy to her and she was happy to serve as president of the Parsonettes many times.

LaVerne nearly died of sepsis when she was in her twenties. Her doctor said she could not make it through the night and at one point she stopped breathing. In that moment suspended between life and death, she experienced hearing God's voice asking, "LaVerne, are you ready to die?" She replied, "Yes I am Lord." HE said, "I'm not going to take you now." She said "Why Lord" and He answered "I have a definite purpose in letting you live. She asked "What is it Lord?" She did not hear an answer, but gasped, started to breathe again, and began her recovery. Years later she came to realize that the answer was that God's plan for her was to be a good preacher's wife, raise three children, and to minister HIS word.

LaVerne was very active in all aspects of church activities. She did not know how to say no when asked to do something. When her schedule was full, she always made room for more. She could not have been any more of a supportive mother. And it must be mentioned that she was a great cook and enjoyed being a hostess. Her energy and determination were unmatched. LaVerne loved the Bible and continuously read the Bible through from cover to cover, marking her favorite passages. Her favorite scripture was 1 Corinthians 13:13 which she lived out by sincerely loving everyone. The one most outstanding attribute she emulated was 'LOVE.' She gave her full attention when talking or counseling with anyone, and was always ready with a heartfelt prayer.

LaVerne Davis Mouser touched many lives and will be sorely missed. It is a certainty that the ripple effect of her love and life's work for Christ will carry on. She was a shining example for all humanity.

JIMMIE D. PYLES
MAY 20, 1935 – OCTOBER 17, 2012

Rev. Jimmie D. Pyles passed away on October 17, 2012, after serving over 60 years in the Louisiana Annual Conference. Bro. Jimmie began his ministry in 1958 at Sibley Methodist Church then served, in succession, Eros-Antioch, Eros, 1st Methodist-Lafayette (Associate Pastor), Memorial, Jonesville-Effie, Oak Grove, Jennings, 1st Methodist-Pineville, Ruston District Superintendent, and in retirement, Quitman and Memorial-Monroe. Additionally, Bro. Jimmie served a one year pastoral exchange in Northern Ireland.

Bro. Jimmie received his education at Quitman High School, Centenary College of Louisiana, and the University of Louisiana, Monroe (formerly NLU), and received his theological education at Perkins School of Theology in Dallas, Texas.

There was no quit in Bro. Jimmie. In addition to serving churches in Louisiana and Northern Ireland, Bro. Jimmie served on the Executive Committee of the World Methodist Council and the Council on Evangelism, on the Board of Directors of the Louisiana UM Children's Home, and in his retirement, served as General Secretary of the United Christian Ashram. Bro. Jimmie traveled the world in his capacity as General Secretary and that ministry afforded him the opportunity to pray for and with U. S. Presidents, Governors, and other dignitaries, and was given the opportunity to serve Holy Communion at the National Cathedral in Washington, D. C.

Bro. Jimmie is survived by his wife, Dessie Hinton Pyles; one son, Andy Pyles and wife, Kay, and three grandchildren, Dustin Hemperley, Kayla Hemperley, and Tyler Pyles. Bro. Jimmie is also survived by one great-grandchild, Isabella Hemperley, two step-grandchildren, Brooke Poisso and Jourdan Jurek, and one step-great-grandchild, Chloe Maher. He is also survived by one brother, Charley Pyles and his wife Sue.

I grew up knowing of and admiring Bro. Jimmie Pyles. I came to ministry in an appointment with deep connections to Bro. Jimmie, and very soon afterward he was my DS. I was humbled and honored to eventually serve as his DS in the Monroe District. He was one of the first persons who called after my appointment was announced. I really don't think there was anyone more proud than Bro. Jimmie that I'd been appointed. And yes, there have been more than a few times I've called him since to get his advice about a situation or circumstance. He was a closet DS for the Monroe District over the last 16 months of his life. He played the part well. "I'm sure glad you're my DS. What can I do for my DS?" That was Jimmie's attitude. I could only reply, "Bro. Jimmie, I had a good teacher. I only hope I'm as good a DS as you were."

There are many passages of Scripture I could mention reflecting the life and faith of Bro. Jimmie, but the one that captures me is John 9:4. There, Jesus responds to a question by his disciples concerning a man who was born blind. They wanted to know who sinned, the man or his parents that he was born blind. Jesus responds that neither sinned, but so that the power of God might be seen in him. Then, in almost a passing statement Jesus says, "We must quickly carry out the tasks assigned us by the one who sent us. The night is coming, and then no one can work." Bro. Jimmie worked until the end. He knew the night was coming, and there was one more person who needed Jesus. As long as there was one more, there would be no quit in Jimmie Pyles. He loved people. He loved the ministry. He loved Jesus.

GLENVER ANN HAMMONS ROWLAND
APRIL 13, 1942 – MAY 8, 2013

Glenver Ann Hammons Rowland was born the middle child of Harrell R. and Winnifred (Peggy) Davis Hammons on April 13, 1942 in Farmerville, Louisiana. Glenver shared several different childhood homes with her older sister, Nola, and younger sister, Amye. The family lived in Farmerville, Louisiana; El Dorado, Arkansas; Jefferson Island, Louisiana; and New Iberia, Louisiana. Moving with her parents and sisters is where Glenver's lifelong love of travel began.

Glenver graduated from New Iberia High School in 1960 and began her career in finance and business where she excelled. She moved up the corporate ladder from Head Cashier to become the company's first female Assistant Manager with the additional responsibilities of Outside Instructor and Repossession Agent. She taught a Children's Sunday School class during this time and was very active in the Baptist Church. Glenver was happy to say she was a Methodist a lot longer than she ever was a Baptist.

She met Robert by happenstance. He proposed on the first date and she accepted on the second. Bob (she always called him Robert) answered the call to ministry and Glenver "put beans on the table" during those early Seminary years. They had a wonderful time in pastoral ministry, Navy chaplaincy, and then again in pastoral ministry. Glenver was very active in the women's programs of the church; first in the Wesleyan Service Guild and then the United Methodist Women. She also taught Sunday School and was always involved in Vacation Bible School. In addition, she volunteered with the Red Cross and the Navy Relief Society.

Glenver enjoyed every appointment: Associate, First UMC, Lafayette, Louisiana; Seminary, First UMC, Murchison, Texas; Moss Bluff UMC/Broadlands; U. S. Navy Chaplaincy, Farmerville UMC, Farmerville, Louisiana; Morningside UMC, Shreveport, Louisiana; Ferriday/Clayton, Louisiana; Logansport/Longstreet, Louisiana; Summer Grove UMC, Shreveport, Louisiana; and Keithville UMC, Keithville, Louisiana.

Naval assignments: Naval Station, Adak, Alaska; Pacific Missile Test Center, Point Mugu, California; USS Bryce Canyon, Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; Marines, Okinawa, Japan; Perkins School of Theology, Dallas, Texas; Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California; Navy Air Facility, Atsugi, Japan; Naval Air Reserve Forces, New Orleans, Louisiana; Naval Station, New Orleans. Home for Glenver was always with her family.

Glenver loved flowers and was very artistic. She enjoyed painting, calligraphy, cross-stitch, sewing, reading, and writing. She received Teaching Certificates from two different schools of Ikebana Flower Arranging while in Japan. She always used her hobbies and skills in service to those around her and for the betterment of the church.

Glenver was told that she would never be able to have children; however, God had a different plan for the Rowland family. On Christmas Eve, a miracle occurred; nine months later, Elizabeth was born. Elizabeth and her mom shared a close bond grounded in faith and love.

Another addition occurred in the family when Josh walked through the front door and Glenver wrapped her arms around her soon to be son-in-law. In the seven years of Josh and Elizabeth's marriage, Josh found the love and care of a mother, a friend, and a strong woman of faith.

Glenver and Robert were married for fifty years, ten months, and two days ... but who is counting? It seems like the days and years just flew past and they had so much that did not get done; however, love never ends, it just finds different ways to be expressed.

Glenver passed away at home in Shreveport, Louisiana on May 8, 2013. She loved everyone but had a very special place in her heart for children.

Some of her favorite scripture passages included Matthew 19:13-15, the Twenty-Third Psalm, and the Christmas Story from Luke's Gospel.

Glenver knew who she was and Whose she was; her spirit has burst the bounds of this life and flown to the One she believed in and whose love and mercy she taught for so many years.

FRED OSWALD SHIRLEY DECEMBER 3, 1923 – JULY 2, 2012

Fred Oswald Shirley was born at home in Reform, Pickens County, Alabama on December 3, 1923 to Alonzo Monk Shirley and Myrtle Virgie Shumaker Shirley. His paternal grandparents were Columbus Shirley (Confederate veteran) and Ophelia Victoria Howell, both of Gordo, Alabama. Fred's maternal grandparents were Jonathan Allen

Shumaker and Ella Williams, both from Reform, Mississippi. Fred's ancestors settled in Alabama, coming mostly from South Carolina, in the early 1800s when Alabama was opened up for settlement.

He was raised in Reform, Pickens County, Alabama, attended school there, and graduated from Pickens County High School in 1942. On October 16, 1943, with World War II raging, he followed his three older brothers (Joseph Roy, Ben Columbus, and Lawrence Elman) and enlisted in the United States Navy where he served as a radioman on the USS Orca (AVP-49) which was a seaplane tender. He told many times how nerve wracking it was when they were under fire. Being a sea plane tender, the USS Orca was also a refueling station for the sea planes. They were sitting on thousands of gallons of high octane fuel and a hit from an enemy shell could have been devastating. He participated in the fighting at Leyte Gulf and was honorably discharged on February 24, 1946. He was always proud of his family and their connection with the United States Navy. His younger brother, Ray, also served in the Navy during the Korean Conflict.

After his service to the United States, Fred enrolled Evanston Collegiate Institute in Evanston, Illinois, transferred to Emory University in Atlanta, and finished his degree at LaGrange College in LaGrange, Georgia, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1951. After graduation from LaGrange, he attended the Candler School of Theology at Emory University.

Fred was married on May 6, 1946 to Georgia Frances Roberts at the Reform United Methodist Church in Reform, Alabama, where her father was the pastor at the time. Their children were Laura Susan Shirley (1955-1981) and Roger Michael Shirley, born November 8, 1956. Roger married Angi Kay Ferguson and they had two daughters, Bridget Kathleen and Rachel Grace Shirley, granddaughters that Fred adored.

Fred was a Methodist minister for over 40 years serving churches in Louisiana and his home state of Alabama, including churches in New Orleans, Opelousas, and most recently Ingleside UMC in Baton Rouge, the church from which he retired in 1988. In Alabama he served at Southside United Methodist Church in Tuscaloosa and at Duncanville in that same area. Fred was recently honored as a Pastor Emeritus at Broadmoor United Methodist Church, the church he was attending at the time of his death.

Fred will be remembered by his family as one of the highlights of the Shirley Family Reunions that were held in his native state of Alabama every two years. His stories always brought a laugh and his unique way of telling them will be sorely missed. He is survived by three brothers, Ben Columbus Shirley of San Diego, California, Lawrence Elman Shirley of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and Folmar Ray Shirley, of Centreville, Virginia.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters; He restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff — they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. TRANSITION TEAM

Introduction

It is a good thing to evaluate where you are and account for your resources when you are waiting for the death tsunami or lost in the wilderness.

Last year the Strategic Vitality Task Force presented to the Conference a plan in response to their assessment of the future. That plan was approved with two amendments: one motion restored funding for Wesley Foundations to 2012 budget amounts and the other motion restored the position of Conference Youth Director. Funding was reduced in numerous areas; several conference staff positions were eliminated or reduced to part time. “What must the conference do that cannot be done in the local church?” was the driving criteria. The general scope of the work of the annual conference lies in administrative functions, clergy development and support and the work of church extension to establish new churches and revitalize existing congregations.

The Transition Team was charged “with assisting the annual conference with moving from the 2012 budget into the approved 2013 budget”. The work began with the appointment of the team by Bishop Hutchinson, conversation with representatives of the SVFT, Conference Staff and leadership in affected areas to interpret and assess the implication of the decisions. The work included:

- Clarifying, and interpreting the implementation of the recommendations.
- Bringing together circles of support and expertise from existing conference agencies, boards, individuals and churches to participate in finding new ways to do ministry in the affected areas.

The approval of the SVTF report carried action to reduce the number of districts from seven to six. This decision lay in the office of the Bishop to draw the lines of those new districts, decisions have been made and new districts are being formed.

Church Extension - As a result of the action of the Annual Conference in 2011, this work was designated as a priority of the conference with funding moving toward 10% of the budget. The SVTF affirmed that decision but questions arose in the transition team whether the 10% was of the total conference budget or 10% of the conference budget used for conference ministries excluding apportioned funding for the General and Jurisdictional church. CFA has determined that the intent and circumstance of the motion in 2011 reflects an allocation based on 10% of the total conference budget (which includes the amounts allocated for General and Jurisdictional funding) to be committed to church extension, and that salaries for Church Extension Staff come from the combined resources for all conference administrative staff. Please see the report of Church Extension for details.

Pastoral Care Fund – This fund was increased and is being used under the direction of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Higher Education

- Wesley Foundations - After consultation with the Conference Board of Higher Education and Ministry, it is recommended that the Transition Team affirm and support the work the Board is doing to reduce their budget, establish clearer accountability to and stronger oversight by the Conference Board, and work toward meeting the goals established and set forth by the Strategic Vitality Task Force. The Transition Team deems no other action necessary at this time. Please see the report of the Conference Board of Higher Education and Ministry for more detail.
- Dillard University - After review by the Task Force and consultation with Dillard it is recommended no changes be made at this time to the existing funding schedule for Dillard University.
- Centenary College - After review by the Task Force and consultation with Centenary it is recommended no changes be made at this time to the existing funding schedule for Centenary College. It is recommended that the Annual Conference allocation made to Centenary College be made free of any restrictions and placed at the discretion of the College for use as the Centenary Board of Trustees deems appropriate.

Equitable Compensation - Funding was cut to this purpose because sufficient funding and/or reserves are on hand to support present needs. Please see their report for details.

Board of Pensions - Funding was reduced for support of pensions. The Board of Pensions expects to be able to operate with its present resources. Please see their report for details.

Wesley Center - Conference funding was reduced for the Wesley Center. Please see their report for further details.

Conference Administration: The following ministries experienced salary and budget reductions. Please see their individual reports for details of their continuing ministry.

- Center for Pastoral Excellence
- Academy for Spiritual Formation
- Hispanic Ministries

The following conference ministries experienced significant cuts with no remaining conference staff person and reduced budgets. The transition team was in conversation with boards and groups responsible for continuing ministry in those areas and submits these recommendations:

Volunteers in Mission - The transition team worked with the present director of LAVIM and the VIM Advisory Council to offer these areas of focus:

- Build on strengths of VIM and non-VIM projects
 - Define and identify mission-centered churches
 - Identify and connect mission-specialist individuals by country or team leader designation or certification
 - Retain the VIM Advisory Board to:
 - Define new mission and vision
 - Identify and develop mission-centered resource churches and team leaders,
 - VIM remain a resource entity for mission locations, missionary connections, travel agents
 - Training and certification of leaders
 - Speaker's Bureau for churches
 - Liaison to Conference and CBGM, GBGM and SCJ
 - Oversee with CFA, conference funding, funds held in the Foundation and scholarship decisions
- Communication resources, events and mission connections via website.

Initial Recommendations for continuing LA VIM:

- Define and identify mission-centered church structure.
- Redesign and update website to resource and listing structure.
- Identify mission specialists by country and separately by team leader designation.
- Seek travel agents who could serve initially in trip support until churches and VIM Advisory Group get structure for that support

Christian Education - The Transition team and the Conference Board of Discipleship began conversations about fulfilling their primary responsibility to “develop and promote a conference program of Christian Education for the whole life span, to lead, assist, and support congregations and districts in developing systems for educational and small group ministries...” (Book of Discipline Paragraph 630.2) Initial Recommendations:

- In response to the loss of administrative staff, the Conference Board is planning two events in the future (2014) spread geographically through the Annual Conference, oriented towards Christian Education.
- Both the Transition team and the Conference Board of Discipleship would strongly suggest that each District Superintendent and District Ministry Teams be willing to act as a resource center, identifying people within their districts that are currently doing “good work” to advance Christian Education not only in their local churches, but throughout their districts.
- Both the Transition Team and Conference Board of Discipleship would like to recommend funding held in reserve and in future received on Christian Education Sunday, be directed to the Conference Board of Discipleship to be used directly or as grants to the District Ministry Teams that are resourcing effective Christian Education programming in our conference.

Multi-cultural Ministries - The transition team recommends that future Multi-cultural Ministries focus on:

- Vital mission focused churches (could be single race, single culture, or multiracial or multicultural)
- Effective spiritual leaders (of all races and cultures)

- Diverse yet inclusive
- Racial and Cultural representation at all levels of the annual conference

Conference Youth – The transition team recommends:

- The retention of the Conference Youth Director.
- Funding for Youth Ministries remain the same for the 2014 budget as it was in the 2013 budget ($23,100).
- Sustaining the connectionism of conference youth and youth programs
- The furthering of youth leadership in the conference.
- To make a steady progression of less reliance on a staff position without a sudden change to no position.

The changes brought by the work of the Strategic Vitality Task Force in 2012 have had by some estimation great impact on the life and work of the Louisiana Annual Conference. It remains to be seen whether these changes will actually bring greater vitality or at least point us in the direction of financial responsibility in a changing time. Many of these decisions, which seem drastic, are but small tweaks in systems that need bold adaptive change to serve the future.

The Transition Team offers to you these recommendations in great hope.

STRUCTURE REVISION TEAM RECOMMENDATION

“...for you have never passed this way before.”

Joshua 3:4

2012 Recommendation of the Conference Ministry Team

At the 2012 Annual Conference, the Conference Ministry Team moved that the Presiding Bishop form a task force to study and recommend an alternative structure for the ministry and mission of the Louisiana Annual Conference.

The rationale for the proposal was that the Louisiana Annual Conference is shifting from being organized as a service provider to being organized for missional strategy; therefore, we need a structure better suited for this task. While any changes must be consistent with the current Book of Discipline, a new structure for Conference ministries should provide for a more flexible decision-making method, greater creativity and innovation, and greater agility in reaching missional goals.

After the 2012 Annual Conference adopted the Conference Ministry Team’s report, the Structure Revision Team was established and began work.

The Purpose of the Annual Conference

An understanding of the purpose of the Louisiana Annual Conference is vital to the work of evaluating current ministry structures and discerning a future organization.

“The mission of The United Methodist Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.” ¶120, The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, 2012

The purpose of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church “is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God.” ¶601, The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, 2012

This purpose is achieved by vital congregations that inspire, equip, and empower people to be disciples of Jesus Christ in their homes, in their communities, and around the world.

The structural organization of the Louisiana Annual Conference exists to serve Jesus Christ by strengthening, resourcing, and supporting the local church as the “most significant arena through which disciple-making occurs.” ¶120, The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, 2012

Five areas of focus currently serve to direct the missional work of the Louisiana Annual Conference:

- Developing Principled Christian Leaders
- New Places for New People
- Engaging Ministry with the Poor
- Stamping Out Killer Diseases of Poverty by Improving Health Globally
- Vital Congregations

Methodology of the Structure Revision Team

Undergirded with prayer and a discerning spirit, the members of the Structure Revision Team are Andrew Blackwood, John Cannon, Jerry Hilbun, Tim Smith, Leslie Stephens, Ruben Vaughn, Dianne Wilkinson, Deborah Williams, Ed Boyd and Hadley Edwards (Cabinet liaisons), Don Cottrill (Provost & Director of Connectional Ministries), and Margaret Johnson (Chairperson).

The team has extensively discussed the current Conference structure, requirements of the Book of Discipline, concerns particular to the Louisiana Annual Conference, emerging needs for innovative mission and ministry, issues of effective leadership, and theological understandings of the nature and purpose of the Church.

The team conducted personal interviews with lay and clergy leadership in the Louisiana Annual Conference to determine the strengths and weaknesses of our current structure and to forecast future needs as we seek to make disciples of Jesus Christ. Persons interviewed included past and current district superintendents, former members and chairs of the Conference Ministry Team, Conference lay leaders, and others. Because this work is detailed and complex, the team will seek to continue its work by conducting listening posts in each district to further gather perspectives and opinions about the current structure and future needs.

The team also gathered information from other Annual Conferences that have been through a similar restructuring process. The team identified strengths and weaknesses of each Conference structure, spoke with persons in those Conferences, and evaluated how their work could be applied to the specific circumstances of this Conference.

Recommendations to the 2013 Annual Conference

Due to the complex nature of the issue, the Structure Revision Team requests that the 2013 Annual Conference authorize the Team to continue its current work and offer a recommendation on the Conference structure to the 2014 Annual Conference.

The Structure Revision Team proposes that the Louisiana Annual Conference establish the “Joshua Team,” effective July 1, 2013. This is to be a two-year pilot program.

The purpose of the Joshua Team is to provide short- and long-term vision casting that supports the purpose, focus areas, and guiding principles of the Louisiana Annual Conference. The team will develop goals and objectives with measurable outcomes for the Conference and will coordinate the various Conference ministries to more effectively accomplish our shared mission. The team will also identify emerging missional needs and seek the deployment of resources to meet those needs. Consistent with the purpose of an Annual Conference, special attention will be given to equipping local churches for ministry and providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church.

It is expected that the Joshua Team will provide the Conference with a more flexible decision-making capability, greater creativity and innovation, and greater agility in reaching missional goals. And it is hoped that the Joshua team will become the centerpiece of a larger, more comprehensive proposal by the Structure Revision Team to the 2014 Annual Conference.

The Joshua Team will be appointed by the Presiding Bishop, in consultation with the Cabinet. The bishop will serve as a convener, and will select a co-convener from among the membership of the team to lead and conduct the work of the team in her absence. The team will be comprised of persons who are gifted spiritual and visionary leaders. Both laity and clergy may serve, and the diverse constituent interests of the Conference will be represented. The team will not exceed thirteen members, including the bishop and co-convener.

This team will evaluate its effectiveness, further clarify its role, and give feedback on its work to the Structure Revision Team.

The Joshua Team will report to the 2015 Annual Conference with a recommendation on its continuation after the two-year pilot period. It will recommend any changes in purpose and duties that will help serve the needs of the Conference mission and ministry.

The Structure Revision Team recommends that the Conference Ministry Team be discontinued, effective July 1, 2013, and that the Conference boards and agencies who report to the CMT now report directly to the Annual Conference through the Director of Connectional Ministries who will coordinate the work of the boards and agencies. It is further recommended that the current Conference Personnel Committee continue through July 1, 2014, and report to the Director of Connectional Ministries.

2. The Council reminds all congregations of the importance of STEWARDSHIP in the life of all Christians. Christ calls His disciples to give as an act of worship of God. We are called to be stewards of all that God has given to us. Paragraph 630.5e of the 2012 Discipline lists among the responsibilities in the area of Stewardship of the Conference Board of Discipleship, "To educate the local church that tithing is the minimum goal of giving in the United Methodist Church". CFA calls upon the Conference Ministry Team, the Conference Board of Discipleship, and the District Ministry Teams to consider methods of assisting our congregations in developing a process of education in a theology of stewardship. The intent of this request is to enhance the ministry of our local congregations, our members, and our Conference and world ministries.
3. The Council recommends a continued emphasis by all churches on Advance Specials, both General Advance and Conference Advance Specials. All churches are to pay in full their designated apportionments before appropriating funds for second-mile projects.
4. Each pastoral charge is asked to continue support of Mt. Sequoyah, the South Central Jurisdiction Conference and Retreat Center, with a goal of $35 per pastoral charge. Each district is to raise the amount based on the total number of charges in the district and mail it to the Conference Treasurer.
5. It is recommended that the Whitney National Bank and J. P. Morgan Chase Bank be designated as the principal depositories for general operating funds of the Louisiana Annual Conference. The CFA Investment Committee is also recommending that all cash flow, contingency and surplus funds be invested with the United Methodist Foundation. Authority to open accounts is given to the Conference Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer and the President of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Louisiana Conference. Authorized signatures on the accounts and deposit boxes are to be: Conference Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer, designated representative(s) of the CFA, designated conference office director(s) as named by CFA, and the Senior Pastor of First UMC, Baton Rouge.

6. The Council has contracted with William E. DeLoach, Certified Public Accountant of Baton Rouge, to audit the books of the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer. The auditor's report for the year ending December 31, 2012, is included in the Treasurer's Report found in this report.
7. We recommend that the pastoral charge consider a vouchered amount of $7,200 for Pastor's Travel/Professional Expense and an amount of $7,200 for Utilities/Furnishings expense for each clergy.
8. We recommend that the local churches reimburse the moving expenses of incoming clergy up to $6,000. Churches are asked to budget this amount each year. Money not used for moving should be placed in an escrow account to assure such funds as needed. When the recommended amount is exceeded by the incoming clergy, that clergy should pay the additional costs.
9. We recommend that the Pastoral Charge pay the Travel, Housing and Meal expenses of its Annual Conference Members (Lay and Clergy) to attend the Annual Conference Session.
10. We remind the clergy of the Annual Conference who will move to another charge that they are to accept salary and expense only through the end of the conference year (June 30) from the charge they are presently serving. The salary, benefits and expenses paid at the new charge begin July 1.
11. The Council recommends that all clergy under appointment be compensated semi-monthly.
12. In order to comply with the federal income tax regulations, we recommend that the utilities and other housing expenses on the Conference Directors' residences and the district parsonages be considered a part of their cash compensation as "Housing Allowance."

 The Conference Council on Finance and Administration has approved a multi-year plan for the Conference support for Centenary College and Dillard University. These plans would establish two endowments with the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation. Over the course of several years, the Conference would continue the apportionment to Centenary College and Dillard University, but with a portion of the apportionments going directly to the Colleges and a portion going into the endowments for the Colleges. The charts below provide for the allocation of the apportionments for 2011 through 2018. When the endowment reaches $1,000,000 for Centenary College and $250,000 for Dillard an annual 5% draw would be allocated to the colleges. The Conference apportionment would then be set at a level of $250,000 per year for Centenary and $50,000 per year for Dillard, along with the proceeds from the endowment. While the Annual Conference will be the major donor to the endowments in these beginning years, individuals, churches, and other groups would be encouraged to add to the fund through direct contributions, estate planning, deferred giving, or other means of gifting. The funds provided to the colleges, both directly and through the endowments, when available, will be used at the discretion of the colleges and not considered “designated funds” for any specific program.

C. FUNDING

Conf. Admin. Apportionment	$1,394,316	$1,475,602
2013-Remaining Lilly Funds	63,505	39,765

*= Salary Components

NOTE: The 2013 Conference Administration Fund apportionment decreased due to the shifting of Church Extension staff compensation to a separate line item in the budget, and to the elimination and reduction of several other Conference staff positions. Remaining Lily funds were used in 2013 to help supplement a part of the compensation for the director and support staff of the Center for Pastoral Effectiveness. The 2014 Conference Administration Fund apportionment increase is due to the shifting of Church Extension staff compensation back from the Church Extension line item apportionment to the Conference Administration budget. Also, remaining Lily Funds will again be used in 2014 to help supplement a part of the compensation for the director and support staff of the Center for Pastoral Effectiveness.

2. All remittances for 2013 must be received by the Conference Treasurer's Office not later than January 9, 2014.
3. The Annual Conference grants permission to Centenary College and Dillard University to make an appeal for every church in the Conference to send a "paid student" to the institutions.
4. The Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer is authorized to pay from the District Superintendents' Fund for expenses of Cabinet Meetings. The Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer of the Conference is authorized to pay from the District Superintendent's Fund to the Pension Fund an amount for each District Superintendent to meet the General Board of Pension requirement.
5. We recommend that each district provide at least three-fourth time secretarial help for the District Superintendent from district budget funds. The Annual Conference requires that copies of the annual budget and audit for each district be mailed to the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer for the Council not later than April 15 following the previous fiscal year.
6. The base salary of all the District Superintendents shall be equal throughout the Conference. Since District Superintendents are appointed by the Bishop as officers of the Conference, their salary, travel expense, utilities and housing allowance, pensions, professional expenses, and the Conference health insurance premium shall be paid by the Annual Conference. We recommend the following income be paid to the District Superintendents from the District Superintendents' Fund: Base Compensation for 2014, $88,442 (see Conference Rules for the rule concerning salary); utilities/furnishings - $7,200; and a total pooled amount of $27,000 to be drawn by voucher and used for professional expenses that the District Superintendent incurs in carrying out the responsibilities of the office. The Council shall provide an automobile travel reimbursement expense for each District Superintendent to be drawn by voucher at the current IRS standard mileage reimbursement rate from a total pooled budget of $82,063.
7. Each Council, Board, Commission, Committee, etc. of the Conference receiving funding from the Conference shall designate one person, other than the chairperson, as the Finance Officer. The Finance Officer shall keep for that board or agency a current record of financial transactions involving the budget receipts and expenditures for that body.

The Finance Officer shall receive all vouchers from members and shall approve and submit them to the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer. Vouchers must be specific, in detail, accompanied by the appropriate receipts, and must bear the signed approval of the Finance Officer. The Finance Officer shall in turn submit them to the Conference Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer within three weeks. In order to assist the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer to close the books and set up books for a new fiscal year, all Finance Officers shall submit final vouchers of said board and agency by December 13, 2013.

OFFICIAL VOUCHER POLICY FOR CONFERENCE BOARDS AND AGENCIES:

- Travel – Within the State of Louisiana – Travel Expense for Conference Boards and Agencies is set at a maximum of 25 cents per mile. When three or more members are traveling together, a maximum of 30 cents per mile will be paid. Regardless of the mode of travel used, the maximum of 25 cents per mile will still apply. Beyond the state, the most economical mode of travel must be used with this new provision: That an amount of $500 per year be the normal limit for reimbursable travel expense for members of Louisiana councils, boards, commissions and committees who reside outside the state boundaries to attend regular meetings of their conference agency. This limit applies to funds that come from conference line item budgets. A Conference agency may vote to increase this amount if the members choose to make an exception due to the specific need of participation by a particular member. This limit applies only to travel and not to per diem lodging and meal costs. Air travel must be supported by the air ticket stub.
 - Lodging and Meals – Reimbursement for lodging expenses will be made for the actual amount of expenses incurred. Moderately priced hotel or motel accommodations are suggested. An itemized bill must accompany the request for reimbursement. Reimbursement will be made for meals for the actual expense incurred, but not for entertainment or room service. Any meals exceeding $5 must be supported by receipts. CFA recommends that those submitting vouchers for hotel and food reimbursements use good stewardship to keep costs at a minimum.
8. All institutions and agencies receiving funds from the Annual Conference are required to submit a financial statement at the end of each calendar year. (See Conference Rules for Rule on Annual Audits.)
 9. A balance at the close of the year in the Conference Benevolence Budget of any conference board or agency will be placed in the Conference Benevolences Reserve for the next year. Also, at the end of the fiscal year, any funds remaining in individual line items of the Conference Budget that is over 10% of that line item's budget shall be moved into the Conference's Contingency Fund to help build an emergency fund that could be used in a future disaster or catastrophe, such as another hurricane or gulf oil spill, or liabilities that are a result of severe market decline, lawsuit, litigation, etc. (Budgeted line items that have permission of CFA or Annual Conference to carry a reserve of more than 10% of their budget will be exempt from this.) The Annual Conference shall continue to place in the Contingency Fund of the Annual Conference all interest from the invested funds of the different conference boards and agencies. The Council shall use the Investment Committee of the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation to assist in the investment of conference funds. Local churches and conference institutions shall consider using the Foundation for the investment of their funds. The Contingency Fund may be used at the discretion of the Council in any amount needed for emergencies arising in between regular sessions of annual conference, or up to $100,000 annually for any other missional need of the Conference.
 10. We recommend that the Louisiana Annual Conference Wesley Foundations be given basic support by a decimal item to be apportioned to the churches of the Conference. Amounts of the funds to be given to each Wesley Foundation will be determined by the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry.
 11. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration recommends the following procedure for selecting and continuing with a Conference property/liability insurance broker:
 Brokers' selection is to be based on accessibility, reputation, selection of carriers, cost of product and knowledge of product including United Methodist General Church Insurance. An Advisory/Search Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration will publicize through the Louisiana NOW when new opportunities or bidding on Conference insurance are available.
 After a broker is selected, the broker will normally be retained for a minimum of three years. This term is considered beneficial because of the multi-faceted types of coverage necessary for a variety of persons, property and equipment. If the selected insurance broker's services are considered unsatisfactory or rates are considered excessive during a three-year cycle, the relationship may be terminated and the broker replaced.
 The new selection procedure became effective January 1, 1995. This selection is to be utilized for each three-year cycle thereafter. The Advisory/Search Committee members will be the President of CFA; the Executive Director of Administrative Services/Treasurer, the Cabinet liaison to CFA; a representative of Conference Board of Trustees; and one other selected by the President of CFA.
 12. The Council on Finance and Administration reminds all persons, clergy and lay, handling funds in local churches to adhere to Paragraph 258.4(f) of the 2012 The Book of Discipline which states:
 "Contributions designated for specific causes and objects shall be promptly forwarded according to the intent of the donor and shall not be used for any other purpose."
 This reminder is made by CFA although local churches and institutions are presently and have always been responsible for the proper use of funds.

13. The Council reports the following special grants were approved for 2012 from the General Contingency Fund:

Episcopal Residence	$20,000
Episcopal Retirement Gift	$2,000

14. The CFA is recommending that the annual conference authorize the transfer of current and future undesignated conference receipts from gas leases and royalties (as allowed by the Book of Discipline and Conference rules) to the New Church Development Fund at the UMF. The total of this fund on 12/31/12 was $526,707. This fund is being overseen by the Conference Church Extension Committee (in consultation with the Cabinet) to help purchase land, retire capital debt of parsonages, and other needed expenses of the newest church starts in our conference.

15. The recommendation of the CFA Investment Committee is as follows:

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION FUND MANAGEMENT GUIDELINES

The Administrative Services Office of the Louisiana Annual Conference serves as an administrator for funds deposited with it by agencies under the jurisdiction of the Louisiana Annual Conference (LAC). The LAC maintains oversight on these assets according to the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. Prudent management of the LAC assets requires a carefully conceived investment strategy individually designed to obtain a total return (aggregate return from capital appreciation and dividend and interest income) necessary to preserve and ideally enhance the principal of such funds.

In addition to identifying factors that the LAC must consider in making management and investment decisions, The Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA), adopted by Louisiana Legislative Act 168 in 2010, requires a charity and those who manage and invest its funds to:

- give primary consideration to donor intent as expressed in a gift instrument;
- act in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent person would exercise;
- incur only reasonable costs in investing and managing charitable funds;
- make a reasonable effort to verify relevant facts;
- make decisions about each asset in the context of the portfolio of investments, as part of an overall investment strategy;
- diversify investments unless, due to special circumstances, the purposes of the fund are better served without diversification;
- dispose of unsuitable assets; and,
- develop an investment strategy appropriate for the fund and the charity.”

Allocation of assets should be determined for each specific investment based upon the short and long term needs of the funds being invested for each agency of the LAC. The mix of investments styles chosen should maximize the return to the fund and balance market expectations. Agency funds that are expected to be permanent in nature should be invested in an allocation of medium to long term strategies composed of a mix of both equities and fixed income. Expected distributions from those agency funds should be held separately in a money market type investment. The LAC should review the investment time horizon/duration for those funds at least annually and make changes as appropriate. Although each agency fund individually will be comprised of various investments, when taken together as a portfolio, should provide a reasonable return while offering protection from inflation.

CFA encourages the use of our LA Conference United Methodist Foundation for investment purposes. In general, the CFA recommends use of the Fixed Income Fund at the UMF for all short term funds where it is expected the monies may be needed for disbursement in the near future. The CFA recommends use of the Balanced Fund or the Equity Fund at the UMF for long term funds that are more permanent in nature, and for funds where it is not expected that the monies will need to be disbursed in the near future.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Conference Council on Finance and Administration
 Louisiana Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church
 Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Report on the Financial Statements

I have audited the accompanying statement of assets and net assets - cash basis of the Louisiana Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2012, and the related statement of revenues, expenses, changes in net assets - cash basis for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. Their responsibility also includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. According, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Louisiana Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2012, and the results of their operations for the year then ended in accordance with the cash basis of accounting which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

LOUISIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Notes to Financial Statements

For the year ended December 31, 2012

NOTE 1. Organization and Purpose

The Louisiana Annual Conference is an unincorporated organization of four hundred ninety-six Methodist churches located in Louisiana, and is one of fifty-nine Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church in the United States. The Conference elects a Council on Finance and Administration whose purpose is to "develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures and management services for the Conference. The Conference and therefore the Council, cannot financially obligate any organizational unit of the United Methodist Church except the Annual Conference itself."

NOTE 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting. Accordingly, the financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Under the cash basis method of accounting, revenues are recognized when actually received rather than when earned, and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. The financial statements are a summary of the cash and investment activity of the organization.

Source of Revenue & Recognition

Churches in the Louisiana Conference are required to remit their apportionments to the Conference to support the programs of the United Methodist Church. The apportionments are then allocated to the categories as required by the General Council on Finance and Administration and in turn remitted to the General Council on Finance and Administration. Some cash receipts and disbursements that occur after year end are recorded as transactions of the prior year to which they apply. Consequently, cash balances reported as of year-end are adjusted for subsequent receipts and disbursements that are applicable to the prior year.

Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference has adopted FASB ASC Topic 958 Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under FASB ASC Topic 958, the Conference is required to report information regarding its financial and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Income Taxes

The Conference is an organization of the United Methodist Church which is exempt from federal and state income tax and is not a private foundation.

NOTE 2. Property, Plant, and Equipment

The Conference's policy is to expense property, plant, and equipment at the date of acquisition which is a departure from generally accepted accounting principles. The property, plant, and equipment acquired by the Conference have not been capitalized and are not presented as a part of these financial statements.

Off Balance Sheet Assets

Non-cash gifts received such as estates and trusts are not recorded as assets until converted into cash.

Cash, Marketable Securities and Other Investments

Investments in marketable securities and other investments are recognized at current market value as determined by the financial markets as of year-end. Investments include high grade corporate securities and U.S. Treasury securities with minimal risk and are not held for trading purposes. Investment income, investment expenses, realized and unrealized gains and losses are recorded as a component of current revenues and expenses and are not separately reported. The organization considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Contributed Services

The Conference does not recognize any support, revenue or expense from services contributed by volunteers.

NOTE 3. Pension Plan

The Conference contributes to a defined benefit plan for clergy with service prior to 1982. The plan is administered by the General Board of Pensions. Total fair value of pension assets was $35,076,980. Total benefits paid was $2,918,833.

The Conference also contributes to a defined contribution and a defined benefit pension plan for clergy administered by the General Board of Pensions. The contributions for 2012 were as follows:

Conference staff and special ministries clergy	$ 236,030
Equitable compensation pension supplement	492
Conference laity staff pensions	39,954
Total Contributions	$ 276,476

NOTE 5. Concentration Risk

The Conference depends on support generated by the churches in the Louisiana Conference. Changing economic conditions that affect contributions from church memberships could impact the ministries and operations supported by the Conference.

The Conference maintains cash accounts in the following financial institutions:

Hancock Bank	$2,163,263
Southern Teachers FCU	26,351
Liberty Bank & Trust Savings	1,390
Liberty Bank & Trust CD	16,019
Chase Bank	54,714
Total	$2,261,737

The amount in excess of FDIC insurance limits is $1,913,263

The Conference also maintains funds in a repurchase agreement sweep maintained by Hancock Bank. Funds excess of a certain balance in the account are swept into a repurchase account used to purchase United States treasury securities. The securities are held until needed by the Conference at which time Hancock Bank repurchases the securities from the account and places funds and earnings back into the account for use by the Conference. The account is not insured by the FDIC and are not guaranteed by the United States government or any of its agencies.

The Conference maintains deposit accounts with United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana totaling $12,262,864 and the General Board of Pensions totaling $156,774. Deposits held by the Foundation or the General Board of Pensions may not be guaranteed by federal deposit insurance.

NOTE 6. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 7. Subsequent Events

FASB ASC Topic 855 for Subsequent Events introduces the concepts of financial statements being "available to be issued," and requires disclosure of the date through which an entity has evaluated subsequent events and whether that date represents the date the financial statements were issued or were available to be issued. ASC Topic 855 does not result in significant changes to subsequent events that are reported either through recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. FASB ASC Topic 855 is effective for the Organization's December 31, 2012 financial statements, and the Conference has evaluated subsequent events through March 25, 2013, the date the financial statements were issued.

NOTE 8. Fair Value Measurements

FASB ASC Topic 820 on Fair Value Measurements established a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC Topic 820 are described below:

Level 1 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Conference has the ability to access.

Level 2 Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- a. Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets.
- b. Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets.
- c. Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability.
- d. Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value.

Funds held by others: Valued at the net asset value of shares held by the plan at year end.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future values. Furthermore, while the the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could results in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Assets at Fair Value as of December 31, 2012:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Funds Held by Others		$12,419,637		$12,419,637

BOARD OF PENSIONSREPORT I*I. CONFERENCE MATTERS

- A. That $200,000 be apportioned to the charges of the Louisiana Annual Conference in 2014.
- B. Payments made to the pension apportionment shall be exactly proportional to the amount paid on the clergy salary or salaries of a given charge, i.e. if the church does not pay the pension apportionment in full, neither should pastor's salary be paid in full. See Paragraph 622, The Book of Discipline.

II. PRE-1982 BENEFITS

We recommend:

- A. That the funded annuity rate for 2014 be $677.00 per service year. In 2013, it was $661 per service year. Benefits to surviving spouses of clergy shall be 75% of the annuity rate.
- B. The Conference Board of Pensions is recommending that the "Past Service Rate" for years prior to 1982 be set at 1% of the CAC for 2014 ($677 per year) and that this rate be reviewed annually. The CAC is set annually by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The CAC amount for 2014 is $67,748.

III. CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PLAN (CRSP) FOR CLERGY AT LEAST HALF (1/2) TIME & UMPIP FOR CLERGY SERVICE LESS THAN HALF (1/2) TIME

We recommend:

- A. That Participants shall be all Clergy members of the Louisiana Annual Conference including Deacons and Local Pastors under Episcopal appointment to a charge. The Conference Board of Pensions includes in the Louisiana Conference plan Deacons as a definite and integral segment of the program. All local churches and United Methodist agencies who employ Deacons shall pay for a United Methodist Retirement Plan in addition to salary.
- B. That Participants' Plan Compensation is the sum of: (1) cash salary (including tax deferred annuities and professional expense allowances) received from church-related sources; (2) utilities; and (3) housing allowance, or when a parsonage is provided, 25% of the Plan Compensation as the approximate value of that parsonage.
- C. That the following chart, based on the DAC or CAC, whichever is the lower, be used to determine part-time increment status of an appointment to a charge or conference-controlled agency as it relates to pension years of service and pension billing calculation.

2013 – Based on 60% of the DAC ($63,867)

$1 - $19,159	=	¼ Time Status	UMPIP Only
$19,160 - $28,739	=	½ Time Status	CRSP
$28,740 - $38,319	=	¾ Time Status	CRSP
$38,320 and above	=	Full Time Status	CRSP

2014 – Based on 60% of the DAC ($65,186)

$1 - $19,555	=	¼ Time Status	UMPIP Only
$19,556 - $29,333	=	½ Time Status	CRSP
$29,334 - $39,111	=	¾ Time Status	CRSP
$39,112 and above	=	Full Time Status	CRSP

- D. For clergy serving at least half (1/2 time) to a local church or conference-controlled agency, shall participate in the GBOPHB's CRSP plan; and that the church's contribution base be set as a percentage of plan compensation according to the following:

Defined Benefit (DB) – 10% of Pension Plan Compensation with a cap at $6,000

Plus

Defined Contribution (DC) – 3% of Pension Plan Compensation. *

Example 1: Pension Plan Compensation = $55,000

DB: $55,000 x 10% = $5,500

DC: $55,000 x 3% = $1,650

$$\text{Total CRSP} = $5,500 + $1,650 = $7,150$$

Example 2: Pension Plan Compensation = $88,900

$$\text{DB: } $88,900 \times 10\% = $8,890 \text{ (Cap at } $6,000\text{)}$$

$$\text{DC: } $88,900 \times 3\% = $2,667$$

$$\text{Total CRSP} = $6,000 + $2,667 = $8,667$$

*General Conference in 2012 decided that 2% of the plan comp would automatically go into the clergy's personal DC account, but the final 1% of plan comp would only go into the clergy's personal DC account if the clergy also contributed at least a matching 1% of plan comp into his/her personal UMPIP account. The CBOP is recommending to bill the normal full 3% of plan comp for DC, regardless whether the clergy participates in the matching UMPIP contributions. Any excess receipts resulting from this billing would be used to cover other unfunded administrative expenses of the CBOP such as annual billing arrearages the Conference is responsible for.

If annual conference does not accept this recommendation of the Task Force and the CBOP to use any possible surplus receipts for administrative expenses such as arrearages, and instead votes to refund the local churches the 1% matching contribution for those clergy that do not participate, then the CBOP recommends that the CRSP DB billing formula cap be increased from $6000 to $6500.

- E. For clergy serving less than half (1/2 time) to a local church or conference-controlled agency, shall participate in the GBOPHB's La. Conference-Sponsored UMPIP plan; and that the church's contribution base be set as a percentage of plan compensation according to the following:

UMPIP: 10% of Pension Plan Compensation

Example: Pension Plan Compensation = $15,000

UMPIP: $$15,000 \times 10\% = $1,500$ annually or $125 per month

- F. Contributions for each participant shall be paid directly by the paying unit to the Louisiana Annual Conference, 527 North Blvd., Baton Rouge, LA 70802-5720.
- G. Participants may contribute additional personal funds withheld from clergy compensation by his/her appointed church to the UMPIP with remittances made directly to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, P.O. Box 4609, Chicago, IL 60680-4609. Clergy shall have his/her employer make direct deposit into a pre-tax or after-tax account, in accordance with federal government regulations. Further information concerning the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan may be obtained from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, 1901 Chestnut Drive, Glenview, IL 60025-1604 (1-800-851-2201).

- C. 2013 Benefits Amounts For The Comprehensive Protection Plan
The 2013 Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) is $63,867.

For more information about the terms and conditions of CPP, please see the CPP Summary Plan Description (SPD) available at www.gbophb.org/TheWell/Root/CPP/3097.pdf. Although all efforts have been made to ensure the accuracy of this document, in the event of a discrepancy between this document and the SPD or CPP plan document, the SPD and plan document always govern.

The remaining half is paid if the child is attending a post-secondary school. If the child enters a post-secondary institution of higher learning prior to age 18, the post-secondary educational benefit may become effective at that time.

Disability Benefits

The disability benefit equals 70% of plan compensation for the plan year in which the first payment is effective, with plan compensation capped at 200% of the DAC. The disability benefit is reduced by any disability benefits payable under the Social Security Act.⁷

Eligible participants receiving CPP disability benefits may also receive retirement plan contributions. A contribution equal to 3% of compensation (as defined by CRSP) will be credited, in monthly installments, to the participant's CRSP defined contribution account.

7 Other reductions may apply in accordance with the terms of the SPD, as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

- D. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is recommending one of the options available to Conferences through the Comprehensive Protection Plan. Article 111, Section 3.02 (a) states that persons "appointed to less than full-time service" not participate in the CPP unless special arrangements are made. Special arrangements for such cases may be found in the "Plan" at Article 111, Section 3.03 (a).

The Conference Board of Pensions can offer the CPP on an elective basis which allows a clergy serving as a full member, associate member or a provisional member at less than full-time service (75% or more) to elect to participate. In such a case, the individual participant or salary paying unit would pay the 4.4% of the DAC to participate in the plan.

IV. OPTIONAL UMLIFE PLAN

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits adopted the Optional UMLife Insurance Plan on January 1, 2009. This plan is available to all full-time clergy under Episcopal appointment and who are enrolled in the CPP benefit program, as an optional life insurance plan at the cost to the clergy participant. This plan allows the participant to purchase additional life insurance coverage, a spousal death benefit and/or a child death benefit. REPORT IVVACATION POLICY

This Vacation Policy for Clergy is to standardize clergy vacations across the Conference. The policy is for clergy appointed within the bounds of the Louisiana Conference.

	CONFERENCE RELATIONSHIP	TIME OF SERVICE	VACATION TIME
(1)	Full-Time Local Pastors in process, Attending the four-week Course of Study		2 weeks paid
(2)	Full-Time Clergy (Full Members, Provisional Members, Assoc. Members, Full Connection Deacons, FTLTP) Part-time Local Pastors	5 years or less	2 weeks paid 1 week including 1 Sunday paid

(4)	Full-Time Clergy (Full Members, Provisional Members, Assoc. Members, Full Connection Deacons, FTLTP) Part-time Local Pastors	10 years or more of service	4 weeks paid 3 weeks including 3 Sundays paid

NOTE: Years of service refer to years of service in an Annual Conference(s) of the United Methodist Church, not years of service in the local church to which the clergy is appointed. These years of service include years under appointment to Seminary or beyond the local church.

Time used for Continuing Education, as defined by The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church and according to the rules set by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, shall not be considered as vacation time or used in lieu of vacation time. Vacation time is on a conference year basis. Vacation time not used in one year cannot be carried over into the next year.

DAYS OFF POLICY:

The Annual Conference's policy is that each local church's Pastor-Parish Relations Committee establish a days off policy with the pastor(s) of the charge. The minimum standard for days off is as follows: 2 days per week and 2 nights per week. Additional time should be set aside each week for prayer and study for the pastor's use.

If an honorarium is given to a guest pastor while the appointed pastor is on vacation, it shall be paid by the local church and not from that pastor's compensation.

Churches should encourage their pastor(s) to participate in physical exercise programs, good nutrition programs, and to get regular checkups with their doctors.

This policy is to be printed each year in the Journal of the Louisiana Annual Conference. The Cabinet of the Louisiana Annual Conference will send a copy of this policy to the Chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee in each District.

BEREAVEMENT LEAVE POLICY

All clergy in any relationship - PTLTP, FTLTP, AM, PE, PD, Full Connection, or retired if serving an appointment – shall be offered at least 30 days for bereavement leave (BL) for the death of a spouse or child. The District Superintendent shall initiate this process by informing the bereaved clergy of the availability of bereavement leave.

Bereavement leave will be in addition to vacation time, continuing education time and days off. The local church or conference agency to which the clergy is appointed shall continue to provide salary and housing, as well as pension and insurance payments, during the bereavement leave. The clergy will have ninety (90) days, beginning the day after the memorial/funeral service, in which to begin the bereavement leave. Details - pulpit supply, covering hospitals, etc. - will be worked out in conjunction with the District Superintendent and S/PPR chair. The clergy may use the bereavement leave in one block or some smaller blocks of time as he/she wishes, but must complete it within six months of the funeral/memorial service.

In many cases the congregation will have its own resources to secure appropriate pastoral leadership during the bereavement leave, but if the District Superintendent and S/PPR determine that financial assistance is needed to provide a supply pastor, the Annual Conference Board of Pensions will provide a maximum of $400 per week depending on whether the appointment is part or full time, and the responsibilities expected of the supply pastor. The District office will disburse any funds from the Conference Board of Pensions to the supply pastor. Counseling is available at no cost to all clergy by a confidential request to the Director of Care and Nurturing of the Louisiana Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.

REPORT VI
LOUISIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE FUNDING PLAN
FOR SUPPLEMENT ONE TO THE CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PLAN
AS OF JANUARY 1, 2013

The 2013 Past Service Rate (PSR) for the Louisiana Annual Conference is $661 or 1% of the 2013 Conference Average Compensation (CAC).

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has determined that the portion of the Pre-82 plan liability attributable to the Louisiana Annual Conference is $31,500,189 with a 3.5% PSR increase assumption, based on a 2013 PSR of $661. Plan funds currently held with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits have a value of $37,135,181 as of January 1, 2011.

The difference between the total plan liability and current plan funding is $5,634,992. This represents an over-funded plan asset of 118%.

Supplement One Liability Assuming

PSR Future Increase of 3.5% (Plan Liability)* $(31,500,189)

Current Plan Funding (Assets as of 1/1/2011)$37,1315,181
 Over-Funded Status (As of 1/1/2011).....$5,634,992

Based on 7% interest and RP2000 mortality table

The CBOP is requesting that the Louisiana Annual Conference set the 2014 PSR at $677, which will be 1% of the CAC or a 2.42% increase over 2013 and that in 2014, continue our true funding plan assumptions of annual CAC increases of 3.5% and setting the future PSR at 1% of the CAC. Based on the GBOPHB estimated actuarial valuation results for 2014, this would create a liability of $31,849,616 for the Louisiana Conference against assets of $33,860,353 (based on 1/1/12 values) and thus reflects a $2,010,737 (or 106%) overfunded status for 2014.

The usage of the Pre82 surplus funds to fund other plan liabilities, after consultation with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits actuaries, will be determined annually by the Conference Board of Pensions. In the past, it has been the recommendation of the conference board to utilize the surplus funds toward the Defined Benefit (DB) contribution portion of the CRSP pension plan. However, the conference board does recognize that if Pre82 surplus funds are used toward other plan liabilities, this could result in future Pre82 liability contributions. The Conference Board of Pensions does not recommend any Pre82 surplus funds be re-directed toward the CRSP DB plan in 2013.

If the funding plan for years beyond 2014 produces an underfunded Pre82 plan liability payment, then the intent is to use earnings (and principal if needed) from the UMF Louisiana Conference Pension Fund (listed in Report V. Statement Of Assets, of the 2012 conference journal and valued at $6,887,222 on 12/31/12) to restore the Pre-82 plan to 100% funded status.

Louisiana Annual ConferenceComprehensive Benefit Funding Plan*Louisiana Annual Conference 2014 COMPREHENSIVE BENEFIT FUNDING PLAN TEMPLATE

The Louisiana annual conference has the following benefit obligations:

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) Defined Benefit (DB) and Defined Contribution (DC)

The total liability for CRSP DB annuities as of 1/1/2012 is $737 million, the total plan assets are $744 million, and the current funded ratio for the plan is 101%. The Louisiana Conference's portion of the total liability is 1.45%, and the conference has elected to include 50%+ for FTE eligibility for 2014. As a result, the required contribution due as of 12/31/14 is $1,421,517.

It is anticipated that the amount will be funded from Future Incoming Money totaling $1,421,517.

The total accounts and/or future incoming money covers the required contribution.

The total liability for MPP annuities as of 1/1/2012 is $2.538 billion, the total plan assets are $2.639 billion, and the current funded ratio for the plan is 104%.

The conference's % of the total liability is 1.10%,. There is no required contribution for 2014.

Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $4.324 billion as of 1/1/2012. The conference's portion of this account balance at 1/1/12 is $56.415 million or 1.30% of the total.

Additional comments around MPP: Future MPP Liabilities will be funded through Pension Benefit Reserves. See Att.

Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (Pre-82)

For 2013, the PSR is $661.00. For 2014, the conference is increasing its PSR to $677.00. On average, the conference expects future increases to be approximately 4%. The rationale for our expectation is:

Stay at 1% of the CAC

The expectation for future average increases to the PSR has not changed from the past.

Key assumptions: 7.0% discount rate, using the RP2000 mortality table with a AA generational projection.

The conference does not intend to increase its contingent annuitant percentage from 75%.

Funding Plan Liability as of 1/1/2012	$31,849,616
Plan Assets as of 1/1/2012	$33,860,353
The current funded status is $2,010,737 with a 106% funded ratio.

Post-Retirement Medical Benefit Program

The Post Retiree Medical Plan currently offered and anticipated for 2014 can be described as: Self-funded

A more detailed description of this plan is: Medicare Supplement to Medicare A&B. We cover prescriptions after $200 per year per individual deductible and small co-pay.

Strategic plan for funding obligation is as follows: Conference Bills the retirees for their health care costs. Any deficit is subsidized by Woolworth Reserves at UMF The conference intends to retain the plan on an ongoing basis. The following is based on the most recent actuarial valuation dated as of 12/31/2011, prepared by Towers Watson

Total value of assets assigned to the PRM program is: $2,810,280 The source of additional funds to pay for this program is: Retiree Contributions and Conference Funding from Woolworth Foundation Annual Distribution Payments.

Louisiana Annual ConferenceComprehensive Benefit Funding Plan

The most recent PRM valuation showed the following liabilities:

Expected Post Retirement Obligation (EPBO) (net conference cost)	$30,183,093
--	--------------

Key assumptions: 4.40% discount rate, No assumption return on assets, 8.50% trend rate, ultimately going to 5.0% trend rate in the year 2019.

Source for paying for obligations: Retiree Contributions and Conference Funding from Woolworth Foundation Annual Distribution Payments

Additional comments around PRM: Woolworth Foundation Annual Distribution future Payments are unpredictable but have averaged about $500,000 per year since 1971

Active Health Benefit Program

The Louisiana conference offers the following active health program to its participants: Self-funded.

During the calendar year 2012, the total cost for the active health program was $3,374,230. The active health program was funded from Direct Billing to churches/employers supplemented by plan reserves as needed. See Att.. Future increases are expected in the range of 5.0%.

Rationale for anticipated increases to this obligation: Average of increase in past experience

Additional comments concerning this obligation: Because of being self-funded, it's difficult to predict/project future true cost.

Comprehensive Protection Plan

Currently (for 2012), the Louisiana Conference has an annual required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $479,531.

The anticipated increase in obligation for future years will be approximately 3.0% per year. This expected increase is due to: Average CAC Increase in Recent Years

It is anticipated the unfunded obligation will be funded as follows: Direct Bill to Churches/employers of 3% of plan comp

Additional Comments concerning this obligation: Arrearages will be funded through Pension Reserves. See Att.

Other Conference Benefit Obligations to Clergy and Staff

The Louisiana conference has the following other benefit obligations

Section A. United Methodist Personal Investment Plan

Currently (for 2012), the Louisiana Conference has an annual estimated contribution to the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan of $71,719.

The anticipated increase in obligation for future years will be approximately 3.0% per year. This expected increase is due to: Average CAC Increase in Recent Years. This will be funded by: Direct Bill to Churches/Employers for Less Than Half-Time Clergy = 10% of Pastor's Plan Comp

Additional Comments concerning this obligation: Any Arrearages will be paid from Pension Apportionment or Benefit reserves. See Att.

CONFERENCE MINISTRY TEAM

The Conference Ministry Team (CMT) is comprised of the programming agencies of the Louisiana Annual Conference. Following this introduction you will find the individual reports from these agencies. These agencies have been working to share the Gospel message within and beyond the local church. We are grateful for the leadership of those who have assisted in the many events and responses to reach a world in need of the love of Christ. As we begin a new quadrennium (2012-2016), program leaders were reminded of the following areas of focus that serve to direct the missional work of the Louisiana Annual Conference:

- Developing Principled Christian Leaders
- New Places for New People
- Engaging Ministry with the Poor
- Stamping Out Killer Diseases of Poverty by Improving Health Globally
- Vital Congregations

In the last year, the CMT has met twice (October 6, 2012 & March 9, 2013). The CMT continues to provide leadership in the above areas of focus in the midst of a time of change. Following the 2012 session of the Louisiana Annual Conference at the request of the CMT and approval of the Annual Conference work was begun to help us “look into the mirror” of our life and ministry as an Annual Conference. Who are we? What do we share? What purpose do we espouse in sharing? This heartfelt evaluation is helping us “celebrate what is right” about our mission and ministries while building a vision of possibility and not scarcity. By celebrating what is right, we are finding the energy to fix what is wrong.

Taking lead from the 2012 Strategic Vitality report, we are looking at how the Annual Conference might shift from being organized as a service provider to being organized for missional strategy. We wish to commend the work of the Structure Revision Team and at our March 9, 2013 meeting; the CMT unanimously endorsed their report which comes before the 2013 session of the Louisiana Annual Conference. We are grateful for the ministries that have been provided by the CMT during its life, and are especially grateful for the many leaders who have given their gifts in this ministry. It is our prayer that we will continue to be used by God in service to others in the name of Christ.

In the words of the National Geographic photographer Dewitt Jones – “Change is possibility ... the times of the most change hold the most possibility.” May God bless us in these times of great possibility!

Rev. Dr. Wybra Price, II, Chair, CMT

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM CAMPING MINISTRY/WESLEY CENTER CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The directors at each camp ministry and retreat center continue to schedule quarterly meetings, as a means to reinforce our connections and share information and knowledge. The directors have been able to use this sharing of information to benefit their particular ministry efforts at their site.

Camp ministry in Louisiana continues to grow and be fruitful. New youth are being reached, not just at United Methodist Churches, but also other Christian churches in their respective regions. Since Camp Istrouma is close to an urban area, they have begun a day camp program allowing them to reach more children and adults and offer programs that fit the needs of local parents. Camp Caney is having long needed renovations performed at the site this summer, allowing a more hospitable location for visitors. Camp Uskichitto continues to improve the facility and looking for ways to reach youth in rural areas. The Wesley Center is aggressively seeking groups for retreats and conferences and continues to serve as a central location for conference events.

At a recent camping committee meeting, our directors continued to affirm that our retreat centers are moving in a positive direction, and that “God is blessing the camp ministry!” Each camp has been actively working to reach youth in our conference, so that new spiritual leaders can be developed for the future of the United Methodist Church and to fulfill the Great Commission, “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations”.

As a means to communicate the reach of the camp ministries, these statistics are offered: During 2012, Camp Istrouma completed its summer camp program at 98% capacity with 719 campers. We give our Lord and Savior the glory and honor, thanking Him for the opportunity to minister and love His children. We served 6,920 retreat guests allowing them to experience Christian hospitality and enjoy God's creation. Each year, we try to refresh a building at Camp Istrouma or add something new. In April 2012, we completed a fishing dock and patio area behind our Lake Lodge. The fishing dock was donated and dedicated in memory of Samantha Vinturella. The newest addition to our summer camp programming is Day Camp. It will provide an opportunity to minister to younger campers that are not ready to stay the night but want that camp experiences. At Camp Istrouma we live out our motto, “Developing Disciples, Forming Friendships, and Impacting Lives Forever through the transforming power of Jesus Christ.”

During 2012, Uskichitto Retreat Center served 407 campers. We were very blessed to have 36 young people accept Christ and 32 rededications. In 2012, we added a Pastor's Retreat room that we offer to the pastors in our districts for two free nights. In December, we hosted a Christmas party for camp supporters and board members; we served a meal and provided a short program as a "thank you." This will be an annual event. We are very excited about adding new low ropes activities and adding a new position to the Uskichitto staff. Our goal for the next year is to build a new camp store and share the gospel with everyone that visits the camp. We will continue to serve our retreats in a spirit of radical hospitality, and every day, pursue our goal of close relationship with our churches.

During 2012, Camp Caney had another successful year. We increased our summer camp numbers, and saw a marked increase in our business outside of summer camps. We have an updated website complete with online registration for our summer camp program. Caney serves as a disaster relief hub for emergency responders and received a state grant for 1.7 million dollars for renovations so that we may better serve that purpose. This is forcing us to hold summer camp at an outside location. It will be a challenge but we will persevere and be able to reopen our campgrounds by the end of 2013 with far superior amenities.

The Wesley Center, a hub of activity for United Methodists throughout Louisiana, booked 7,091 guests during 2012. A total number of 243 events were held at the Wesley Center; of those, 140 events were United Methodist groups with 3,625 participants.

The Wesley Center staff strives to remain a vital partner with the Conference and United Methodist churches in their efforts to make disciples through evangelism, faith development, and Christian community. Additionally, the Wesley Center's ministry reaches out to the wider community, by hosting non-United Methodist groups and meeting needs through Christian hospitality.

So that they can be effective stewards of their resources, the four retreat centers are always looking for additional means to raise funds for future programs and site development. Volunteer groups are recruited from churches and other non-profit groups and/or businesses to help with maintenance and facility improvements. The NOMADS, a United Methodist ministry group of retired individuals, continue to make a positive impact at Camp Uskichitto and at Camp Istrouma.

Web links for the four retreat centers can be found on the conference website at www.la-umc.org.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Book of Discipline Of The United Methodist Church states in paragraph 1001, that there shall be a General Board of Church and Society in The United Methodist Church, as an expression of the mission of the Church.

We as a Board encourage support of Peace With Justice Issues. We the Church are to be the voice for those without a voice. We support efforts to reduce Human Trafficking, Violence Against Women, Gun Violence and we support the teaching and study of The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

On January 12th we supported Bethany United Methodist Church and its Human Trafficking and Domestic Violence Committee, along with the United Methodist Women of Bethany. Rev. Lawrence Gaines is the pastor of Bethany United Methodist Church. Clemmie Greenlee, a survivor of Human Trafficking, spoke at the seminar at Bethany. Ms. Greenlee shared stories of her life as a victim of Trafficking. She is the Resident Director of Eden House in New Orleans. Eden House is a transitional residence for women who are victims of Human Trafficking. The initiative taken by Bethany and The Board of Church and Society, along with The United Methodist Church statewide has made an impact in Louisiana, especially in the New Orleans area. New Orleans area law enforcement reported the breakup of two Trafficking rings during the Super Bowl-Mardi Gras time. Dr. Pat Bates is our lead person on Human Trafficking. The Conference Board of Church and Society awarded a Peace With Justice grant of $500 to Bethany United Methodist Church to be re-gifted to Eden House.

The Board awarded a Peace With Justice grant of $2,400 to Asbury United Methodist Church of Bossier City who is partnering with the Fuller Center of NWLA to build a no-interest home for a first time homeowner in an area that is economically depressed. The Peace With Justice Grant will provide funds for two walls of the home. Rev Ramonalynn Bethley is Pastor of Asbury United Methodist Church.

A Peace With Justice grant of $2,000 was also awarded to First Grace Community Alliance in New Orleans. This grant will help provide clinic space, supplies, and training for a legal clinic to benefit the children and families living at Hagar's House, a shelter for homeless women and their children.

Laura Salguero has been working hard on issues concerning Violence Against Women. We are urged as a Church to continue to contact our congresspersons to enforce the laws passed to protect women from domestic violence.

We are urged to look at and listen to those around us so that we may see and hear them and meet their needs.

John H. Mile, Chair

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

Accomplishment and celebration of work:

Fresh Expressions took off in 2012 thanks to the support of the district superintendents and the availability of additional funds in the Discipleship budget. Thirteen grants were made to churches of our conference (at least one from every district) to support new and innovative thinking at the local church level as we seek new ways of making disciples in the “wilderness” in which we find ourselves. A total of $6,400 was disbursed.

The strong support we received from the Board of Laity, the Bishop and the cabinet resulted in increased submissions for the Harry Denman Evangelism Awards (HDEA). The following people were chosen and recognized at the Clergy and Laity Sessions during the 2012 Annual Conference: Clergy – Robert E. Johnson, Sr., a local pastor from the Acadiana District; Laity – Joyce Robinson, Associate Conference Lay Leader and member of the St. John UMC, Baton Rouge; Youth – Ashlyn Esterly, board member of Paracletia, Inc. and member from the New Song UMC, St. Amant.

Goals that are a priority for the coming year:

As we receive reports and pictures of the results of the 2012 Fresh Expressions grants, we will use them to encourage others to imitate and to become risk-taking innovators themselves. This year we will be asking the district superintendents to take a larger role in promoting the Fresh Expressions grants and evaluating requests from their districts. They are to send forward the two best requests from their district from which the board will choose one per district (6) for each $500 grant.

Larry O’Dell, Chair of the HDEA Sub-committee, received nominations in March. These will be evaluated by the Board and recipients will be recognized at Annual Conference.

The new board is working to provide training in the effective use of social media later this year. We are formulating guidelines for the use the Christian Education Sunday Fund and envision working closely with the district superintendents and district ministry teams to provide Christian education training and promotion. For this quadrennium the board will focus on providing one or two events each year around a single theme from the many areas that fall under “Discipleship.”

Concerns and challenges facing the board:

Reduced funding and the elimination of the Conference Director of Christian Education position make effective partnerships with districts and churches critical in order to address the need for training and support of effective disciple-making. Together we must take the “smart risks” needed for a new day. This also must be accomplished through fewer face-to-face meetings.

Items for action/vote by the Annual Conference: None.

CUBA INITIATIVE

As is often the case in the Cuba Initiative, 2012 has been an eventful year. We have moved forward in four areas of ministry and connectedness with our Methodist brothers and sisters in Cuba:

1) Cuba Volunteers in Mission Team for 2012. In October 2012 a LAVIM team of 7 people traveled to Camaguey, Cuba to work and worship at San Marcos Iglesia Metodista. San Marcos has worked for several years on expanding their sanctuary for the growing number of people seeking Christ. We went to help them expand the sanctuary from a capacity of 300 to 800 people. The team was also able to provide means by which San Marcos was able to put on a new roof that would cover the entire building (old and new sections) with significant help from FUCM Monroe. We also were able to provide 4 stained glass windows for the new building. Recently the roof was completed and on that Sunday 500 people were in worship at San Marcos.

2) Continued Connection with the Methodist Evangelical Seminary in Havana. The Louisiana Conference was the first to reach out to help the new Methodist Seminary in Havana. Since those historic moments in 2006, along with help from many other conferences, the seminary continues to grow rapidly, training hundreds of pastors and laity in ministry. They currently have expanded their ministry to extension classes offered throughout the island, as well as new housing for professors. As the chair of the Cuba Initiative, I was offered an invitation to teach a course as an adjunct professor last Spring, however this was postponed due to health reasons. The Cuba Initiative continues to work with the new rector and dean to build a relationship with a US seminary in order to develop advanced degrees at the new seminary. We have also been able to bring needed books, laptops, a video projector and support for everyday operations. In addition to this we are helping develop a website for the seminary at www.semccuba.org.

3) Assisted with local Louisiana UMC's in maintaining or establishing sister church relationships with local Methodist churches in Cuba. Some of these churches are: St. Charles UMC with Park Temple IM, Blackwater UMC with Havana Central IM and Regla IM, Live Oak UMC with Regla IM and St. Luke's- Simpson UMC which is interested in establishing a sister church relationship. The Cuba Initiative also seeks to maintain connections with churches where teams were previously sent, such as Boca de Camarioca IM and Juan Wesley IM in Baguano.

4) Advanced Special Giving. Advanced Special giving was made from the Louisiana Conference to the Cuba Methodist Church. Two small churches in the eastern part of the Island at Juan Wesley IM and Esperanza IM were helped with church construction.

Please keep our Methodist brothers and sisters in Christ in your prayers. They faithfully and boldly proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ under adverse conditions. Also pray for your Cuba Initiative as we face new challenges to remain connected and join with our friends in doing the work of the Gospel in Cuba.

RUSSIAN INITIATIVE

Our plane landed in Moscow early on the afternoon of June 8th. Fourteen Louisiana Methodists boarded a train for Ekaterinburg, Russia, to serve alongside the people of the First United Methodist Church of Ekaterinburg. Twenty-six hours later, we arrived and the real journey began.

In the midst of a packed schedule, unforeseen obstacles, and significant cultural differences, we felt the hand of God on our group. Many trips throughout the years have focused on Vacation Bible School for children, adult Bible studies, and assisting in worship. This past June our delegation and our Russian brothers and sisters enjoyed two nights of the Beth Moore book study, Get Out of That Pit. Though the language barrier was evident, what became clear was that our Russian friends experience the same challenges in life that we do and look to God for healing and hope. We also purchased and distributed 200 copies of the Russian translation of “The Upper Room” and purchased, assembled, and distributed 100 food baskets for the elderly of the church.

The construction component of our trip was centered on solidifying open mortar joints in brick walls, replacing step and porch tiles, repairing soft bricks that have collapsed, and resealing and painting windows. Our journey also included patching the roof and visiting children at an orphanage.

Our church in Ekaterinburg is facing many challenges. Several include a building that needs repair in many areas and a society that is becoming more materialistic and driven by cultural influences. Since 2001, the Methodist Church building has become a vital part of the community. Now there are two different church groups that meet on Sunday for worship. I was most impressed with the cooperation between the pastors of our traditional morning worship service and the pastors of the afternoon contemporary church. It was as if a veil had been lifted. Two groups who had few commonalities were finding common ground. This truly has been a miracle as the Ekaterinburg United Methodist Church ministers to the people of Russia.

LA DISASTER RESPONSE OF UMC, INC.

In the last twelve months your recovery ministry has been focusing on both the long-term response and relief work for areas of our state that were affected by Hurricane Isaac and the Acadiana flood. I would like to recap each response and its status below:

- 1) Floods of Acadiana - On March 13, 2012, authorities declared a state of emergency in four south Louisiana parishes — Lafayette, Acadia, St. Landry and St. Martin — after floodwaters from heavy overnight thunderstorms inundated dozens of homes. The United Way of Acadiana called upon the LA Disaster Response Ministries to be at the table to discuss how we could assist them in their recovery. We called upon Acadiana District Superintendent, Rev. Ed Boyd; the Acadiana District Coordinator, Rev. Scott Bullock, and Rev. Ann Sutton, pastor of Northwood United Methodist Church.

We hired a Project Manager who supervises one case manager. We built a partnership with United Way of Acadiana, who funded the case manager position for 12 months. Within the 12 months, we were able to complete 235 cases without any volunteers. Our case manager used her relationship within the communities to fund all 235 cases for a total dollar amount of $116,192.49, of which United Methodist Disaster Recovery Ministries funded $25,000.

- 2) Hurricane Isaac Response - On September 1, 2012, Hurricane Isaac made a strong visit to the people of the Louisiana Annual Conference. Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey led an assessment group which was joined by Rev. Tom Hazelwood, assistant general secretary for disaster response in the United States for United Methodist Committee on Relief. To date, more than 18,500 health kits and 7,500 cleaning buckets have been distributed in storm affected areas of Louisiana. (The total value of cleaning buckets and health kits is $932,500.)

Early Response Teams have done an amazing job with debris removal and some gutting. From October 1, 2012 through June 2013, we received 2,370 volunteers, representing some 237 teams, offering 92,595 volunteer hours, totaling an in-kind donation of $2,221,273. Including UMCOR supplies that were handed out, salaries and operational cost of our response and our in-kind donation of labor to date, this represents a total on assistance of $3,400,819.97.

According to official reports, an estimated 178,000 homes suffered some degree of damage from Isaac’s winds, rain and flood waters.

In addition to home damage, 15 churches in the Louisiana conference are dealing with damages ranging from several feet of flood water and destroyed roofs to blown out windows in sanctuaries and parsonages. We had a grant committee reviewing the needs of those churches who had made a grant request to share some $46,000 in funds that were received throughout our 500 United Methodist Churches here in the conference. An additional $69,600 from the LADRM brings the total to $115,600.

The conference disaster response ministry began its work in the Laplace and Maurepas areas, located in hard hit St. John the Baptist and Livingston parishes, respectively. We hired and trained case managers and a site manager within 20 days of the storm. Our disaster response efforts will work some 125 of the cases presenting the greatest need of those communities.

We wrote a grant request to UMCOR for matching funds, using those funds that we had at the Louisiana Foundation. We requested from UMCOR $500,000. UMCOR informed us that before they could review our request, we had to use our funds first. In that response, we have re-worked our Disaster Response budget for this current conference year. You will be receiving the budget at this meeting.

- 3) In the area of Disaster Preparedness for our Annual Conference, this current conference year I will host three training events across the conference. I have led training events in all seven districts over the past three years. You will find our Annual Conference Disaster Manual at our website www.la-umc.org. Also, on the Conference website www.la-umc.org you will find our Conference Disaster Plan.

a. Since we have conducted training events across the conference over the past three years, with Connecting Neighbors, we will now offer the second level of training to our churches in the Louisiana Annual Conference.

These trainings will have a maximum of 70 participants at each of these events.

We will offer classes on Friday evening. These evening sessions will be from 7-9PM. There will be two courses offered in the conference year 2013-2014 and two offered 2014-2015.

1. Introduction to Basic Disaster Ministry
2. Understanding UMCOR and/or UMCIM
3. Discussion session on how to write your CN plan (Not if you do the full workshop)
4. ERT discussion session (pre-requisite that attendees have been ERT trained)

b. Our options for Saturday classes

 - 8) In the fall of the year, UMCOR will conduct an training event for the Extended Cabinet training (4hrs)
- 4) During our January Board Meeting, our Directors elected our officers for the next four years (2013-2016):
 Chairperson: Dr. Anita Crump
 Vice Chairperson: Dr. Ralph Ford
 Secretary/Treasurer: William Coffey
 President/CEO/Executive Director: Rev. Darryl A. Tate
- 5) During this past conference year, we had two audits conducted one by William E. DeLoach Certified Public Accountant of Baton Rouge and the other by UMCOR. In both audits we had no infractions. If you wish to see our audit reports they are filed at the Conference Office.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRYa. Accomplishments and Celebration of Work Completed

Lives are being changed! Campus Ministry is making a difference! The "emerging adult generation" is being reached! The following are comments taken from each of our Campus Ministries' 2012 Fall Review Reports. Come and experience our Campus Ministries first hand at our Wesley Foundations, or in depth at the Fall Review, October 7-8, 2013, Wesley Center.

Centenary: "Program Goal #1: To make religious life an integral part of the campus ministry...Students are beginning to discuss how to strengthen the future of religious life...student leaders are enthusiastic and engaged in the conversation."

Grambling: "There has been a surge in leadership coming from campus ministry into the university campus as strong, holy, bold leaders stepping into leadership this fall as Student Government President and members of the SGA Cabinet."

L.S.U.: "We have grounded our small groups in scripture and theology and are creating more opportunities for students to lead...students emerge as leaders."

La. Tech: “The majority of students we reach are very broken, hurt, angry, and largely disengaged students...the healing takes much prayer and love...we spend much personal investment in helping to grow students into followers of Christ, and then leaders. It is a tiring but rewarding ministry.”

Northwestern: “We are in a building phase right now...I have done dorm visits to introduce myself to new students and inform them of the programs of the WCM. [We have a] supportive board who care for the ministry and students, a friendly and hospitable environment and a spacious building with opportunities for worship, study and fellowship.”

McNeese: “Our greatest strength to celebrate is the students themselves...they share and live out Jesus’ good news with their friends, and bring friends to worship, small groups, and missions so they can even more ‘taste and see’ the love of a gracious God.”

Southeastern: “Three strengths: Our student leaders. Our relationship with the university leadership gives us access to the campus. Improving relationships with local churches.”

Southern: “We have one of the largest student involvements in Campus Ministry at S.U.”

Tulane: “Most [Tulane] students are from outside Louisiana and make up a religious diversity that is roughly 1/3 Jewish, 1/3 Catholic, and 1/3 other (Eastern Religions, Protestants and non-religious)...The advantage of the Wesley Foundation is our location that is virtually on campus and provides students with a convenient place to worship, engage in spiritual formation and grow through mission and outreach.”

U.L.L.: Note: The celebration is for new leadership that has been placed at ULL in 2012. The CBHECM decided to keep the funding in place so that the new leadership has a chance to develop and grow what has been a vital campus ministry.

U.L.M.: We have 14 students who have committed to serving and to be held accountable as part of the leadership team. They co-lead a weekly discipleship group and also lead a weekly campus outreach.”

General Comments: The CBHECM has become an active, working Board, developing much need policies and procedures, accountability tools, and evaluation procedures that will ensure vital and vibrant campus ministries. We are also developing new, non-financial ways of supporting our campus ministries, such as offering local board training and networking of ministry.

The “Criteria for Campus Ministry” document is crucial to providing “measurements of the movement.” This along with “intentional and disciplined conversations” to describe the differences happening in the lives of our students will be the “plum line” to evaluate effectiveness and fruitfulness. Meetings have been held with local boards of directors and campus ministers to discuss effectiveness and fruitfulness, and to give specific expectations for new visions, new plans of mission, and to develop additional sources of funding to underwrite their ministry.

b. Goals that are a Priority for the Upcoming Year

- Providing a “relational, Christ-centered presence” on our college campuses
- Implementing the “Criteria for Campus Ministry”
- Making a difference, changing lives
- Being a “movement” with shared identity and purpose
- To become disciple makers in order “To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world”.

At upcoming meetings the CBHECM will:

- Finalize the “Criteria for Campus Ministry” policy along with a “Selection and Termination of Personnel” policy.
- Revise the Fall Review process to provide metrics that are in line with the identified “Criteria for Campus Ministry” in order to better measure effectiveness.
- Develop procedures on the use of the CBHECM Reserve Fund.
- Develop a plan to train all local boards.

- Develop a new paradigm of doing campus ministries, considering the role of the local church and the need to be “in the path” of college students.

c. Concerns and Challenges Facing Board or Agency

Adequate funding is a major concern of our campus ministries. The Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is encouraging each campus ministry to work towards being self-funded. The goal here is for our campus ministries to not rely solely on conference funding for operational expenses. HOWEVER, as you see below, having a “relational, Christ centered presence” and “being in the pathway of students” requires a large financial commitment. It also requires new and invigorated support from local congregations – partnership in ministry...not just a resource for funding.

NOTE: The column below is to show the fundraising obligation currently being shouldered by the individual campus ministries. This does not include the annual grants received from the Annual Conference:

Centenary	$ 33,677
Grambling	$ 17,700
La. Tech	$242,721
LSU	$103,837
McNeese	$103,305
Northwestern	$ 14,665
Southeastern	$ 19,400
Southern	$ 14,830
Tulane	$ 62,060
ULL	$ 54,346
ULM	$142,432
Total Fundraising Income:	$808,973

d. Items for Action/Vote by the Annual Conference

Thank you for supporting the conference budget for our Campus Ministries in 2013, and thank you for supporting the 2014 proposed budget.

Karl Klaus, Chair

7. The speaker for the Laity Breakfast, Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey.
8. The Country breakfast for the Laity Breakfast with all locally raised and produced foods.
9. The financial structure that Henry Stamper secured for the CBOL.
10. The securing of Rev. Dr. David Lowes Watson to facilitate the Bishop's Laity Retreat on March 21-22, 2014 at the Wesley Center.
11. The commitment of the CBOL to share information with the Louisiana Conference laity to enhance their service to the Lord and the church.

Our Goals and Priorities:

1. To better inform the laity of the Louisiana Conference of opportunities to:
 - a. Grow spiritually through three day spiritual retreats.
 - b. Grow in their ability to serve as Lay Speakers.
 - c. Grow in their ability to lead Bible studies, etc.
 - d. Grow in their ability to become Certified in specialized ministries in The United Methodist Church.
 - e. Grow in their ability to become a Certified Lay Minister.
2. To open more avenues of communication:
 - a. Within the Louisiana Conference.
 - b. Within the districts.
 - c. With districts sharing information with other districts.
 - d. With local churches sharing learning/training opportunities with other churches in their area and district.

Concerns and challenges:

1. Improving communication to the laity of the Louisiana Conference.
2. Improving communication within each district.
3. Improving communication with all age groups of the laity especially the youth and young adults.
4. Improving the scheduling of opportunities for learning/training events.
5. Challenging the laity to keep themselves focused on God and the ministry we are ALL called to through our service to the church.

I wish to thank you the laity of the Louisiana Conference for allowing me to serve as your Conference Board of Laity chairperson. I ask for your prayers as the CBOL board attempts to serve you and the Lord. Also, I would like to thank Bishop Harvey, the Cabinet, and the Extended Cabinet for their support and guidance. As the old saying goes, "It takes a village to raise a child", it takes the whole Louisiana Conference to shape/form the Conference Board of Laity for service to our Lord and Savior.

Included with this report are the proposed changes to be voted on during the Laity Session of Annual Conference.

LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

The 2012 General Conference of The United Methodist Church approved legislation to change the name of Lay Speaking Ministries to Lay Servant Ministries. For several quadrennia various name changes were proposed – none of which adequately described the role of this leadership development program.

Several annual conferences had already changed the name of this ministry in their individual conferences because they believed many United Methodists were reluctant to become part of a program that required speaking. The term servant was chosen because it best describes what Jesus told his disciples in John 13 after he himself had performed the duties of the lowliest servant. After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord – and you are right, for that is what I am. So, if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to also wash one another’s feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them”.

Lay servants have a wide range of functions both in the church and in the community. The three tenets of lay servant ministries are LEADING, CARING, and COMMUNICATING. These words describe what lay servants do in mission and ministry both within and beyond The United Methodist Church.

The hundreds of laity who have gone through lay servant ministries training are actively involved in churches throughout the conference. We continue to promote lay servant ministries as a way for laity to receive training to become better servants and leaders to the world around us. Beyond the basic course, there are over a dozen advanced courses in more specific areas such as worship, preaching, storytelling, evangelism, prayer, caring, missions, etc. Lay servant ministries courses are also given in Spanish and Korean in the New Orleans area.

Lay servant ministries courses were held throughout the Louisiana Conference this year. Great effort is going to be made to insure that the Local Servant, Certified Lay Servant and Lay Speaking courses are designed to meet the needs of the conference churches. We are developing a method of communication so that each church is advised well in advance of all scheduled lay servant ministry courses throughout the conference. If the time/location/topic in your district does not meet your schedule, you are encouraged to register for a lay speaking course that is being held in another district.

Clergy, PLEASE call upon our lay servants to serve in the areas of ministry to which they have been gifted or called.

I attended the annual Association of Conference Directors of Lay Servant Ministries conclave in Nashville in January 2013. I learned the following:

- Louisiana Conference has one of the most robust Certified Lay Ministry programs
- Louisiana Conference is the only conference that requires candidates for Certified Lay Ministry to complete license to preach school

Other conference directors of lay servant ministries were very interested in our program. Most of the other conference certified lay ministry programs are directed by clergy. Several indicated that they were going to suggest to their conference director for certified lay ministry to rethink their program with consideration of making some changes to mirror ours.

With the addition of Phyllis Estella Jefferson last year, we have a total of eight Certified Lay Ministers in the Louisiana Annual Conference. Twenty-one who have attended the training and orientation are currently progressing through the process to become a Certified Lay Minister. At the time of preparation of this report, there are 41 who have expressed an interest in learning more about Certified Lay Ministry and will be invited to submit their application for orientation and training that will occur on 20 April. The discerning process includes determining, through prayer and consultation with their pastor, the ministry to which they want to connect. Certified lay ministry is not just a next step after becoming a lay speaker. There is a greater commitment and obligation to a service where special talents and spiritual gifts can be used.

Information about the certified lay minister program can be found on the Louisiana Conference website.

The Louisiana Conference is blessed to have such dedicated and talented district directors of lay servant ministries leading each district program. I also want to express my sincere appreciation to the District Lay Leaders for their support in helping to develop directions for this ministry under the new guidelines.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

The Louisiana Conference youth have had a very busy and exciting year! Following last year's annual conference we the Louisiana Conference Council on Youth Ministry took a hard look at our events and how they could best benefit the Louisiana Conference. After much prayer and consideration we planned 3 events for the 2012-2013 year, deciding not to hold our annual Youth Leadership Training before Annual Conference, and instead focusing on leadership and missions in the 3 events that we planned. Our theme for the year was Faithbook, with our verse being Luke 10:27.

First, we held a back to school event, Youth Ignite. We had this event in three different locations, separating our conference into three kingdoms. Events were held in the Northern kingdom, Southern Kingdom, and Western Kingdom, with each kingdom's District Council on Youth Ministry being responsible for hosting their kingdom's event. This exciting opener to our year allowed for each district to connect with their neighboring districts and work together to coordinate and host their event. All three events went very well, and in total we had 582 participants.

We then held two Jr. High Retreats at the Wesley Center, for these retreats we decided to focus on missions. In total over both the weekends we assembled 208 flood buckets, which represents an in kind donation of over $11,000. Also, during the first retreat we went into the city of Alexandria to do mission work. The Jr. High were able to visit residents at The Summit and Naomi Heights Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, organize and clean a warehouse at the Hope House, work in the food pantry at the Shepherd's Center, and clean a butterfly garden at the zoo where parents can go to remember their deceased children. The Jr. High, and all else involved, had an amazing experience. We were honored to have Bishop Harvey as our guest speaker for the first retreat and to have Reverend Larry Norman as our speaker for the second retreat. Overall we had 297 participants.

For Senior High Retreat we focused on leadership development. Our goal was to prepare all who attended to go back to their districts and churches ready and capable to lead and to teach others to be good leaders as well. Reverend John Edd Harper led the youth in a leadership lab where the youth not only gained knowledge on how to lead, but also looked at the spiritual aspect of being a good leader. The CCYM led worship services that focused on letting go of the burdens that the Sr. High and all of us as well, carry with us that keep us from being the leaders that God has called us to be. Saturday, Bishop Harvey joined the Sr. High in a Skeeter Run at the Wesley Center, where we were joined by participants from the Alexandria District. Just the Sr. High Retreat participants alone raised $3,230 for Imagine No Malaria through this Skeeter Run. In total we had 251 participants for this retreat!

The CCYM plans to meet in April; this will be replacing our annual Winter Meeting. Due to the events we planned this year, and our decision to not have our Leadership Training in June, this time best suited our needs. During this meeting we will honor our graduating seniors. This year we have 15 seniors graduating from CCYM, combined these seniors represent over 35 years dedicated to Conference Youth Ministry.

The CCYM has had a very exciting year, filled with learning and growth. We have gotten to see hundreds of Louisiana Youth grow closer to God, and witness youth beginning their walk as well. This year there were 11 first time commitments, 20 recommitments, and 13 calls to ministry throughout all of our events. We are extremely excited to have been a part of helping these youth start their journey with Christ and can't wait to continue to help them on their journey next year.

This year the YSF (Youth Service Fund) raised a total of $18,418.30. Grants awarded by YSF in full to:

Sulphur Weekend of the Cross	$ 5,000.00
FUMC Crowley Youth Band	$ 1,000.00
Weekend of the Cross NOLA- South Shore	$ 3,000.00
Deladem Support Group in Ghana	$ 1,980.00

Emmanuel Methodist Youth Group in Ghana	$ 2,530.00
Kadjebi Circuit Methodist Churches in Ghana	$ 2,000.00
TOTAL:	$15,510.00

We would like to thank everyone who has made this year possible. Thanks to our District Coordinators and the CCYM adults who drive all around Louisiana to get the youth to all of our events. Thanks to our Executive Committee who have been diligent in their work and have spread their passion for Conference Youth Ministry, and especially to Jodie Harper. She has put in countless hours to Conference Youth Ministry, and has made all of these events possible. She truly lives up to the name “Mama Jodie”, helping all of the CCYM reach their full potential as leaders and walking with us through all of our different paths in life.

Our goal for the coming year is to continue to grow as a ministry and to continue to host events that facilitate both leadership and spiritual growth for the youth of our conference. We look forward to the exciting year ahead of us and what God holds in store for this ministry.

DAUGHENBAUGH-MATHENY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship Fund has made the transition to the 2012-2016 Quadriennium and will continue to work toward achieving goals that were not accomplished during the previous Quadriennium. Additionally, the new Daughenbaugh-Matheny representatives from across the conference in conjunction with the new Director will seek to develop new goals to keep this scholarship fund vibrant across the Louisiana Conference. Our relationship with Lynette Viskozki, Director of Financial Aid at Centenary and Shannon Neal, Financial Aid Counselor at Dillard University continues to be an excellent resource. We value their input and spirit of cooperation. The Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship benefits students attending either of our two United Methodist institutions of higher education if all eligibility criteria are met. There is a pressing need throughout the United Methodist Church of Louisiana for competent leaders in many fields, and especially in Christian education. Individuals, groups and our churches supporting this fund enable recipients to receive an education that will prepare them for a vocation in the church or to serve the church as laity. As we support this fund, we make an investment in the future ministry of the United Methodist Church.

Twenty-three scholarships were awarded for the 2012-13 school year. Seventeen recipients are students at Centenary College and six are attending Dillard University. Of that number, seven students are expected to graduate in May, 2013. We continue to receive applications for the 2013-2014 school year and look forward to being a financial blessing to these students. The number of scholarships and amount given is determined by the donations received.

Our goals for 2013-2014 are to:

1. Continue to publicize the Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship in each district.
2. Continue to pursue the listing of this scholarship on Dillard’s web page.
3. Increase the number of applications and recipients.
4. Raise $70,000.00 for an endowment. (Once this amount is reached the interest from the endowment can fund the scholarships annually)

Louisiana United Methodist students attending Dillard or Centenary are encouraged to apply for the Daughenbaugh-Matheny scholarship. They must maintain a 2.5 grade point average and be active in the local church. We will continue to encourage our young people to apply as we continue to nurture them in the Lord.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The state leadership of the United Methodist Women of the Louisiana Conference surveyed all of the local UMW church units to determine how the state leadership could be more effective in supporting and nurturing them. The survey received a thirty-seven percent (37%) response rate. In summary, the respondents stated that the local units (1) wanted more visitations to their units from UMW leadership, (2) wanted better communications, (3) asked for better training so that all could understand what UMW is about, and (4) desired a renewed commitment to the UMW constitutionally defined “Purpose” that focuses on spiritual growth, mission outreach and supportive fellowships. Through the survey, the state leadership team learned that only forty percent (40%) of the United Methodist churches in Louisiana have local UMW units. The report entitled “A Report on the 2012 Survey of Local UMW Units in Louisiana” can be found on the UMW website.

During the 2012 year, the state leadership clarified responses on what it takes to become a United Methodist Woman, and on what it takes for the local UMW church unit to be recognized as a UMW unit at the state level. Basically, to become a UMW member the individual need only support the “Purpose” of United Methodist Women. The individual member is not required to make a pledge or donation for membership. To be recognized as a UMW unit at the state level, the local unit must have a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and Nominations chair; and the local unit must send a pledge to the District UMW level. The local unit officers, after taking into consideration all of the monies donated or pledged to the local unit, determine how much of the money is sent to the District UMW level and how much is retained at the local level to support the purposes of mission, spiritual growth and/or supportive fellowships.

The Conference Level United Methodist Women’s leadership group consists of elected officers and the District Presidents. The officers are the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Secretary of Program Resources, Coordinators of (a) Spiritual Growth, (b) Membership, Nurture and Outreach, (c) Education and Interpretation, and (d) Social Action, Nominating Committee Chair, Communications Coordinator, and the seven District Presidents. The leadership team meets four times a year. United Methodist Women are encouraged to self-nominate themselves for conference level leadership positions using the form on the website.

The three programs conducted by the Conference level UMW organization are: (1) Spiritual Growth Retreat, (2) Mission u (formerly, School of Christian Mission), and (3) Annual Meeting. These programs are being rotated among the districts to give the opportunity for a closer site so that more can participate in at least one event. At the District level, these programs are also implemented. The District level programs provide for smaller travel time and give an opportunity for all of the women in the District to participate. The calendar of District programs is contained in the “2013 Directory and 2012 Annual Report,” which can be found on the UMW website.

The “Purpose” of the United Methodist Women, as stated above, focuses on missions, spiritual growth, and supportive fellowships. In addition, Conference level officers have other obligations as set forth by the national UMW office. For example, the UMW national office sends social action “alerts” to the Social Action coordinator, who forwards them on to the district and local levels, and who encourages advocacy on identified issues. The UMW national office oversees publication of numerous books and encourages participation through the “Reading Program.” Reading program certificates are awarded for different levels, requiring different amounts of books to be read. The UMW national office encourages participation in five-star giving, which includes special donations, such as, “gift to mission” and “world thank offering.” The UMW national office receives membership information from the Conference level membership coordinator. The UMW national office provides training and seminars for conference leadership teams.

The national organization of United Methodist Women has National Mission Institutions (NMI) in nearly all Conferences. Here, in Louisiana, the National Mission Institutions are Dulac Community Center, North Rampart Street Community Center, and MacDonell United Methodist Children Services. UMCOR/ Sager Brown is identified as a National Mission Institution, but the Sager Brown site is operated by the United Methodist Church because the UMW national office leased the site to the United Methodist Church. Each of the NMIs is incorporated as a nonprofit in Louisiana and each has a local board of directors on which the UMW Conference President and District President serve. This is not required for the UMCOR/Sager Brown site, which is incorporated in New York. The property values for Dulac, North Rampart and MacDonell total to approximately $5.3 million, and the property value of UMCOR/Sager Brown totals to $5.5 million. The national UMW office also supports the National Mission Institutions by paying for insurance costs and upkeep. Louisiana United Methodist Women support the National Mission Institutions in numerous ways. At UMW meetings, NMI representatives advise the United Methodist women of their needs, and the United Methodist Women always respond very generously.

Goals for the 2013 year, from the United Methodist Women Conference level, include:

1. Correspond with the 60% of churches in the Louisiana Conference that do not have local United Methodist Women units.
2. Visit local UMW units.
3. Organize additional local UMW units.
4. Improve the website by providing links to district newsletters and conference events.
5. Improve financial record keeping.
6. Support the National Mission Institutions.
7. Increase participation in UMW advocacy work.
8. Increase participation in the reading program.

Please continue to pray for the United Methodist Women organization, which is the largest and oldest organization in the world of lay women committed to mission.

Barbara Ferguson, President

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The Commission on Christian Unity and Inter-Religious Concerns (CCUIC) first meeting was held at 1:40 pm during a Conference Call on July 5, 2012.

Chair Rev. Erica Jenkins called the meeting to order. Prior to the meeting the purpose of CCUIC and duties of elected leaders was sent to all members.

Job duties were created from common practices to aid CCUIC in being a working commission and involve all members. After the new Bishop arrives, Chairperson will talk with Bishop to learn vision and role of CCUIC. Also, UMEIT training at the National Workshop on Christian Unity (NWCU) is available. We will send a representative to next year's gathering.

Descriptions for officers for CCUIC Chairperson -

- ✦ Guided by The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church 2008, see Section XVIII. Ecumenical Relationships and Organizations paragraph 2401-2405
- ✦ Goals of General Commission(GCCUIC), see <http://www.gccuic-umc.org/>

GCCUIC stands for the General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns. GCCUIC is the part of The United Methodist Church that engages with and talks to other Christian denominations to work toward unity and peace. GCCUIC also helps interpret The United Methodist Church's role as it encounters other living faith communities, cultures and ideologies.

What is GCCUIC's role in the church? Its unique leadership role within The United Methodist Church is two-fold:

- Working toward God's gift of unity of the whole body of Christ, which is integral to making disciples of Jesus Christ, and - Strengthening interreligious relationships, which enable community building.

Within the context of biblical and theological understanding GCCUIC works for the visible unity of the human community and the renewal of God's creation. The Commission leads the church in seeking to live into God's vision of the unity of creation through its advocacy on behalf of the church universal and in its work with other faith communities.

- ✦ Goals of CCUIC (to be determined in consultation with Bishop and CCUIC members).
- ✦ Encourage local church CUIC ministries to keep the conference informed of ecumenical and interfaith involvement and developments.
- ✦ Represents or names a representative to the Annual Conference at Local and National meetings. Examples are: Faith and Order meeting which is a subgroup of the National Council of Churches, Louisiana Interchurch Conference. As we know, the Bishop is the Ecumenical Officer but a representative should be in attendance when s(he) is not available.

Vice Chairperson -

- ✦ Fills in for chairperson,
- ✦ Consults with chair for visioning
- ✦ Suggests and spearheads programming ideas

Secretary -

- ✦ Creates and keeps contact list updated,
- ✦ Assists with sending out communications

Treasurer -

- ✦ Maintains record of spending and resources per approved budget

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMENPurpose:

“To continue a commitment to the full and equal responsibility and participation of women in the total life and mission of the Church, sharing fully in the power and in the policy-making at all levels of church life.” In Louisiana, we have added laity, racial/ethnic persons, and young adults to the list.

Accomplishments and Celebrations:

We are excited about women making history in top leadership positions in the connection. We celebrate the appointment of Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey, to our conference as the very first female bishop in the Louisiana Conference. To God be the glory!

The COSROW team celebrates that we were able to find innovative ways of communicating and visioning through use of technology. We have aligned our plans and goals for this quadrennial with the purpose and vision of the General Conference Commission On The Status and Role of Women.

During last year’s Annual Conference (2012) gathering, COSROW celebrated its 40th Anniversary of ministry in the United Methodist Connection. We recognized and celebrated all the women clergy pioneers in the connection and the Louisiana Conference as well. We also celebrated the young clergy women joining ministry in our conference.

COSROW’s annual luncheon was held on Tuesday, June 5, 2012 with more than 100 in attendance. The speaker for the luncheon was one of our pioneer clergy women, Rev. Carole Cotton-Winn. She inspired us by sharing about her journey in ministry and that of other women before her.

At the luncheon, we recognized 5 women who were ordained as Elders in Full Connection, 3 Deacons in Full Connection, 1 Provisional Elder, 1 Provisional Deacon, 1 who completed Course of Study, and 1 Certified Lay Minister. That is a total of 12 women. We give God the glory for this great accomplishment.

During the 2012 conference, we also continued our work of monitoring the conference proceedings. This is in line with our purpose to encourage inclusiveness in all proceedings and dialogue.

We celebrate with all clergy women in the Louisiana Conference for the successful “Clergy Women’s Retreat” that was held at the Wesley Conference Center in February. We are thankful to the organizers and all those who contributed to the success of the gathering. We were not able to provide any financial support due to limited funds but our prayer is that we will be able to in the future.

One of our Commission team members, Eunice Chigumira (chair) was able to attend the General Commission training event in Nashville, Tennessee in March of this year.

Areas of Focus in line with our vision:

1. To continue advocating for diversity in candidacy and clergy mentors. We would love to see a good representation of young clergy, racial/ethnic persons, and women. We will consult with the Board of Ordained Ministry and Board of Laity to encourage inclusiveness.
2. To be involved in justice issues and speak against human trafficking and women abuse. We will work with the Board of Church and Society and UMW.
3. To advocate for inclusiveness in our Annual Conference Meetings through monitoring who gets to speak.

4. We will have our annual COSROW Luncheon at conference on Tuesday noon, June 4th. At the luncheon we will recognize women who have accomplished a milestone in ministry. In line with our vision to support young women leadership, we have decide to:
 - i. Instead of buying honoraria gifts, we will give a donation to a “Women’s Division” scholarship.
 - ii. We have invited a young clergy woman, Kali Pidgeon, to be our guest speaker at the luncheon.
5. We will continue our tradition of giving the “Sojourner Truth Award” at our COSROW luncheon. As usual, the nominees will come from all our Louisiana Districts.

Concerns and Challenges:

Due to a very tight budget, we cannot afford to have face-to-face meetings and support other ministry projects. We will continue to be innovative with technology and finding other ways of continuing our advocacy work as COSROW.

Items for Action:

There are none.

Eunice Chigumira, Chair.

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATIONS

The Conference Communications department continues to work to share the message of mission and ministry through the Louisiana Annual Conference within the state and throughout the denomination and the world.

Feature and news stories written by the Communications Director to promote the need for response teams and donations in the wake of Isaac were carried on the UMC.org website, the UMNS Daily Digest, Newscope, UMC Conversations (blog), jurisdictional websites, the UMCOR website, the United Methodist Reporter and picked up for publication throughout the denomination in other conferences. One story was translated in Korean and placed on the Korean UMC site.

The Louisiana Now!, our printed conference newspaper, was published twice a month in 2012. Special editions and inserts for the Louisiana Now! focusing on Louisiana Volunteers in Mission, United Methodist Women and Dillard University were also published.

A new e-letter has been introduced and is currently replacing one of the printed issues each month. Because of significant budget cuts passed during the 2012 Annual Conference in June, the number of printed issues in 2013 has been reduced to ten (10). No editions of the Louisiana Now! will be printed in the months of July and August, our “slower” news months. The e-letter is scheduled to be sent out twice, substituting for the deleted print edition in those two months. The e-letter is also being used, and will be used, to send out immediate news between regular email dates.

As always, digital files of printed issues of the Louisiana Now! are posted on the conference website and also forwarded as a PDF file to all local churches through the districts. Most churches are forwarding those files on to their congregation and posting them on their websites. In addition, the subscribers to the e-letter receive a link to the print issue posted on the conference website.

On March 2, the Conference sponsored a Rethink Church/Impact Community event known as the 2013 Louisiana Skeeter Run in 10 cities throughout the state. In this second annual event, more than 2,500 runners, walkers and volunteers raised funds and awareness for Imagine No Malaria, a global initiative of The United Methodist Church.

The communications strategy for the Louisiana Skeeter Run included a statewide media initiative with radio and billboard campaigns. Additional publicity included a series of feature articles; the use of social media; creation of a digital flyers and bulletin inserts for local churches to use in publicizing their efforts; media coverage of the statewide event; and appearances on morning TV talk shows and radio programs in every major market in the state.

In addition to the use of social media, in-conference promotion through our newspapers and website, and an extensive publicity campaign, we added these components provided by United Methodist Communications (UMCOM):

- A professionally designed microsite where race participants registered for the event
- Graphic art support for event flyers and web/e-letter banners for our local churches
- Funding for statewide radio and billboard campaigns and for Facebook ads
- A t-shirt design, water bottles, goodie bags for participants

In all, UMCOM supported the event with a $50,000 campaign grant. The United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana also supported the event with a $10,000 grant.

At the 2012 United Methodist Association of Communicators gathering in Washington, D. C., the Conference Director of Communications Betty Backstrom took honors in writing (a story on Connections for Life and a second story covering the HIV/AIDS efforts of the La. Conference) and an Award of Excellence in television production (2012 Louisiana Skeeter Run video)

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND TRANSFORMATION

John Wesley began the Methodist movement in 1739 to breathe life and vitality into the largely institutional and irrelevant expression of Christianity dominant in England at the time. By the time of his death in 1791 the movement in England had grown "from scratch to reach 140,000 converts."¹ In 1784 Wesley commissioned Francis Asbury for the mission to America. Under Asbury's adaptive leadership the Methodist movement in America grew from approximately 1,200 in 1784 to over 214,000 by the time of his death in 1816². Within its core Methodism contains the potential for explosive, exponential growth. How can we unleash this missional potential and rekindle the Methodist movement that once reformed a nation and spread scriptural holiness across the land?

The Office of Congregational Development and Transformation (CD&T) has been commissioned by the Louisiana Conference for this very purpose and is dedicated to developing and implementing strategies and tactics that will launch new congregations and revive, repurpose, and reimagine existing congregations who are ready, willing, and able to make the changes necessary to adapt to the new reality we find ourselves in. CD&T will work with congregations and pastors to assess their readiness for change through a variety means and will help equip them for this important work.

Conversations with our Bishop, District Superintendents, and representatives of Path One (www.path1.org) are underway to experiment with the Planting Zone strategy for church starts and revitalizations. The Planting Zone is a compact, defined geographic area in which multiple Development and Transformation initiatives are launched simultaneously with intensive training and coaching modules for both laity and clergy. Our first experiment with this model will be in the New Orleans metropolitan area in an effort to reach neighborhoods in which there once were, but no longer are, a vital Methodist presence and to work strategically in a variety of settings to revitalize, to repurpose faith communities as well as to help give birth to new ministry initiatives.

We celebrate the churches and pastors who successfully completed the most recent round of the Town and Country Academy. Clergy and laity from twenty smaller churches around the Conference were inspired and challenged through three off-site training sessions with leading church transformation practitioners. This was paired with numerous onsite visits and coaching phone calls by trained clergy coaches. The overwhelming majority of participating congregations experienced renewed vitality as the engaged their communities and saw increased numbers of first time visitors and professions of faith.

In 2011 our Conference made the historic decision to make congregational development and transformation our top missional priority and began the process of aligning our Conference budget to fully fund our mission. This process of alignment began with a 12.5% increase in the CD&T budget in 2012 and will continue to increase by 12.5% until 2021 when 10% of the Conference budget will be allocated to this vital mission.

We celebrate the financial commitment made by the Conference to CD&T. Our task, however, is much larger than our budget. Statewide the cost of a parcel of land adequate to launch a new congregation from scratch more than exceeds the annual budget of CD&T. One component of our comprehensive strategy is accumulating the capital needed to secure future property needs without incurring burdensome levels of debt.

We are working with our District Superintendents to identify possible locations for new church starts and revitalization efforts in their districts. We are specifically evaluating opportunities to plant new congregations in the Lake Charles area. Discussions are underway with local church and community leaders to develop strategies to capitalize on the anticipated growth in the area due to significant industrial investments and development. Startup costs for new congregations in this area of the state will include land, housing, clergy compensation, and laity training. The projected increases to the CD&T budget over the coming years will be just in time to launch this initiative in southwest Louisiana.

Church planting is special calling. In the past year two potential church planters have been through the assessment and training process. Several more potential church planters have begun or continued the process by attending a church planting conference in April.

In addition to launching new congregations significant steps are being made around the state toward repurposing and revitalizing existing congregations. Training initiatives are being developed, and will be announced soon, that will equip both clergy and laity to be vital, vibrant, and missional leaders in their areas of ministry.

Over the past year The Well, Faith Crossing, and New Song, our three newest church starts, have all seen significant growth and are vital congregations. The Well and New Song are now completely self-sufficient in ministry and program budgets. Faith Crossing has moved onto the campus of the former Friendship UMC and re-launched last fall after significant capital improvements to facility. Faith Crossing will be self sufficient by the end of 2013. Our work during the 2012-2013 Conference year has helped to reorganize our budget to free up resources allocated in previous years and to direct more funds to new congregational development and revitalization efforts.

We ask you to covenant with us to pray daily for CD&T. We ask you to pray for God to place in the hearts and minds of leaders, both laity and clergy, dreams and visions for vibrant and vital congregations around our Conference. We ask you to join with us to rekindle the missional flame of the Methodist movement and work with us to revive, repurpose, and reimagine Methodist congregations in Louisiana.

More information on our specific progress over the past year can be found on the Church Extension Facebook – Louisiana Congregational Development, and it will also be linked to the Congregational Development page of the Conference Website - <http://lacongregationaldevelopment.wordpress.com/2013/03/13/march-2013-report/>

HISPANIC/LATINO MINISTRIES

The Hispanic/Latino (H/L) Ministries Committee continued emphasizing the successful fulfillment of the objectives set up for the H/L Community Centers in three main areas: 1) Expansion of the community ministries, 2) Leadership development, and 3) Congregational development. These areas are within the four areas of focus mandated by the General Conference for the 2009-2012 quadrennial.

Expansion of Community Ministries/Congregational Development

We continue expanding the Hispanic/Latino ministries via El Mesias UMC and the two centers in the New Orleans District (Located at First Grace UMC and Covenant UMC).

We are experiencing a significant demand growth in the areas of interpretation and translation of medical, legal, educational, and personal matters. El Mesias UMC is experiencing increasing requests in the area of weddings, funerals, and marital/spiritual counseling.

The Hispanic/Latino Community Centers located in existing UMC churches continued offering many programs, including English as a Second Language, Spanish and French classes (80 students are enrolled at First Grace UMC). Six volunteer teachers and 18 students from Tulane University are helping to conduct these classes. General Equivalency Diploma (GED) classes are offered at El Mesias (25 students are now enrolled in this program). Bible Studies, job referrals, health care, child care, etc. These programs are addressing the needs of the Hispanic/Latino community and developing strong relationships with the immigrants.

El Mesias UMC in Kenner, the only Hispanic/Latino church in the Louisiana Conference, continued expanding and upgrading the programs/services offered to better serve more Hispanics and Latinos. It holds Bible studies, a Sunday worship service with an attendance of about 60-90 people, and Sunday school classes (one for adults, three for children, one for youth and adolescents, and one for new members). The church has 7 Certified Lay Speakers and five new leaders, including two young adults, who have been trained in the functions of the church.

Other community outreach services are also offered by the 3 Community Centers, health fairs, semi-annual health surveys, College fairs, motivational conferences, Pastoral care, etc. Translation services are also available on an as-needed basis. Individual and family counseling are available at the church and centers. Food and clothing are provided to anyone in need. In addition, we are offering a Bilingual Worship Service on Sunday morning at First Grace UMC.

Leadership Development

Under the leadership of GBGM Missionary Oscar Ramos, the 501.c3 organization, named "The Seed (La Semilla) Hispanic/Latino Center for Educational Development", is now fully functional. This center is focusing on the need for education in the H/L community and the need to create a culture of education in the H/L community.

The new board is already acquiring grants from UMC agencies and elsewhere to fund its educational activities.

During 2012, Rev. Samuel Calvo retired after serving for more than 13 years as Senior Pastor of El Mesias UMC. GBGM Missionary Maribel Calvo was then appointed as Local Pastor of El Mesias after completion of all the educational requirements. Pete Aguila became the first person from the Louisiana Annual Conference to be elected as a member of the Connectional Table for the 2013-2016 quadrennial and is serving as its chairperson of the Finance and Budget Review Group.

Under the leadership of Mr. Gard Wayt and the LCUMM, assistance was given to the Mexican Consulate in New Orleans by arranging for Asbury UMC in Bossier City to host an event providing health care and assistance with passports and paperwork for Mexicans living in NW Louisiana. It was an all-day event and over 200 persons received flu shots, blood pressure checks, dental care information, Mexican IDs and passports. Asbury's Pastor, Ramonalynn Bethley, has expressed appreciation and a desire to do the event again in the future - as has the Mexican Consulate.

Overall Accomplishments

- Provided more educational opportunities via La Semilla Center for Educational Development.
- Achieved increase in laity participation in worship service and other functions of the church at El Mesias UMC (current attendance fluctuating from 60 to 90 people). Worship attendance is 35 people at the First Grace Center. About 15 people from the Covenant UMC Center are attending services at the First Grace UMC location.
- Continued improving the quality of life of many Hispanic/Latinos in distress.

- Continued achieving definite performance enhancement in the areas of leadership development and congregational development.
- Affirmed the need and desire to expand Hispanic/Latino ministries to other districts of the Annual Conference.

LOUISIANA CONFERENCE NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES

Accomplishments and Celebration of work completed:

The Ministry of the Louisiana Conference Native American Ministries (LACONAM) celebrates the many accomplishments to help the people of Dulac in 2012. WE celebrate the many groups who came to Dulac to work with Clanton Chapel and Clanton Chapel Christian Preschool as Partners in Mission, and the Volunteers in Mission that came to work with the Dulac Community Center to help the church and community. We continue to celebrate the work of Clanton Chapel in the Native American inclusiveness of culture in worship and the sharing from Rev. Julianne Judd and the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference. WE celebrate the many members of Clanton Chapel who took part in the 2012 Skeeter run. WE celebrate the election of Kenrock J. Verret as vice chairman of the Native American International Caucus. WE celebrate Clanton Chapel Preschool's 28th Commencement Program serving our young students. We celebrate the 130 years of Methodism in Dulac, and Clanton Chapel in Making Disciples for Jesus Christ, and the Dulac Community Center's 80 years of service to the residents of Dulac. WE celebrate the completion of the U.S. Coast Guard's Aid to Navigation Station at Dulac new facilities, as Clanton Chapel fought to keep this station from being closed, and is now rebuilt for southern Louisiana. We celebrate the Working Poor Ministry of Clanton Chapel to bring material help as well as offering spiritual help through Making Disciples for Jesus Christ.

Goals that are a priority for next year:

LACONAM has identified the need to empower Native Americans within the United Methodist Church and other churches as for too long Native people were not educated to learn and perform the many roles that need to be fulfilled within the work of the church and many opportunities were not offered to those Native Americans who became part of the Faith Community, and as a result, membership losses were incurred that may never be recovered, but the hope is that through education in the diversity of the United Methodist Church, more of our people will become part of the Church. LACONAM has included many young Native Americans from Clanton Chapel as members and future leaders of Clanton Chapel and institutions of the United Methodist Church. LACONAM seeks to help develop more speakers on Native American needs in Louisiana and invite anyone interested to take part to share our story. LACONAM seeks to invite groups and individuals to help in the ministries of Clanton Chapel and the Dulac Community Center, two unique, separate ministries who seek to make a difference in the lives of the people of Dulac. In 2013, LACONAM would like to request that all churches in the Louisiana Annual Conference have one person designated at charge conference to promote and inform church members of the 2014 Native American Ministries Sunday Offering to better support our ministries in Louisiana.

Concerns and challenges:

LACONAM seeks to continue to identify and invite Native Americans and others interested within Louisiana Annual Conference Churches to take part in the support of LACONAM throughout the conference to support Clanton Chapel and the Dulac Community Center Ministries in Dulac. LACONAM thanks all who have contributed to the Native American Ministries Sunday Offering and would like for more persons to support our Native American Ministries through this offering.

Items for action by the Louisiana Annual Conference:

The Louisiana Annual Conference Native American Ministries (LACONAM) would like to request the continued support of the Multicultural Ministries committee under the leadership of Juan Huertas, LACONAM Liaison Dr. Don C. Cottrill, and support of the Clanton Chapel-Clanton Chapel Christian Preschool, and the Dulac Community Center Ministries by the Louisiana Annual Conference, Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey, the Cabinet, Clergy and Laity. LACONAM would like to ask for the continued support of the Federal Recognition of the United Houma

Nation and the Morganza to the Gulf Hurricane Levee Protection System to protect our people and Ministries along the Gulf Coast.

LOUISIANA VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

As I begin this report I write from Bareilly, India! We are here with the second of two LAVIM teams which have come in tandem to do both construction and medical ministry at the Fairdpur Clara Swain Hospital Clinic in the village by the same name. A team lead by Judy Barbay came on February 8 and began a week of painting and construction to repair and update some of the clinic patient rooms and other work. I'm happy to look around me and see that the full exteriors of the clinic buildings have been painted by the team. There are four large buildings and they are clean and white and much interior work was also done by the eight member team. Barbay's team also offered several days of VBS for the children of the Baby Fold, an historic orphanage located on the grounds of the former Clara Swain Missionary Hospital in Bareilly India.

Our 14 member medical team comes from Louisiana, North Carolina, Virginia and Oklahoma. I'm always amazed at how LAVIM had reached out and appealed to so many from so many states, denominations, ages, colors and abilities. We are in the fourth day of seven days of clinics, the second in this daily operating clinic. Our other five days have been or will be in surrounding villages in makeshift facilities such as schools or churches. Thus far, we have seen about 1000 patients, a bit under our original estimates but there are three more days to go and in outlying villages where villagers do not have transportation or money to take advantage of clinics in larger towns. Over $8,000 in medicines will be distributed by the end of the week; the gifts of both team leaders and our collecting back at home from generous department stores, pharmacies, and pharmacy supply companies and physicians. As our team shares its resources, we have found other gifts among us from the folks back home—donations of money for medicines or other projects, beautiful pillow case dresses for the girls of the orphanage, medicines galore, toys, medical equipment, and great faith and excitement about sharing with new friends. All this will be used for the benefit of the clinic's ongoing ministry or with the Warne Baby Fold to help with the expenses and education of its fifty resident children and over 80 children who benefit from its ministry. And, as with any LAVIM mission, the Holy Spirit abounds in the souls and actions of these volunteers and yet meets us in the lives and witness of the patients and hospital personnel we see. As will all mission before we depart home we can know only of the God we see. When we depart here we will know a larger and more awesome God for our own lives as we have seen Him in the lives of the people here.

2013 has already been a busy last six months for LAVIM. Twenty teams are scheduled by both LAVIM and requested administration by team leaders between January 1 and June 30 when the LAVIM offices will be dissolved. Of these, four have already gone with a total of 41 team members. Teams traveled to Cambodia for education and construction ministries, two to India and one medical team to Mexico. January saw our annual Team Leader Training (TLT) at which fifty-five were trained. Twelve of these were new team leaders for 2013. The training was a remarkable event designed by Deacon Dawn Young around the motion picture, "The Way", portraying one man's walk on the El Camino de Santiago. It was suggested to trainees that mission is pilgrimage much like the walk of the el Camino and preparation for mission is also preparation for a pilgrimage experience. More attention is being given today to spiritual training and theology of mission for volunteers as well as spiritual follow up for teams and sponsoring churches. While LAVIM, with its two day training has been a forerunner in this training for some years, this was our attempt, as always, to improve and do better. I believe this training was a great success and we are thankful both for Dawn's great educational insights and leadership as well as the several mission leaders from outside the Conference who joined out training and those experienced team leaders from within our numbers who also contributed.

During that training a longtime friend and supporter of LAVIM was named one of the recipients of the August Ammodt LAVIM Award for 2013. Rev. Ann Sutton helped in the planning and inauguration of LAVIM back in 1999 and served as the Chair of the LAVIM Advisory Committee for several years. Her witness for mission and enthusiasm for our Cambodian work and Initiative has been exemplary. As we bring our current LAVIM staffing to an end and transition to an all-volunteer model.

Additional teams in the next four months will travel to Haiti (3), Mexico (4), Guatemala (2), Bahamas (1), Alaska (1), Russia (1), Cuba (1) and a youth mission to Cambodia. This year will bring a LAVIM first with a team to Panama. A 20 member Family Mission will travel to Guatemala to offer construction ministry to the Methodist Camp in Lemoa as well as a five day VBS to the Methodist orphanage there. LAVIM continues to work with the McNeese University School of Nursing and our Wesley Foundation on that campus to provide teams for community research for medical projects of the School of Nursing and for teams to take their students to Mexico and other sites to carry out those plans. Successful missions have been held in Indonesia and Mexico since last Annual Conference.

Early Response Training (ERT) is scheduled August 3. These are to be led and administrated by co-directors Bob Deich and Darryl Guy and UMCOR ERT certified instructor Ken Musick. Additional trainings will be scheduled as churches are able to provide 12 or more trainees. ERT training is not local church disaster training which prepares local communities to respond to their own disasters but is for those who wish to travel to disaster sites in state or other US disasters to be a part of UMCOR response. Over 150 badged and certified ERT volunteers are now part of our Annual Conference due to these efforts but many more are needed as volunteers are not always available when a response is necessary.

LAVIM is proud to announce the appointment of Individual Volunteer Sarah Marsalis-Luginbill to the staff of the Haiti Response. She traveled there in January and will serve until the end of June. Sarah has led many LAVIM teams to Haiti and has a particular interest and love of the country and especially suited for the important job of coordinating teams which arrive there almost daily from Louisiana and other conference UMCOR's. LAVIM is very happy to call Sarah our own!

The timing of this Pre-Conference Report allows LAVIM to offer its 2012 EOY report as well. There were three training events, TLT and two ERT. 353 volunteers participated and 25 were trained for ERT. Thirty-seven missions were completed, of these, 9 were medical and 23 were construction and education, three were training. Two additional teams went to Russia and were carried out with assistance from LAVIM but administrated by the team leader. Using UMCOR's "mission day" definition there were 238 work days included in these missions. In addition to the full-time Director and Assistant to the Director, LAVIM uses the assistance of a Financial Assistant, Amanda Short, hired by LAVIM and paid by administrative fees. Amanda worked 1115 hours in 2013 or approximately 21 hours per week. We are also assisted by the generous time donation of Don Leger who has written and continued to update our LAVIM financial and team software for many years. Don is not a United Methodist but has encouraged and supported our mission work as part of his own ministry.

As we bring our staff service to a close, I want to thank Brenda Coppit for her many years of service. As mission does to all of us, Brenda has found her passion for this work and has served gracefully and significantly in her position. She has truly been the voice of LAVIM from our office phone and in millions of emails as she communicates important facts and travel arrangements to our team leaders and to our hosts and friends around the world. Likewise, Amanda Short, who has only been with us for a few years, has quickly and easily made her impact on our volunteers and our ministry. Her MBA skills have helped remake our financial system and records one of the best and most transparent in the UMCOR connection throughout the UMC. The passion for this work from both of these ladies as well as their grace in difficult times continues to amaze me. The LAVIM office has been a significant family of influence in our Conference, in the Jurisdiction, the General Church and literally, around the world with missionaries, church professionals, country directors and boards and agencies involved in the UM mission efforts. And, that influence is concentered by a great cloud of earthly witnesses – our volunteers!

I finish this report upon return from India and can report two very successful teams, both construction and medical. I've shared the results of the construction and VBS team which worked at the Fairdpur and at the Baby Fold. Just fewer than 3000 persons were seen by the medical team which included additional physicians from the clinic staff and Indian volunteer medical staff as well. Our own nurses, physical therapists, non-medical volunteers, pharmacists and physicians completed the team. Throughout both missions Indian theological students, Baby Fold older children, local medical volunteers (dentist and opticians) and mission staff were involved in the missions. LAVIM teams provide both the impetus and funding for such ministries. UMCOR and thus LAVIM always goes to work "with" our mission partners and not "to" or "at" these tireless servants. What little we can do or provide triggers an outstanding response from our friends there. Six Indian doctors provided their time to be in mission with the team from as far away as Calcutta and Mumbai. Theological students, given time off from their studies by a grateful and mission intentional Indian Methodist seminary, represented the whole of India in their home cities and villages. There have been nine teams to India since 2006. Teams have provided medical care (3), installed a generator for the Baby Fold orphanage, completed an interior courtyard and playground, provided funding and built and dedicated a $50,000 chapel for the facility and built or refurbished three dormitories for the E Stanley Jones Sat Tal Ashram in Northern India. Most teams also provided VBS, clothing and supplies for the Baby Fold in addition to medical or construction work.

I've often preached in regard to the cannon of the Bible not being finished; that there are four printed Gospels but additional Gospels being written. I've even asked parishioners to glue blank pages in the back of their family Bibles on which to write their own Gospel as it is lived out. The Gospel of LAVIM as a part of the Conference staff comes to an end this Annual Conference year. But the Gospels are still being written, by the work of our volunteers, by our mission partners around the world, by God in the work of his Holy Spirit. The need is great. There is much hunger and need around the world—and in your own heart. We are made for mission. It is our purpose, our destiny.

NEW LAVIM STRUCTURE

Proposed by: LAVIM Restructuring Small Group

In June of 2012, the Louisiana Annual Conference voted to drastically reduce the Conference Benevolence funding for the LAVIM office, including the elimination of both Conference Office positions for VIM.

In the Fall of 2012, the LAVIM Advisory Committee began exploring possibilities for recreating the ministry of LAVIM as an all-volunteer effort. We put together a small group that worked for many months on a workable proposal, seeking input from all Louisiana Methodists who are passionate about sending mission teams.

What we have come up with is not perfect, but we hope that over the next year we will continue to learn new ways to train and deploy and encourage the people of Louisiana to be in mission with our brothers and sisters in Christ throughout our country and across our world.

What we are presenting for adoption is a working proposal for the purpose and organization of LAVIM starting July 1, 2013. We intend to refine this plan over the next year and present a more final proposal to the 2014 Annual Conference:

Primary Purposes of LAVIM:

- Training of Team Leaders and Members
- Provide resources to link potential Team Leaders with sites and missionaries
- Maintain a master list of all VIM and non-VIM missions from the Conference
- Relate to the SCJ & GBGM Office of Mission Volunteers
- Maintain and Expand the Mission outreach of the LA Conference

VIM Leadership Team:

Purpose:

The VIM Leadership Team will be charged with encouraging and training team leaders and members for mission teams that are sent from the LA Conference.

Functions:

- Continue to develop existing missions
- Develop new opportunities for mission, including offering “seed money”
- Identify “Mission Churches” and “People with Passion for Mission”
- Host an Annual Meeting for current and potential Team Leaders that will include strategic planning sessions, missional plans for geographic or cultural areas, and Team Leader Training
- Meet quarterly to discuss the work and plans of LAVIM, at least through 2014
- Set realistic goals for Conference mission opportunities, including areas served, number of teams, number of participants, etc.
- Educate Team Leaders and Members on Safe Sanctuary policies and practices

- Maintain a website with current information that includes potential mission sites, teams scheduled, list of contacts and more.
- Create and oversee a “Speaker’s Bureau” for those willing to speak about missions in local churches.

Composition:

- The Leadership Team will be composed of members representing various areas of LAVIM, some geographical, others functional.

Functional Members (can also be a Geographic/Cultural Area or At-Large Rep):

VIM Coordinator
Co-Coordinator
Treasurer
Secretary

Suggested Geographic/Cultural Area Reps:

Domestic Rep
Mexico Rep
Far East Rep
Caribbean/Central/South America Rep
African Rep
ERT Rep

Suggested At-Large Reps:

Team Leader Training
Scheduling
Website
“Mission Church” Reps

Duties of the Volunteer VIM Coordinator (lay or clergy):

- Represent LAVIM as the “Point Person” in official capacities, or designate someone else, including:
 - Annual Conference, SCJ, CBGM, and more
- Organize and lead the LAVIM Leadership Team

Duties of the VIM Treasurer:

- Oversee the disbursement of funds from the LAVIM budget, including Benevolence Funds and all dedicated accounts held by LAVIM

Geographic/Cultural Area Reps:

- These will be determined by the Team Leaders who have a passion for that area. This will generally take place at the Annual Meeting of LAVIM.
- Each Area Rep will be responsible for coordinating the work of the LA Annual Conference for their particular area(s).
- They will work with a small group of Team Leaders who have experience and passion in that area. This small group will be a resource pool for anyone who is planning a mission to that area.
- Jointly with their small group, the Area Reps will maintain relationships with locals and/or missionaries, set realistic goals for number and types of missions, and schedule missions.

Duties of Team Leader Training Rep:

- Plan, organize, and carry out the Team Leader Trainings on a regular basis.

Duties of Scheduling Rep:

- Maintain a master list of mission teams from our annual conference. Every VIM team will be included, as well as many non-VIM mission teams as we can find information about.

Duties of Website Rep:

- Create and maintain the LAVIM website, with information on scheduled mission teams, past teams, potential sites, etc.
- Each team that blogs or posts pictures or descriptions about their mission should be accessible through the LAVIM website.
- The website will also contain links to legal, insurance and other necessary forms for teams.

Selection of Leadership Team Members:

- The LAVIM Advisory Committee will seek out and determine members of the LA VIM Leadership Team for 2013.
- The composition of the 2014 Leadership Team will be determined by Team Leaders at their Annual Meeting in January.

Overlap of Advisory Committee and Leadership Team

- The current Advisory Committee will continue to exist until December 31, 2013 in order to determine members of the Leadership Team and ensure a smooth transition from the current model to the new one.
- The new Leadership Team will be in place by July 1, 2013, in order to begin planning, goal-setting, and assuming their specified functions from the current LAVIM Conference Office.
- During the overlapping time, the Advisory Committee and the Leadership Team will work together to ensure a smooth transition.

This working proposal was adopted by the LAVIM Advisory Committee on March 14, 2013 and is being recommended for passage by the 2013 Louisiana Annual Conference.

LAVIM Advisory Committee

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

Africa University is deeply grateful to the churches of the Louisiana Conference for their continuing generosity and commitment. We thank you for your 100% investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) in 2012. In total, 27 annual conferences met 100% of their asking to the AUF last year. Other annual conferences also increased their support and overall giving to the AUF reached a new record of 93.35%.

By consistently giving at 100%, the Louisiana Conference has provided scholarships to aid needy students, vital teaching tools, and a great learning environment. You help to ensure that Africa University has dedicated faculty to inspire, train and nurture a generation of new leaders. More importantly, your contributions allow the university to plan with confidence, knowing that it can rely on the church's ongoing investment in the AUF to meet its day-to-day and operational expenses.

Please continue to invest in the AUF at 100% of the asking, or higher. The university is counting on the Louisiana Conference because demand for an Africa University education is growing. More than 1,200 qualified applicants sought admission in August 2012. The university had space for only about 400 freshmen. Currently, women account for 52% of the total enrollment, which stands at 1,386 students. In addition, 25 African nations are represented in the student body.

Scholarships and financial aid grants are vital to access. More than 90% of the students at Africa University need assistance—scholarships, financial aid grants and work study—in order to pay their tuition and other fees. For the vast majority, a direct or endowed scholarship award made possible by your generosity is their only means of attending university.

Throughout 2012, the 20th anniversary celebrations highlighted the crucial role that Africa University is already playing in the life of our global church. The Rev. Dr. Laishi Bwalya, for example, is superintendent of the Zambia Provisional Conference and a member of the Connectional Table of The United Methodist Church for 2013-2016. Africa University graduates serve as directors on general agency boards and in regional leadership roles. Across Africa, graduates are helping to eradicate hunger, poverty, disease, conflict and hopelessness. When disaster strikes, they lead the church's efforts to mitigate suffering and help communities rebound.

Africa University is making a profound difference and it hasn't even reached its full potential. For every graduate, there are hundreds of gifted persons who are praying to be equipped to serve. That's why Africa University is doubling its efforts to raise scholarships and develop more online distance learning programs.

We thank the Louisiana Conference for believing and investing in Africa University. You have helped to establish the university on a firm foundation. Help us to build on that foundation in ways that will continue to make disciples of Jesus Christ who transform communities.

Please pray without ceasing for your Africa University. Changing Africa: Learning here. Living here. Leading here. Serving God. All the time. Everywhere.

James H. Salley, Assoc. Vice Chancellor

BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

What a Year! I am dazzled by the achievements of our faculty, students and staff here at Boston University School of Theology in 2012. This has been a year of deep reflection as we underwent the BU Academic Program Review and the United Methodist University Senate Review. Both reviews went very well and revealed vital strength in our faculty, students, and administrative staff. This has been a year for celebration – our largest ever incoming class, excellence in teaching and learning, and a vibrant community life.

Some highlights from the previous year were:

- Reaching into the greater community through service days, “vocations vacation,” seminary singers tour to Florida, and contextual internships.
- Building up intentional living communities for students: Theology House, Green House, and Mason Terrace.
- Enhancing spiritual life through weekly worship, reading retreats, winter retreat, daily morning prayer, and small groups.
- Creating a “greener” school with: 26 green offices, Carbon Rally Challenge, expanding programs for composting and recycling, and now a 2013 renovation to create a green community center.
- Hosting Lowell Lecture Series on “Restoring Civil Discourse,” featuring Dr. Virginia Sapiro, Bishop Melvin Talbert, Bishop Hee-Soo Jung, and Chief Justice Barbara Smith (Chickasaw Nation).
- Traveling with seminar groups to Ephesus (Turkey) and to Israel and Palestine.
- Advancing communication through a new website, the launching of STH Connect, and production of webinars and video resources.

This has been a year for strengthening master’s education and reviewing doctoral programs. It has also been a year for deepening relations with faith communities, service agencies, and global research initiatives, as we seek to intensify STH’s contributions to our fragile world.

Thank you for being a friend of Boston University! We welcome your stories, suggestions, and support for us. STH is on a mission, and we especially covet your prayers for our people and our work. We are praying for you!

Mary Elizabeth Moore

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Candler School of Theology prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world. Our commitment to authentic discipleship and relevant ministry enables us to develop uniquely well-rounded leaders who are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. As one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, Candler provides a rich context for learning and formation supported by the extensive resources of a top-tier research university. As a school located in the metropolitan area of Atlanta, Candler offers a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of our 21st century world. There is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Our enrollment stands at 478, with 365 seeking the Master of Divinity, 50 the Master of Theological Studies, 30 the Master of Theology, 18 the Doctor of Theology and 15 enrolled as Special, Non-Degree students. The student population is 32 percent U.S. ethnic minority, 10 percent international, and 50 percent women. Half of MDiv students are United Methodist, with forty-three denominations represented in all programs. The median age of our entering class of MDiv students is 27, with 58 percent under thirty.

Candler remains steadfastly committed to making theological education financially feasible, dedicating nearly $5 million to financial aid. Eighty percent of eligible students received Candler-based financial aid, with the average award covering 66 percent of tuition.

Construction preparations for the second phase of the Candler's new building got underway at the end of 2012 thanks to an extraordinary gift of $15 million from the O. Wayne Rollins Foundation. The new building, which will house Pitts Theology Library, community space, additional classrooms and offices, group study areas, and the Wesley Teaching Chapel, will be completed in late spring of 2014 in time for Candler's Centennial Celebration. Candler's phase one building was named in memory of Rita Anne Rollins, the first grandchild of the foundation's namesake, in honor of its generous financial gift.

Candler had an excellent presence at the 2012 General Conference in Tampa. In addition to my attendance, Associate Dean Anne Burkholder took a class of 20 students so they could learn firsthand about United Methodist governance. Assistant Dean Mathew Pinson and Dr. Alice Rogers attended as delegates, and the Candler Singers, directed by Barbara Day Miller, performed at the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry reception and the plenary session.

We continue to emphasize preparing our students for leadership in an increasingly global context, and now offer 19 academic exchanges with theology schools across five continents and 15 countries, including many related to The United Methodist Church. In addition to our ongoing summer internship program with the Methodist Church in the Bahamas, this year's travel seminars included the Middle East and World Methodist Evangelism Institute evangelism seminars to Zimbabwe, Peru, and Israel.

Our public events supported our commitment to strengthen the church by offering opportunities for clergy and lay people to hear fresh, new voices. Last fall we hosted Christian activist and bestselling author Shane Claiborne for two major addresses, "Jesus for President" and "Resurrecting Church," with nearly 1,000 in attendance. Our Spring Conference, "The Singing Church," gathered experts to lead an exploration of the best practices and emerging trends of congregational song.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

For 2012-13, the 50 students enrolled in the CLC studied Christian Formation through the use of narrative and the art of storytelling. In the fall semester, they explored their past stories, and in the spring semester they explored their present and future stories. This May, 12 CLC students graduated from Centenary, 10 of who received the CLC endorsement. Three of these 10 are enrolling in seminaries this fall.

The CLC hosted its seventh annual fundraising dinner featuring best-selling author, Donald Miller and honoring Community Renewal International founder, Mack McCarter with the Christian Leadership Award. Earlier in the fall, CLC presented a community education seminar with author, Enuma Okoro. The works of Miller and Okoro tied into the theme of Christian Formation and the art of storytelling.

Religious Life

Centenary is grateful for the Board of Higher Education and Ministry’s support for religious life on campus. The conference grant provides support for alternative break missions. Last year, it helped send students to the Bahamas Methodist Habitat mission on the island of Eleuthera and to New Orleans. On campus programs include a weekly student-led worship service known as Stepping Stones, the United Methodist Student Movement, Centenary Women United, Mosaic, S.A.I.L. (Serve Another in Love), Men’s discussion group, and the Religious Life Center, which is open on weekends to provide a supportive and wholesome social environment for students. In addition, Centenary students have the opportunity to engage religious life programming through the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Canterbury House, Baptist Collegiate Ministry and the Catholic Student Organization.

Preparing Globally Engaged Leaders committed to service

Underscoring Centenary’s commitment to service, last year alone, Centenary students logged over 12,460 hours in cooperation with over 50 community partners. Living Learning Communities (LLCs) focused on issues such as sustainability, community health, French immersion, and socially responsible media.

Taking seriously our commitment to preparing students to be globally engaged, Centenary implemented its Passport Points program which provides Centenary students with the opportunity to earn up to $2,000 in funds to be used for international travel. Over the course of the 2012-13 academic year, we welcomed 18 international students representing six foreign countries, and Centenary students studied abroad in eleven countries.

Centenary celebrates the clergy families of the Louisiana United Methodist Conference who have entrusted the College with the education of their students. We are proud to count among our students a number of clergy dependents. Clergy dependents are eligible for up to $5000 in annual United Methodist grant funds.

Concerns and challenges

A continuing challenge for the College is to find meaningful and effective ways to connect with United Methodist students and bring them into the Centenary family. We believe that the education and experience offered by the College strengthens a young person’s commitment to United Methodism, which in turn ultimately benefits the Louisiana United Methodist Conference. We continue to seek partnerships and support in bringing more of Louisiana's United Methodist youth to Centenary to pursue their undergraduate education.

B. David Rowe, President

DILLARD UNIVERSITY

Religious Life at Dillard University

The Office of the University Chaplain is the center for religious life at Dillard University. The office serves the religious and spiritual needs of the campus community. Based in Lawless Memorial Chapel, it is a full-service campus ministry that provides pastoral, spiritual, grief counseling and prayer for students, faculty, staff, administration, alumni and friends of Dillard. Our new university chaplain, the first to live on campus in over 30 years, visits the sick, serves communion to the sick and shut-in, and offers prayer at campus events. A lively worship experience is available in Lawless Memorial Chapel every Sunday at 11 a.m. while the university is in session, and on special occasions. The style of worship represents an eclectic mix of the university's two affiliations (United Methodist Church and the United Church of Christ) with a unique blend of ecumenical, traditional, and contemporary worship styles that reflect the heritage of Dillard and the cultural exuberance of New Orleans. Communion service is held on the first Sunday of each month.

This year, the Office of the Chaplain has launched many initiatives to meet the growing religious and spiritual needs of our campus community. This spring, the office created a 24-Hour Prayer and Spiritual Crisis Hotline at (504) 816-HOPE. It also started a telephone conference that convenes on Tuesdays at 7 a.m. Another new initiative is the chaplain's Walk on Wednesdays (W.O.W.). Every Wednesday at noon, students, faculty, staff and alumni are encouraged to exercise with the university chaplain by walking the Avenue of the Oaks. The goal of the W.O.W. ministry is to promote spiritual, physical and mental health and wellness. Additionally, the Chaplain's Office sponsors a weekly prayer meeting on Wednesdays at 6 p.m. Student chaplain's lead weekly prayer meetings and Bible studies in the residence halls, and the Office of the University Chaplain hosts the Power for Living Bible Study on Wednesdays at 7 p.m. The Chaplain's Office invites all to come and experience its powerful teaching ministry. On Fridays at noon, the community comes together for the benefit of prayer around the flagpole on the Avenue of the Oaks. The Prayer Room at Lawless Chapel is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. We are pleased to announce Sunday evening vesper service has returned to Dillard University after a 40-year hiatus. This renewed Dillard tradition consists of an evening of prayer and song. New Orleans guest churches include: First Grace United Methodist Church, Central-St. Matthews United Church of Christ, Bethany United Methodist Church, and Good Shepherd United Church of Christ.

The Chaplain's Office instituted a food pantry with Dillard University's Staff Task Force. It also established a student emergency relief fund, named in honor of Rev. Gail Bowman, the former chaplain, and a book fund, named in honor of our visionary new president, Dr. Walter M. Kimbrough. In addition, the Office of the University Chaplain has plans to create a Religious Life Council, covenant groups/class meetings, mission trips and retreats for the 2013-2014 academic year.

The Office of the University Chaplain is the home of VisionQuest, "The Program for Vocation at Dillard University." This program began in 2001 through a grant from the Lilly Endowment, Incorporated. VisionQuest aids students in pursuing ordained, music and lay ministry, and helps students find work and the life to which God has called them. Students participate in all aspects of the VisionQuest Program. The VisionQuest Chorale, Praise and Worship Team, Liturgical Dance Company, and Mime Ministry provide the music and dance for worship – be it on campus, throughout New Orleans, or beyond the city. The VisionQuest program hosts the Message in the Middle preaching series in which nationally recognized preachers grace our pulpit with an encouraging and inspiring word to motivate our students. The VisionQuest program also directs Sunday Night Live, which showcases the artistic abilities of our students in song, dance and spoken word. VisionQuest supports seminary trips for students who are interested in the ministry and upon graduation a scholarship is awarded to qualified graduates who are enrolled in a seminary. Lastly, VisionQuest sponsors guest preachers, lecturers, and gospel artists (including Donald Lawrence and Richard Smallwood), and the Leadership Institute, a series of daylong workshops that enhance personal and profession leadership.

In November 2012, Dillard University welcomed Rev. John Bernard Wingate as its new university chaplain and director of VisionQuest. Wingate, the first Methodist minister to serve in this position in 15 years, came to Dillard University from Union Beach, N.J. and arrived right after Hurricane Sandy devastated his New Jersey home. He is a fourth generation United Methodist with familial ties to the South Carolina and Greater New York Annual Conferences. He is currently an ordained itinerant elder in full connection with the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Wingate has been in pastoral ministry for 26 years, and has 16 years of work experience in higher education. Since his arrival, our chapel services have experienced a rebirth.

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS:

Dillard University made history when the Memorial Service Committee of the New Orleans Martin Luther King, Jr., Federal Holiday Planning Commission and the Office of the University Chaplain hosted The 2013 Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Service at Lawless Memorial Chapel on Sunday, January 20, 2013. This was the first time in its 27 year history that the event was held at Dillard University. Our new University Chaplain, Rev. John Bernard Wingate, was the keynote speaker.

Dillard Hosted Martin Luther King Jr. Week for Peace Convocation

During the 27th annual Martin Luther King Jr. Week for Peace in January, Dillard hosted a convocation that brought together college students from various New Orleans colleges and universities. The convocation included a panel discussion moderated by Melissa Harris-Perry of MSNBC and featuring Bernette Johnson, the chief justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court. Pearlle Elloie and Dr. Barbara Guillory Thompson, Dillard alumnae who filed the landmark 1960 suit that led to the integration of Tulane University, received lifetime achievement awards. Students also participated in community service activities and other events throughout the Week for Peace.

Dillard Expanded International Program, Welcomed Brazilian Students

A partnership between Dillard University and Brazilian higher education officials has brought nearly 20 Brazilian students to Dillard this semester to study for the next 18 months. The agreement is part of the Brazilian government's Brazil Scientific Mobility Program, as well as the HBCU-Brazil Alliance, a new initiative spearheaded by President Obama to deepen academic cooperation between Brazilian higher education institutions and American HBCUs in the areas of science and technology.

President Kimbrough Launches Brain Food Lecture Series

On April 18, 2013, Dillard University President Walter Kimbrough will launch Brain Food, his official lecture series. Author and advocate Michael Eric Dyson will give the inaugural lecture. Kimbrough has made high-profile speaking engagements a priority since starting at Dillard in July. Michelle Alexander, author of the New York Times best-selling book The New Jim Crow: Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness, came to campus in November and gave the annual Justice Revius O. Ortique, Jr. Lecture on Law and Society in front of a packed house. Two months later, national radio host Tavis Smiley and revered intellectual Cornel West visited Dillard together on their "Poverty Tour." They, too, addressed a standing-room-only crowd.

Brain Food, which will likely include three or four lectures per semester, has all the makings of a signature program for Dillard. Most importantly, it represents the rekindling of a school tradition, and the positioning of the university as a locus of intellectual thought in New Orleans.

Dillard Hosted Delta Sigma Theta

On Jan. 5, Dillard hosted the Delta Sigma Thetas on their Centennial Torch Tour. Two notable Dillard alumnae were in attendance – Cynthia Butler-McIntyre, who serves as the national president of the sorority, and Rachel Mercadel, who serves as president of its New Orleans Alumnae chapter. Delta Sigma Theta, a nationwide sorority for African-American women, celebrated its 100th anniversary on Jan. 13, 2013.

Dillard Received Grant to Expand Schoolyard Gardens

The Greater New Orleans Foundation awarded Dillard University a $20,000 grant for an initiative that will fight food deserts and malnutrition in the Gentilly community. Dillard biology students and faculty are working with Langston Hughes Academy (LHA) to expand schoolyard gardens that produce fresh vegetables for Gentilly families. The grant will help expand the "From Seed to Table" project which Dillard and LHA launched in September. That partnership utilizes Dillard's greenhouse and LHA's Dreamkeeper Garden to teach agricultural science and improve healthy food access for the community.

Dillard Grad Joined the Globetrotters

Ariel Mitchell, Dillard alum from the Class of 2012, signed with the legendary Harlem Globetrotters. She is one of only 11 women to ever to play for the basketball team, and the first to come out of a National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics school. The Dillard University Athletics Department honored her at a formal announcement and press conference in Dent Hall gymnasium in September.

Spike Lee Connected with Dillard Students, Film Program Booms

New Orleans has become a hotbed for movie shoots since Louisiana passed tax breaks for film productions. Now, Dillard's film concentration is quickly becoming one of Dillard's flagship programs, and students are getting hands-on experience with Hollywood South. Not only have numerous films shot scenes on campus, but Dillard students have had the opportunity to work on some of those productions. Our students interned on the set of Spike Lee's latest film, "Oldboy."

Recently, Dillard hosted guest lectures from professionals including production designer Sharon Seymour ("Argo"), cinematographer Kerwin DeVonish ("Red Hook Summer"), cinematographer Sean Bobbitt ("Old Boy"), and publicist Dianne Slaterry (Spike Lee films). Students have started producing their own material as well, writing and filming skits for a 30-minute variety show called "Flippin' Out" that satirizes news and campus life a la "Saturday Night Live."

President Kimbrough Hosted Thanksgiving Dinner

Every student should have a home cooked meal on Thanksgiving so Dillard University President Walter Kimbrough and his family opened their home to some Dillard students who weren't able to travel to be with family.

Dillard Celebrated 70th Anniversary of Nursing Program

Dillard celebrated the 70th anniversary of its School of Nursing with a Scholarship Gala in November. Founded in 1942, Dillard's School of Nursing played an important role in the history of nursing and healthcare in New Orleans and Louisiana. At the time of its founding, Dillard's program was the only collegiate nursing school open to African-Americans in Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma and Mississippi. In 1952, it became the first accredited nursing program in Louisiana. From 1932 to 1983, Dillard also operated Flint-Goodridge Hospital, where thousands of student nurses trained.

The gala featured an address from Dr. Mackie Harper Norris, a nursing alumna from the Class of 1960. Mrs. Rhea Lucien, an alumna from the nursing school's first ever graduating class in 1945, and former Dillard nursing professor Dr. Edwina Frank were honored for their lifelong dedication to the program.

Alum Is First Black Chief Judge of Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals

In October, Judge Carl E. Stewart '71 became the Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, which hears appeals from federal courts in Louisiana, Texas and Mississippi. Stewart, a resident of Shreveport, is the second African-American appointed to the Fifth Circuit and the first to serve as Chief Judge. In this role, Stewart will sit on the Judicial Conference of the United States, which establishes policies for federal courts nationwide. President William Clinton appointed him as U.S. Circuit Judge in 1994. Stewart gave the Ortique Lecture on Law and Society at Dillard's Founders' Day Convocation in 2011.

U.S. News & World Report, Washington Monthly Rank Dillard Highly

In its 2012 Best College Rankings, U.S. News & World Report once again ranked Dillard University among the top 10 HBCUs in the country. Dillard made Washington Monthly's 2012 list of the nation's top 75 liberal arts colleges, based on schools' contributions to the public good in three categories: social mobility (recruiting and graduating low-income students); research (producing cutting-edge research); and service (encouraging students to give back to their country).

President Kimbrough Makes Prestigious Lists

NBC's TheGrio.com has named Dr. Kimbrough to its 2013 list of the top 100 African-American history makers who foster change in their local communities. He has also been named one of the top 30 "People to Watch" by New Orleans Magazine.

Dillard Hosted 10th annual New York Times Student Journalism Institute

Students from across the country descended onto the Dillard University campus in May for the 10th annual New York Times Student Journalism Institute. The two-week program provided intensive training with reporters and editors from The New York Times and The Boston Globe. The institute is run in conjunction with the National Association of Black Journalists and the Black College Communication Association.

Dillard Students Find Myriad Ways to Serve the Community

From art and education to health and literacy, Dillard University students have found countless ways to serve others over the past year. Members of Delta Sigma Theta have read to children in Head Start programs and organized cholesterol and glucose screenings. Alpha Kappa Alpha members recently participated in the Little Dresses for Africa project, decorating pillowcases, sewing them into dresses, and sending them to churches, schools and orphanages overseas.

In the fall, a group of female students came together and organized a benefit showcase called "It's a Girl Thing." Ten acts performed to raise money for education for girls in Liberia.

DREW UNIVERSITY THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL

Drew Theological School, deeply rooted in its United Methodist heritage, is a place that empowers its students to conceive and implement dynamic ministries. Drew offers the MDiv, MA, MAM, STM, DMin, and PhD degrees, as well as certifications in Camp and Retreat Ministry, and Spiritual Formation. Academically rigorous and spiritually engaging, Drew develops religious leadership prepared for these ever-changing times. Drew welcomes people of all faiths, but we are particularly interested in building up the United Methodist ethos that is part of our historic Wesleyan heritage. Drew offers 100% tuition scholarships to all United Methodists who meet all admissions requirements and have a 3.2 undergraduate GPA or higher.

In June 2012, I was pleased to welcome to Drew's campus representatives from 8 of the 13 United Methodist seminaries, staff members from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry and the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, one Bishop, and representatives from three annual conferences. We hosted the first annual conference on Theological Education and Clergy Health co-sponsored by the Center for Clergy and Congregational Health and Wholeness at Drew and the Center for Health of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. This three-day conference addressed issues of the current poor state of clergy health in relationship to Theological Education in order to begin to understand the impact of seminaries on students' health.

It was also my pleasure to host the September 2012 Theological Conference at Drew entitled, The Future of Christian Spirituality and Interreligious Interaction in honor of Dr. Pyun, Sun Hwan. Over the course of the three days, an array of speakers from the U.S., Korea, and other countries engaged attendees and one another on topics such as "Interreligious Dialogue Versus Interreligious Theology," "The Future of Comparative Theology," and "Interreligious Theology, Liberation, and the Church."

It was also a great pleasure to welcome alumni/ae back to campus for the Tipple Vosburgh lectures in the fall. This year's topic was "Faith, Race, and Politics" which provided opportunities to hear the voices and visions of activists, scholars, and church leaders responding to this unique and timely dilemma.

Creative, cutting-edge, inclusive, multi-cultural, social justice ministry is part of the legacy of Drew, and I am proud to be associated with it! Below are just a few other ministries that make me proud to be associated with Drew.

Building up the United Methodist Connection

I have enjoyed meeting Bishops and many Boards of Ordained Ministry to convey our desire at Drew to be a resource to the entire denomination. I am particularly pleased that Drew is hosting a January Term class taught by UM Bishops. This past January, Bishop Peggy Johnson of the Eastern PA and Peninsula Delaware Conference, taught a class entitled, Topics in Pastoral Care: Disabilities and the Church. Her class led worship recently in chapel and shared just how important this course was in forming a compassionate, inclusive and prophetic vision for the church. In January of 2014, Bishop Jane Middleton will teach a class on Ministry and Health.

United Methodist Liaison at Drew

The Rev. Jeff Markay continues to work with our UM students by introducing them to the leaders and resources within our denomination. He helps them navigate the process toward commissioning and ordination as well as with issues of discernment. We have monthly UM Lunches to meet with bishops, and leaders of the general agencies, conferences and connection.

United Methodist Deacon Liaison at Drew

We are also grateful to have the Rev. Susan Worrell as the Deacon Liaison on campus who shares resources and wisdom with those hearing a call to the Ministry of the Deacon in the UMC.

Bishop in Residence: Bishop Ernest Lyght

It was with great joy and excitement that I announced the appointment of Retired Bishop Ernest S. Lyght as the Bishop-in-Residence at the Theological School beginning March 1, 2013. I anticipate this appointment to continue until 2015. In this position, Bishop Lyght will teach and mentor students and be a presence on campus.

National Shalom Ministry of the UMC

Communities of Shalom, now in its 6th year at Drew, completed its curricular redevelopment of ShalomZone Training, which is now available through a cadre of certified national and regional trainers under the leadership of national director, the Rev. Dr. Michael Christensen.

Center for Clergy and Congregational Health and Wholeness

In October 2012 Dean Ginny Samuel made a presentation to members of the AUMTS (Deans and Presidents of the 13 United Methodist Seminaries) about the state of clergy health. She was accompanied by a staff person from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Anne Borish, and together they invited AUMTS members to participate in the longitudinal study. While there was a unanimous support for this study, thus far Drew and Duke Divinity School are the two participating seminaries. We expect that more seminaries will join the study in the coming years. This collaborative effort will support efforts to make needed changes in the structures and programs of an MDiv degree to encourage and support students' attention to their own health and well-being.

In February we launched the Seminary to Ministry longitudinal study in partnership with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. This study will track MDiv students during their time in seminary and for the first five years in ministry. Results of the survey will be helpful to faculty in its revision of the MDiv curriculum as it informs them about the realities of student health and well-being while they are at Drew.

We at Drew look forward to working with the good and faithful people of the UMC as we forge deeper friendships in the shared ministry of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY2012-2013 Academic Year Report

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, GA, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of six historically African American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of the United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Religious Education, the Master of Arts in Church Music, the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) in Pastoral Counseling, and the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.). There are also a number of dual degree programs offered in cooperation with seminaries and schools in the Atlanta Theological Association. Admission is open to qualified men and women of the United Methodist Church.

Because of the support of this Annual Conference, Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for the United Methodist Church. Included below are just a few of the examples of how this great historic institution of the church has lived out its mission and furthered its vision:

- 1) In last year's report to this Annual Conference, we shared the great news of Gammon enrolling its largest entering class on record in the fall of 2011. This record was shattered as Gammon enrolled an even larger first year class in the fall of 2012. In fact, under the leadership of the current President, Dr. Albert D. Mosley, Gammon has experienced over an 80% increase in enrollment, and the average age of entering students continues to be younger and younger. Gammon is privileged to serve as a training ground for the next generation of prophetic leaders who will engage in the process of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
- 2) In August of 2012, Gammon hosted its first ever Racial Justice Institute. The Racial Justice Institute is a component of the Gammon Center for the Study of Religion and Race (a program funded by a generous grant from the General Commission on Religion and Race). Over 35 college students, professors, social activists, and community leaders from around the country gathered on Gammon's campus for a week-long intensive immersion experience that explored issues of health care reform, unemployment, affordable housing, immigration policy, and marriage/gender equality. The Racial Justice Institute concluded with a very successful Immigration Reform Rally on the steps of the Georgia State Capitol using GCORR's theme – "Drop the I-Word: No Child of God is Illegal." The Racial Justice Institute enabled Gammon to continue its great work of addressing issues of cultural competency, advocacy and education in areas that further racial justice and equity.
- 3) This past fall, in advance of the 2012 Presidential Election, Gammon launched a comprehensive Voter Registration/Voter Education Campaign in the Atlanta University Center. This campaign enabled Gammon students to register students at Morehouse College, Spelman College, Clark-Atlanta University, and the Interdenominational Theological Center. In addition to registering to over 500 previously unregistered college students, Gammon also sponsored a series of Issues Sessions that were designed to enlighten voters about the prevalent social, political, and economical issues in advance of them participating in the election process.

Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Perkins received positive evaluations from all three of our accrediting bodies during the past year: The Association of Theological Schools, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and University Senate of The United Methodist Church.

New faculty and staff members are strengthening our mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry. D. Max Whitfield was named Bishop in Residence for 2012-2016 while Dr. Brad R. Braxton joined our faculty as Lois Craddock, Perkins Professor of Homiletics and Dr. James Kang Hoon Lee joined our faculty as assistant professor of the History of Early Christianity. Dr. Arlene Sánchez Walsh, associate professor in the Graduate School of Theology at Azusa Pacific University, was 2012-2013 visiting professor. Dr. Mark W. Stamm, Christian Worship, and Dr. Rebekah Miles, Ethics and Practical Theology, were promoted to full professor. Rev. Connie Nelson was selected as director of Public Affairs and Alumni Relations, and Dr. Rebecca Frank Bruff became director of our Center for Religious Leadership. Dr. Ruben Habito, professor of World Religions and Spirituality, was named Interim Coordinator of the Spiritual Formation and Spiritual Direction programs, an administrative transition shifting these important responsibilities to a highly qualified full-time faculty member.

Searches for new faculty members in the fields of History of Christianity and Christian Theology have resulted in candidates with exceptional promise, and we anticipate filling those positions for the start of the 2013-2014 academic year.

Our 2012 entering class has a median age of 29 – the first time in nearly a decade that the median age has been under 30. Among all Perkins students, more than two-thirds are United Methodist and more than one-third are persons of color. The Doctor of Ministry program continues to grow with new cohorts of students from southern Asia taking classes in Singapore and in Dallas. Our Ph.D. program, one of only two highly rated doctoral programs among the 15 at SMU, includes two Latino Ph.D. students supported through a grant from the Luce Foundation to Perkins' Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions.

To be sure, Perkins is not immune from the challenges faced by schools of theology and seminaries across the United States. However, we are blessed with gifted faculty and staff members, inspiring students, beautiful facilities, and vibrant ministries. We thank our many colleagues, friends, and alumni/ae across the connection for continuing generous support, including referrals of prospective students.

William B. Lawrence, Dean & Professor of American Church History

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

This is an exciting time at SMU, as the University celebrates the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915. Highlights of recent and current developments follow:

- SMU's total fall 2012 enrollment was 10,893, including 6,249 undergraduates and 4,644 graduate students. Ethnic minority students made up 24.7 percent of total enrollment and 27 percent of undergraduate enrollment. A record number of 1,282 international students came from 89 foreign countries.
- SMU consistently ranks in the top one-fourth of the "best national universities" in U.S. News & World Report rankings. In the 2013 report, SMU ranks 58 among 280 national universities, an increase of four points from the previous year.
- SMU's external awards for research and sponsored projects have increased significantly. During 2011-12, SMU received $22.4 million for research and sponsored projects throughout the U.S. and worldwide on six continents.
- SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign, launched in 2008, is the largest fund-raising effort in the University's history, with a goal of $750 million. At campaign midpoint in 2012, gifts totaling $664.8 million are providing funds for 231 scholarships; 23 endowed academic positions; 17 academic program endowments, including support for two schools and one academic department; and 16 new or renovated facilities.
- SMU's Residential Commons Complex, currently under construction, includes five new residence halls and a dining facility. Completion in 2014 will enable SMU to implement a residency requirement for sophomores along with first-year students. The halls will include classrooms and faculty accommodations.
- A new general education curriculum for undergraduates, implemented in fall 2012, is designed to prepare students for the demands of an increasingly interconnected global society, with emphasis on ethics and engaged learning programs. Undergraduate students participate in scholarly research, civic engagement, professional internships and creative activity related to education goals.
- The George W. Bush Presidential Center, opening at SMU in April 2013, consists of the Library, Museum and independent Institute. The Center will be a valuable source of research materials and is already sponsoring programs for scholars, students and visitors. Current Bush Institute programming includes a leadership development program for Egyptian women.
- Thomas B. Fomby, professor of economics in Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences, and Marcia K. Armstrong, associate dean for master's programs in Cox School of Business, have been elected to the Economic Advisory Committee of the United Methodist General Council on Finance and Administration.

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage, and we ask for your continued prayers and support.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of the United Methodist Church that educates leaders to make disciples for Jesus Christ, renew the Church, and transform the world. We are one institution with two campuses, in Kansas City and in Oklahoma City.

During the 2012-2013 academic year, 196 students from 12 annual conferences and 9 countries were enrolled in degree programs at Saint Paul School of Theology on both campuses. The Course of Study School at Saint Paul served 236 students at the Kansas City, Missouri, Springfield, Missouri, and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma locations. In November 2012, the Saint Paul School of Theology Board of Trustees voted to enter into an Agreement for Building Occupancy and Commitment to Collaborate between Saint Paul School of Theology/Kansas City and the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection. The agreement concluded a period of study and represents the seminary's vision to create a nationally recognized, vibrant, innovative locus of theological education aimed at preparing leaders for congregations and faith communities in the changing culture and emerging field of mission. It seeks to provide learning in the practice of ministry for both clergy and laity that are characterized by excellence. The Kansas City campus will move to Leawood, KS in the fall of 2013. The Oklahoma campus will remain at Oklahoma City University.

Twenty-four master's degree students and three doctoral students graduated from the Kansas City campus in May 2012. Six masters of divinity students graduated at the 2nd Commencement Convocation in Oklahoma in August 2012. The first graduates of the Seminary Lite program in Oklahoma also received certificates.

The 3rd Saint Paul Korean Doctor of Ministry cohort began this winter. This program is a partnership with Hyupsung University in Seoul, Korea.

Saint Paul School of Theology will host A Seminary Celebration: Looking Back, Looking Forward on April 25-26, 2013 on its Kansas City Truman Road Campus. LAFON NURSING HOME

Background:

On the day prior to Hurricane Katrina's visit to south Louisiana and the Gulf Coast in 2005, the Louisiana Conference held a special session regarding the sale of Lafon Nursing Home. Lafon Nursing Home was our 100 year old visible ministry in the 7th Ward of New Orleans that was organized and provided care primarily for African Americans in the community. It was established to do so when there were no other resources available for this segment of the population. It continued to provide quality ministry to these persons in that community with distinction over those many years. Due to changing times and circumstances it was determined that we were unable to provide this ministry in the future. The Conference voted to close the Home and to sell the property, while celebrating the ministry and those who had led this institution in its proud history.

With the visit of Hurricane Katrina, our plans were changed. The Home was destroyed and the property has been idle since that time.

During the intervening years, the Louisiana Conference has been working with Mr. Dan Brown, a United Methodist layman from Baton Rouge and an owner of several Nursing Homes. Mr. Brown assisted the Lafon Home prior to the decision to sell by providing guidance and oversight to the work of the Home during the previous years of discernment.

The process has been lengthy due in part to working through the regulations of both FEMA and the State of Louisiana as they oversee both the rebuilding of the destruction of Katrina and of the changes in the laws regulating the Nursing Home industry.

Action:

In November of 2012 the Louisiana Conference Board of Trustees, on behalf of the Louisiana Conference, approved the sale of Lafon Home to D-B Associates. The sum received will be up to $2 million. These funds will come to the Conference in this way: 1.) $300,000 was received at the time of closing; 2.) an additional $700,000 will be received at the beginning of construction, and 3.) the balance payable will be received upon the completion of the Project.

Payment of the sums described in 2 and 3 above are contingent upon FEMA continuing to support the project and funding its portion of the redevelopment costs. There may also be a reduction in the amount received if it is found that there are costs related to repayment of loans or other related costs that are the responsibility of the Louisiana Conference.

The Conference Board of Trustees and the Board of Directors of the Lafon Home are consulting on a plan for the use of the funds received from the sale. It is anticipated that a formal proposal for the use of the proceeds will be brought to the 2014 Session of the Louisiana Annual Conference for its consideration and approval.

Donald C. Cottrill

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

In the late 1800's a Methodist woman named Lydia Patterson answered God's call to ministry with the children of immigrant families crossing the US-Mexico border and settling in South El Paso, Texas. In October, 1913, the Methodist Church opened the doors of a school in memory of this woman, Lydia Patterson Institute. In 2013, one hundred years later, we celebrate the thousands of lives that have been touched and changed through the love of Christ and the vision of one Methodist lay woman. We rejoice in the celebration of 100 years of educating thousands of students, forming leaders for the church, breaking the cycle of poverty in countless families, and bringing Jesus Christ to generations of young men and women. Numerous activities are planned in celebration of Lydia Patterson's 100th Anniversary throughout the year, but the most thankful celebration is that of proudly claiming the definition of a true ministry of the United Methodist Church.

In the last few years, Lydia Patterson has seen the pain in the faces of students caught in the rage of drug wars, murder, and instability in their home town. Lydia Patterson has served as their safe haven in a world of violence. By the grace of God, this past year has begun to see a more peaceful neighboring city of Juarez, Mexico. In a U.S. report, Juarez has dropped from being the most dangerous city in the world to number 19 in a list of 50. El Paso, on the other hand, has once more been rated as the 3rd safest city in the country.

As a result, our enrollment is back up to 430 students with a goal of 500 for the next school year. Parents are regaining their confidence, and many are returning to work. The need to continue to help these families more than ever, is evident. The number of scholarship students increased three-fold. We are grateful to the number of churches and friends that have stepped up and supported us with scholarship funds and apportionments for continued operations.

Last May, we graduated 81 students, all of which are in college today. The graduating class received $1.3 million in scholarships from United Methodist colleges and universities. Ninety-five percent of our graduating students are going to college.

In 1913, when Mr. Patterson gave $75,000 to the Methodist church to build Lydia Patterson, he asked that boys be trained to lead the Hispanic churches springing along the Rio Grande. The school opened its Ministerial Program. Many of the pastors leading churches in the Rio Grande Conference received their training here, including an Episcopal bishop. Today, Lydia Patterson trains young men and women through its Student Lay Ministry Program. Students serve in internships in local churches while at Lydia Patterson and while attending college. Many have chosen to pursue their calling by moving on to seminary.

Lydia Patterson is looking forward to its second 100 years. In preparation, it is engaged in a capital campaign to renovate its campus and equip it with the latest state of the art technology. Classrooms are being renovated. Student services will be enriched with a new media and research center and computer and science labs. New dining and fine arts facilities will be built, including a new chapel where students will be able to worship together.

The board of trustees has pledged its total commitment to the campaign. One-hundred percent of the faculty and staff have pledged to the campaign and students, alumni and parents are equally committed. The El Paso community has joined the South Central Jurisdiction and will be remembered as the creators of the legacy of the second one hundred years of "La Lydia".

Our appreciation goes out to every member of this conference, the bishop and all those who join us to prepare for the next 100 years and to continue to make a difference as we change lives and form disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Socorro de Anda, President

LOUISIANA UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES

Never in Louisiana's history has the child welfare system been more complicated. Nor has change of this magnitude ever been compressed into such a short period of time.

In March of 2012 the Department of Health and Hospitals initiated the Louisiana Behavioral Health Partnership for all mental health services and the Coordinated System of Care for children in or at-risk of being placed away from their families. Simply stated, Louisiana has created a managed, behavioral health care system designed to coordinate the treatment services provided to children.

Regulations which created the Coordinated System of Care required that Louisiana Methodist Children's Home in Ruston, Methodist Children's Home of Southwest Louisiana in Sulphur, and Methodist Home for Children of Greater New Orleans in Mandeville each became licensed by Louisiana's Department of Health and Hospitals. Because we care for more than 16 children at each location, our children's homes are now licensed as psychiatric residential treatment facilities.

During 2012 we took advantage of the opportunities these regulations offered us to increase the intensity of the residential services we provide children in Ruston, Sulphur, and Mandeville. Examples of how we have made good use of the new licenses are that we now have one direct care worker present with every three residents, we offer around the clock nursing and we perform all routine medical care on site. We have significantly increased the number of individual and group therapy hours our residents receive.

Of course, to achieve this increase in intensity of care required additional staff. As I write this report, we now have 479 employees. By the end of March 2013, we anticipate having 500 staff members working across Louisiana to care for children and families. The employees of Louisiana United Methodist Children and Family Services represent the hands of the Church doing active ministry to children and families throughout Louisiana.

In addition to enhancing our residential services, we expanded our community-based services with the addition of a new MultiSystemic Therapy (MST) team in the Lake Charles region. We are supported by University United Methodist Church in Lake Charles which offers office space for our MST therapists. These therapists provide treatment designed to keep families together throughout the southwest Louisiana region.

Other home and community-based services included the Family Counseling Center in Ruston, MST programs in Monroe and Shreveport, the Outdoor Wilderness Learning Center, Howard School (the only alternative school in Lincoln Parish and located on the grounds of Louisiana Methodist Children's Home), the Allen Career Center (a vocational education center where our children in Ruston receive training and certificates in barbering, welding and construction), Family Plus Centers in Monroe, Shreveport, Pineville, and Natchitoches, and the Transitional Living Program in Monroe for older adolescents who are transitioning to independence.

With the support of United Methodists in Louisiana, we provide care to children who have the deepest needs. We minister to children whose needs are too complex for other settings, children who are shunned by their communities, and children whose responses to the trauma of abuse are often self-destructive.

All our services continue to be fully accredited by both the Council on Accreditation and the United Methodist Association's EAGLE Commission. Our EAGLE Accreditation is with Commendation, a status achieved so far by only two United Methodist agencies anywhere in the world.

We invite you to follow our ministries throughout the year by visiting our web site, <http://www.LMCH.org>, reading our blog: <http://www.LMCH.org/blog>, and by following us on Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/LUMCFS>

Finally, I thank you all for loving the Home and for actively supporting our ministries to Louisiana's children and families. As I ask every chance I have, please pray for our Board of Directors, pray for our staff across Louisiana, and especially pray for the children and families who receive our care, that they might experience the incredible grace of God for healing and peace.

- Due to the change to a non-medical group home the residents now receive therapy off campus.
- We continued fundraising and sent out appeals for Easter, Summer, Back-to-School, and Christmas.
- The 28th Annual Volunteer Activist Gala was held in August 2012.
- The Board has been redeveloped and is much more active.

B. Goals that are a priority for the upcoming year

- Development of a strategic marketing plan.
- Development of a strategic plan for the Agency.
- Continuation of financial solvency.
- Increase community giving; pursue options for additional fundraisers.
- Evaluation and planning for the effective and efficient use of buildings.

C. Concerns and challenges facing board or agency

The primary challenge that will face both the Board and the Agency this year will be the ability to adjust to the ever-changing needs and requirements of the State. As the State moves to a Coordinated System of Care (CSoc), the Agency will have to make decisions about how large or small we will be and whether or not we will be able to make the necessary adjustments to become a Psychiatric Residential Treatment Facility (PRTF) or a Therapeutic Group Home (TGH) and offer outpatient therapy services.

D. Items for action/vote by the Annual Conference

NORTH RAMPART COMMUNITY CENTER

The mission of North Rampart Community Center (NRCC) is to support the needs of Women, Children, and Families throughout New Orleans by providing academic, social, health, and cultural learning opportunities to enable and strengthen their personal growth and development.

In 2012 NRCC After School program continues to have a positive impact on many New Orleans families, young adults, teens, and children. The After School enrollment was 204 this year. We provided daily homework assistance, tutoring, mentoring and recreation. Once or twice a week we were able to provide computer, art, and swimming classes, depending on the volunteers. The After School program provided services for students from schools throughout the city (the surrounding area, uptown, and lower ninth ward). RCC volunteers once again came from our local Colleges/Universities (Xavier, Delgado, Loyola, Dillard, SUNO, and UNO) we also had a retired teacher, two engineers and other local professionals to volunteer occasionally. Second Harvesters food bank provided daily snacks and hot meals for the program. In addition to our daily meals the local United Methodist Churches (UMW) are still blessing our agency with Friday Fellowship meals.

NRCC Summer Camp 2012 was a great success with an enrollment of 80 students. During our eight week summer camp we were able to employ six Instructors for the following areas: Computer, Reading, Arts & Crafts, Dance and two Lifeguards/Water Safety Instructors for the swimming classes. A short two week Music class was added towards the end of camp for children who were interested.

In the Computer class students were taught basic computer skills. They used the Mavis Beacon typing program to improve their typing skills and speed. They were also taught to develop and present weekly power point presentations.

In Arts & Crafts class students were taught how to use primary colors to create color schemes with crayons and paint. They made crafts using paper, card board, and wooden sticks. They were also taught the art of making jewelry (rings, bracelets, and necklaces).

In swimming classes the students were taught basic fundamentals: rhythmic breathing, front float, back float, gliding, kicking, and a variety of strokes (free style, back stroke, elementary back stroke, side stroke, breast stroke, and butterfly stroke.)

In Dance the students were introduced to different dance styles (hip hop, modern, and ballet). The Music class utilized students who had taken beginners music lessons. They were taught to read and play New Orleans Style Jazz.

NRCC is truly blessed to be one of the United Methodist Women's National Mission Institutions. We are so very grateful and thankful for all the support we receive whenever we are in need. We are also blessed consistently by the Louisiana Conference, the New Orleans District, groups, and individuals locally and nationally who support our programs throughout the year. I can't thank you enough for all your prayers, support, gift given, bake sales, white elephant sales, luncheons, fundraisers and allowing me to come and share with you how your generosity is helping to shape and alter lives at our center.

Our Volunteer housing is still up and running with 20 beds, six showers and a full kitchen. We housed retired clergy, church groups, Universities/College groups, and mission's work teams.

Our Future Goals.....

- To hire year round teachers.
- Re-start our Music program.

- Secure funding to purchase a new van to transport students.

MINISTERS' EMERGENCY AID FUND

The Ministers' Emergency Aid Fund is supported by Conference ministers who voluntarily contribute one-half of one percent of their base salary annually. We recommend the following guidelines for the Ministers' Emergency Aid Fund:

1. That each minister under appointment in the Louisiana Annual Conference be asked to give an amount equal to one-half of one percent of the minister's base salary for 2013 to the Ministers' Emergency Aid Fund (line 5030 on the Conference Remittance Sheet).
2. That this fund be used to provide emergency benefit aid to the ministers of the Louisiana Conference and their immediate families who may be in special need; and that this emergency aid be given subject to the following limitations:
 - a. The maximum amount allowed for a single emergency shall be $1,000.
 - b. Exceptional situations may be given special considerations by the Cabinet.
 - c. Only one grant will be provided to any individual in any 12 month period.
3. That each pastor and local church be requested to provide an adequate medical insurance program for family participation.

In 2012, income received totaled $14,459.36. Twelve thousand seven hundred dollars ($12,700) was distributed in 2012 for grants to 12 different clergy families.

W. Ralph Ford, Cabinet Secretary

THE CENTER FOR PASTORAL EXCELLENCE

Tell me, what are you going to do with your one wild and precious life?

Poet, Mary Oliver

Now that the Lilly Grant experience has passed and the Conference has been assessing and prioritizing its focus, The Center for Pastoral Excellence has undergone several adjustments in programming. As a part of the Conference ministry through conversations with the Bishop, Cabinet, clergy and laity, The Center is beginning those conversations to reprioritize its focus and examine how to best serve and support the Conference goals and intentions.

Recently, JustPeace Center for Mediation and Conflict Transformation*, a United Methodist resource housed in Washington, DC., hired me as part of their team. With limited time and resources, The Center is exploring the questions: With its limited resources, how can the Center be most helpful and useful to the ministry of the Louisiana Conference? With its resources, what are the Conference's greatest needs that the Center can help address? How can the Center have the greatest positive impact on and the deepest service to our Conference? How can the Center best cultivate ministry excellence in the current culture? All these questions are held in relationship to its mission: To assist ministers and congregations as they/we cultivate and nurture ministry excellence.

As The Center has these conversations, we will continue many of the ministries already offered. Some of those include: 1) Through the BOM, ministry with the RIM 1, 2 and 3 (monthly meetings and two overnight retreats); 2) Abbey Retreat for RIMs and other Clergy, 3) Webinar--this year it is led by Dr. Alyce McKenzie, professor of preaching and worship from Perkins School of Theology, SMU. The title of this year's webinar is: What Not To Say: Avoiding the Common Mistakes that Can Sink Your Sermon; 4) The Choice in Conflict Transformation in Congregations: Helping clergy and leadership to deal with conflict and anxiety constructively; 5) Clergy Peer Group; 6) Transitions Seminar for clergy and families changing appointments entitled Manna for the Journey; 7) Living and Leading in an I-Thou Way; and 8) Being a resource for our ministers, congregations and Cabinet as needed. This list is a sample of the ministries offered through the Center. In addition, coaching for clergy, discernment and visioning for congregations, team building for staff and conflict transformation intervention for congregations are some of the individual ministries offered through the Center.

As these discerning conversations unfold, I am anticipating a bright future. For what has been, we give thanks; for what will be, we wait with anticipation. In the words of the poet Emily Dickerson, We "dwell in possibilities." All shall be well

Thank you for your support of the ministry of The Center for Pastoral Excellence in the past and your continued support of this ministry into the future. Thank you! May God bless you.

THE ACADEMY FOR SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP

The Academy for Spiritual Leadership (ASL) takes seriously the Louisiana Annual Conference's mission to raise up Spiritual Leaders both clergy and lay. The Academy began in 1997 under the Direction of Rev. Carole Cotton Winn. During her 16-year ministry almost 575 persons were served through ASL programs of enrichment. Approximately 125 of these participants are currently trained in Spiritual Direction. Many have gone on to enroll in seminary.

In July 2012 Rev. Frances Hooton became the second Director of the Academy for Spiritual Leadership. Rev. Hooton spends about two-thirds of her time working with the Academy and the other third of her time is spent pastoring Eros and Antioch United Methodist Churches in the Monroe District. The past two years have been a time of re-visioning and refocusing our energy as an Annual Conference. As we lean gently into the future, here is what the ASL plans for 2014:

The Path of Spiritual Direction and Christian Formation in the Congregation - This two-year process, taught in six sessions, began a new class in October 2012. Currently there are 16 participants and four small group leaders meeting together to become trained Spiritual Directors. This is seminary level work. Dr. Wendy Miller leads five retreats and Dr. Dwight Judy leads one of the retreats. Our Annual Conference is in the forefront in this area. The 2014 budget includes the final two retreats of this current class of participants and the first retreat for the 2014-2016 class.

The Discerner's Academy is added to the ASL budget proposal for the first time. In the past, this program was funded by the Bishop's Society.

The ASL works with the Board of Ordained Ministry to enlist and recruit a new generation of Spiritual Leaders who are called for representative ministry in the church. The Awakening Retreat for 16 to 20 year olds and the Discerner's Academy provide opportunities for people to gather, study, serve and worship with others who are in a season of discernment about what God is calling them to do. These retreats offer opportunities for young adults and lay people to learn the United Methodist process for becoming representative leaders and network with others who are beginning the process in this Annual Conference. This is an excellent setting for relationships of the connection to be formed and nurtured.

Contemplative Retreat - Each summer 40 men and women, both clergy and lay who have been a part of the Academy of Spiritual Leadership in the past have the opportunity to gather at St. Joseph Abby in Covington, Louisiana to nurture and nourish their souls with an extended period of silence with attention paid to praying the hours of the day. This is a time of reflection and renewal.

Fall Retreat - There are three types of Spiritual Disciplines: inward, outward and corporate Spiritual Disciplines.

- In 2012 the fall retreat focused on the inward spiritual discipline of prayer. 16 men and women journeyed to the Wesley Center to study different types of personal prayer practices and made a commitment to pray in 2013.
- In 2013 there will be a Fall Retreat focused on the external spiritual disciplines. According to Richard Foster they include simplicity, solitude, submission and service.
- In 2014 there will be a Fall Retreat focused on the corporate spiritual disciplines of confession, worship, guidance and celebration.

Spring Retreat - This retreat is an opportunity for Spiritual Directors to gain insight and deeper skills in leading people through specific Spiritual practices. These Spiritual practices deepen personal faith and when led corporately can shape the life of the local church and the Annual Conference.

- In April 2013 there will be a Labyrinth retreat. During this time people will learn about this ancient prayer walk and learn how to lead others in this Spiritual practice.
- In April 2014 there will be a Fasting retreat. During this time people will learn more about this Wesleyan Spiritual practice that has become more complicated in the U.S. over the past years.

5 Day Upper Room Academy of Spiritual Formation is almost 30 years old. In 2011, Rev. Donnie Wilkinson received a short-term grant from the UM Foundation to bring this retreat to The Wesley Center in Louisiana. The ASL 2014 budget proposes to provide the two honorariums for the guest speakers for the 2014 Retreat.

Frances J. Hooton, Director

LILLY GRANT

Purpose: Decisions related to the disbursement of the remaining funds in the Lilly Grant Account.

Background: the Louisiana Conference has an account with the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation (LAC723-Sustaining Pastoral Excellence-2) with a current balance of $263,464.29. These funds are the result of 1) funds remaining from the two Lilly Foundation grants awarded to the Louisiana Conference for the Sustaining Pastoral Excellence project and, 2) interest earned on these funds over the nine years of the program ($118,000 of the current amount). The funds were not requested to be returned to the Lilly Foundation as the conclusion of the project (ending in 2011). We allocated $40,000 from the account for salary and benefit support in 2013 for the Director of Sustaining Pastoral Excellence and the Administrative Assistant. This $40,000 has already been deducted from the original amount of $301,000, giving us the current balance.

The question was raised regarding the use of the funds in the future, with the specific concern for the Clergy Renewal Leave program. The Conference budget for 2013 does not include any funding of the Clergy Renewal Leave program. There is a feeling that this program should continue. There is likewise the need to maintain the staff at its current level; the Conference budget does not allow for all of the salary and benefit support needed for the two positions mentioned above.

The conversation centered on the need to maintain the two needs with the money that is available.

Decisions:

1. Approve the division of the current fund into two funds. Place $120,000 in an account for salary/benefits support for the two positions currently being supported, at the level of $40,000 per year for the next three years (2014-2016). Any additional increases in the salaries and benefits provided to the two positions included in this grant would be included in the Conference budget.
2. A second fund, with the balance of the current amount of $143,464.29 is to fund an endowment fund for Clergy Renewal Leaves with the Louisiana United Methodist Foundation. The interest from this fund would be available for a yearly clergy renewal leave, or leaves (depending on the amount available and the amount awarded for each renewal leave.) The normal amount of funding from the interest per year would be at a rate of 4%. The expectation is that the renewal leave account would grow over the years, and that this account would be publicized for possible donations in the future.
3. Wybra Price, Craig Gilliam, and Don Cottrill would be authorized to oversee the clergy renewal leave program. They are asked to assess the current guidelines for the program, and to consider options in the length of leaves and the amount of funding available for each leave.
4. The Clergy Renewal Leave program would begin awarding grants again in 2014.

The committee members feel that they have completed their work as a committee and do not see a need to continue.

Don Cottrill

WESLEY CENTER BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The mission of the Wesley Center is to provide a place for spiritual holiness, healing, and wholeness under the guidance of the Lord Jesus Christ.

We have continued to make substantial progress this year in paying off the debt on Phase I of our Long Range Development and the Board believes we are sight of getting the debt cleared. While we are continuing to study what projects will be a part of Phase II, until we have paid for Phase I we will not start additional work.

Our newest additions have provided more flexibility at the Center. The prayer labyrinth near the statute of Christ at the end of the trail is seeing extensive use, and the new smaller Chapel building near the head of the trail in the parking lot provides an additional indoor worship area for small groups

Our Executive Director Roseanne Gillespie has overseen a very busy and active year. The Wesley Center has been used by numerous church groups such as Cursillo, Happening, Academy for Spiritual Leadership, Discerner's, UMW, Conference Youth, the Cabinet just to list a few, as well as lots of outside groups. Last year started as one of our best years yet for finances and usage, but by the end of the year the economic uncertainty caught up with us as groups cancelled or came with smaller than anticipated numbers. While we are looking at low numbers for 2013, Roseanne and the Board are continuing to analyze where we can most efficiently utilize our resources. Our highest occupancy months continue to be February and October, with our least utilized months June, August, and December. For those of you looking to utilize the Center hopefully that will help with your planning.

Our goal remains to ultimately become a self-sustaining facility. However, we are not yet at a point where we can survive without the need for Conference apportionments. To reach our goal we definitely need our Conference and churches to continue to utilize our Center. So in closing we invite you to join us at the Wesley Center for your next event or to simply visit us if you are in the Alexandria area.

MOUNT SEQUOYAH CONFERENCE AND RETREAT CENTER

“Renewal” is the new mantra on the Mountain! Just as the United Methodist Church is taking its rightful place in the worldwide awakening of the Body of Christ so too is the Mount Sequoyah Conference and Retreat Center. The year 2012 marked the inaugural year for our transition from a facility that simply emphasizes Christian hospitality to a Premier United Methodist Conference and Resort Center that provides Relevant Training and Networking for United Methodist clergy and laity, 21st century Functionality and Amenities in event and lodging facilities, a Captivating Environment with walking trails and botanical gardens, and Purposeful Ownership driving honor and esteem for our institution.

As we embrace God’s Purpose for Mount Sequoyah in the 21st century, we continue to seek, welcome and gather visitors and guests from every generation, race, gender and religion. On the Mountain our guests enjoy an environment where they are both functionally and spiritually connected with God and nature. They come to Mount Sequoyah for lodging, business meetings, educational events, family reunions, weddings, recreation and spiritual growth. The 13,000 guests we served in our United Methodist Environment in 2012 included College Students, United Methodists, Corporate Leaders, Veterans, University Parents, Bikers, Educators and Families. Every guest, without exception, is surrounded by the icons and spiritual disciplines of our faith and with the hospitality we extend, they are introduced to United Methodist’s practices and principles, most notably John Wesley’s three simple rules... Do No Harm. Do Good. Stay in Love With God.

Mount Sequoyah Center ended the year with a substantial net income for the first time since 2006 and we want to thank the Louisiana Conference for the part you are playing in our success. In addition to the apportionments you offered, United Methodist utilization of the facilities provided $170,000 of our $1.5M revenue in 2012 with $1,000 coming directly from the Louisiana Conference. Finally, the state of Louisiana provided another $3,500 from 1 high school group and 20 university parents and individuals. And that’s not all. The Louisiana Conference is also providing us with tremendous leadership and council from Rev. Larry Norman, Rev. Dawn Young and Bishop Cynthia Harvey who are active, contributing members of the Mount Sequoyah Board of Trustees.

For many years the Louisiana Conference has sent tremendous volunteers to Mount Sequoyah bringing time, energy and a plethora of skills to groom and maintain the Mountain. We are eternally thankful for all you have done and want to impress upon you that if you haven’t been to the Mountain lately (or ever), now’s the time to engage. With a recently approved $300,000 matching grant from The United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas, our fundraising efforts have begun and we are moving forward to repurpose and renew the Mountain. The new vision for Mount Sequoyah is real and achievable and you will want to be a part of reclaiming the Louisiana ownership in this phenomenal institution.

Thank you Louisiana Conference. As we renew our Mountain and transform it into the Premier United Methodist Conference and Resort Center that is our future, your continued engagement will validate the strength of our established presence today and ensure the promise of a powerful future for the United Methodist Church in God’s plan for the transformation of the world.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Serving on the Louisiana Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (CBOM) has been a rewarding and deeply fulfilling experience personally, and I feel very humbled to be granted the opportunity. Through four years of serving as Dean of the License to Preach School to assuming the role of Board Chairperson, I have been blessed in several ways through:

- The opportunity, shared with all Board members, to practice a specific and critical facet of our common calling - cultivating representative and vocational ministry and facilitating the vital pursuit of excellence among us.
- The humbling experience of partnering with almost 70 Board members, who are clearly some of the most dedicated and gifted clergy and lay servants in our connection.
- The privilege to journey alongside an incredibly diverse group of remarkable individuals as they embrace each step of God’s call upon their life.

As we began a new quadrennium, replacing half the membership of the Board, we also began the transitional adjustment to a new edition of the United Methodist Book of Discipline. At a Boards of Ordained Ministry Quadrennial Training event, conducted by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, our leadership team was trained on the 2013 Discipline changes that impact the Board, and we have already made many adjustments to our procedures accordingly. A vital portion of our work as a Board and as an Annual Conference will involve living into the new United Methodist Discipline.

Another priority our Board is striving to achieve is a more seamless and intentionally cooperative relationship between the functions of the CBOM, the Bishop and the Cabinet. It is incredibly gratifying to witness our new Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey's shared commitment to this goal in action. Her leadership continues to inspire us to fresh hope and authentic challenge. I look forward to building upon this open communication and mutual trust as we strive toward a common vision of excellence and revival of Louisiana United Methodism.

A large amount of our work together has been and will continue to be driven by the pursuit of achieving greater effectiveness on the part of our clergy and lay leadership throughout the Louisiana Conference. The Effectiveness in Ministry document (EiM=C²), forged during the previous quadrennium, provides a great philosophical framework for defining character and competence, but will need to be distilled into applicable accountability measures. Strategies for implementing supportive accountability will require clear and equitable guidelines that produce results, both in strengthening effective leaders as well as addressing ineffectiveness. After initial trials, the Intentional Professional Development (IPD) process, also established in the previous quadrennium, has been shown to need improvements, and revision efforts are under way. Resources are available, and more are being explored, to foster improved effectiveness, and it is critical to develop effective assessment and procedural tools that can be uniquely and efficiently applied when necessary. Through whatever tools we adopt and apply, the goal remains the same – to achieve the highest standard of excellence in qualifying, credentialing, equipping and enhancing the effectiveness of United Methodist leadership across the state.

At the core of the Board's work are the intimate processes of approval and confirmation involved in leadership development. These responsibilities are performed by every member of the Board through their assignments to one of three Divisions: The Division of Elders, The Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers and The Division of Local Pastors and Associate Members. The leaders and members of these divisions give countless hours of travel, preparation and presence throughout the year. They do so with exemplary professionalism, discerning wisdom and supportive compassion. It is a tremendous privilege to partner with these committed men and women of integrity in this sacred work.

Finally, I wish to convey a special word of gratitude to Rev. John Edd Harper, the Coordinator of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. Since we are at the conclusion of the Lilly Grant, Rev. Harper is no longer required to make an official report related to his CBOM work, but a mention is well warranted here. Rev. Harper will be going into his tenth year of service to the CBOM supporting our continued growth toward excellence in ministry. He works diligently with the three Divisions within the CBOM as well as providing training for our District Committees on Ordained Ministry, Candidacy Mentors, Clergy Mentors, and Boundaries: A Sacred Trust. In 2014 he will facilitate a new Group Candidacy Mentoring process, a model which he has been researching since the previous quadrennium. Rev. Harper works closely with all of the servant leaders on the CBOM, serving as an encourager and resource person as needed. He enjoys the opportunity to support all of our candidates for ministry (discerners through ordination and beyond) as they move through the various ministry tracks within the CBOM. Rev. Harper's ministry responsibilities have been enlarging each year to now include coordinating our Certified Lay Minister process through a joint effort with the Board of Laity.

DIVISION OF ELDERS

I am humbled and honored to be submitting the first report of a new quadrennium on behalf of the Division of Elders of the Louisiana Annual Conference. I am also humbled and honored that the members of the Board of Ordained Ministry have entrusted me to serve as the chairperson of the Division for the new quadrennium. I take this honor very seriously and I am glad to serve our Conference in such a capacity. What excites me about serving in this position is that we have 25 ordained and lay members of our Division that take their responsibilities just as seriously. I continue to be blessed and encouraged to see the effort and integrity that each of them brings to the work of our Division. I am indebted to all of them as are our Provisional Elders and our entire Conference.

With a change in the quadrennium, there also came great change to the make-up of our Division. Only eight of our members from the previous quadrennium remained. The main focus of this first year has been to get our newest members acclimated to the process we follow in carrying out our work. In doing so, we have made it our ultimate goal to insure that the transition in the membership of our Division does not hinder, in any way, the experience of our Residents in Ministry on their journey to Ordination.

In October, I, along with the other key leaders of our Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, attended the Quadrennial Training of the General Board of Ministry in Dallas. It was very informative as to the Disciplinary changes to the process of Ordination. But what excited me the most about those 4 days I spent meeting with other Elders and Board Chairs from Conferences across the nation was to hear how the Louisiana Conference, and the process we follow, has become the model for so many other Conferences. Our Conference was lifted up as an example in so many ways and I was asked to share many aspects of our work in many different workshops. I came away so proud of our Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the excellent work we do.

I am also excited to report that in the many conversations and meetings that I have had with our new Bishop, Cynthia Fierro-Harvey, I have been overwhelmed at her commitment to and enthusiasm for the work our Division and our Board is carrying out. I am very much looking forward to working with her over this quadrennium to insure that the Louisiana Conference is ordaining our best and our brightest to serve the mission of the United Methodist Church in our Conference and throughout the world.

We continue to fine-tune our process in the Division of Elders which will include the addition of a missional project in the second Residential year, possible additional psychological evaluation, visiting our students in their seminary settings, and a stronger relationship with our Center for Pastoral Excellence facilitated by Dr. Craig Gilliam.

The Division of Elders, along with our Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, is one of, if not the hardest working Boards in our Conference. I am honored and blessed to be a part of this work and I solicit the prayers and support of every United Methodist in Louisiana as we do this work.

DIVISION OF DEACONS AND DIACONAL MINISTERS

It has been my pleasure and honor to serve on the Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers of the LA Conference of the United Methodist Church. It is a pleasure working with individuals who gave of their time, treasure as servants of God. Serving with this group is a once in a lifetime experience. I thank God for this experience and opportunity.

The Division of Deacons is a support group of deacons and clergy providing service to the local church and beyond. Diaconal Ministers, clergy and lay people are also looked upon as a serving support group for the United Methodist Church. Deacons and Diaconal Ministers are similar in that they both are serving ministries.

According to the 2012 Book of Discipline, deacons from among the baptized are called by God to a lifetime of servant leadership, authorized by the Church, and ordained by the bishop. Deacons fulfill servant ministries in the world and lead the Church in relating the gathered life of Christians to their ministries in the world, interrelating worship in the gathered community with service to God in the world. Deacons give leadership in the Church's life: in teaching and proclaiming the Word; in contributing to worship and in assisting the elders in administering the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper; Preaching; informing and nurturing disciples; in conducting marriages and burying the dead; in embodying the Church's mission to the world; and in leading congregations in interpreting the needs, concerns, and hopes of the world. Further, the Book of Discipline empowers deacons in both person and function to embody, articulate and lead the whole people of God in its servant ministry. Deacons in their leadership responsibilities have evolved over the years.

Deacons are the bridge between the local church and the community. We are to take the church to the community and the community to the church. We have a broken and dying community that is desperate to be free and hear the good news of the gospel.

As stated in the 2012 Book of Discipline the Deacon has evolved in United Methodism over many years with the continuing of the Deaconess and the Diaconal Minister. Their gifts and their work are very important to us. Diaconal Minister is no longer a current option in our conference. Our Diaconal Ministers are required to interview before the division each quadrennium.

We often state that a Deacon may serve beyond the local setting of the church. They may serve in United Methodist agencies, local congregation, Hospice care chaplain, attorney and the nursing field.

As members of the Order of the Deacons, all deacons in full connection are in covenant with all other Deacons in the Louisiana Annual Conference and shall participate in the life of the order.

The division of Deacons is in a good place and all the business of the division is being taken care of.

We provide our candidates with an atmosphere that is conducive to the Deacon process. Currently we have two possible Deacons in full connection (third year RIM) who are up for Ordination. Two possible Provisional Deacons: one Deacon is in her second year (RIM) process and one Deacon in the first year (RIM) process.

No one knows the future; however, those of us who are a part of the division, hope and pray that God will continue to bless us and encourage others to accept the call if and when God touches their heart to become a Deacon in full connection.

DIVISION OF LOCAL PASTORS & ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

2012-13 has been a year of transition for the Division of Local Pastors and Associate Members. In addition to welcoming new members and new leadership for the 2013-16 quadrennium, we made some changes to how we conduct our business.

Addressing feedback we have received from local pastors and division members over the past few years, we have moved from a three-day model of spring interviews to a five-day model. By moving our interviews closer (in most cases) to where our local pastors and associate members live and work, we have made the interview process more accessible to those who are bi-vocational and part-time. Complementing this was lengthening the time allowed for each interview from 30 minutes to 45 minutes, as well as increasing the amount of time each interview team had to prepare for the day. In undertaking these two changes, we also were able to divide the work among the division members in such a way that we were able to be more attentive to each interviewee. The members of the division would like to thank the pastors and staff of First UMC in Shreveport, First UMC in Monroe, First UMC in Baton Rouge, and St. Timothy-on-the-Northshore in Mandeville for helping facilitate our new schedule. We also extend our thanks to the staff of the Wesley Center for hosting us on Wednesday. Based on evaluations from those we interviewed, members of the division, and members of the appointive cabinet, it seems this change has worked out even better than expected.

This year's spring interviews included 101 scheduled interviews with many truly amazing men and women spreading the gospel to the people of Louisiana through our churches and extension ministries, and we were honored to share time with each of them.

As part of our conference-wide emphasis on excellence in ministry through character and competence, we expanded our interviews to include conversation about how our local pastors' participation in the Course of Study Schools offered through various seminaries has enhanced the pastor's work within their ministry setting. We cannot emphasize enough to our local churches the important role that their pastor's course of study work plays in their pastoral ministry, and encourage church leadership to continue to offer support and encouragement to any pastor who must, as part of their appointed ministry, successfully complete their requirements within the course of study within their specified timeframe. Members of the division will be visiting each school at some point in the quadrennium to connect with our students and interface with the staff and faculty of each school to strengthen and deepen our partnership.

Over the next year, we will continue to seek excellence through our time together as we live into our second year together by building upon our work of the last year, and finding ways to make our processes as effective as possible.

We thank Bishop Fierro Harvey and her cabinet for their support of our work, and look forward to working with them to strengthen the ministries of our local pastors and associate members. A word of appreciation also goes to Rev. John Robert Black and Rev. Pam Roy for their leadership of the License to Preach School, which is the first educational stop for those entering the local pastor process. Additionally, we want to express our gratitude to Rev. John Edd Harper for his work as the Coordinator of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, and to Rev. Pattye Hewitt for her leadership of the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members. Through their excellence in their specific roles, Rev. Harper and Rev. Hewitt have had a great impact on our work within the division and to our pastors.

ORDER OF ELDERS

The Order of Elders is *"a covenant community within the church to mutually support, care for, and hold accountable its members for the sake of the life and mission of the church."*³ The Order fulfilled its purpose in the following way in 2012-2013:

- Sponsored the second annual Labor Day Family picnic at The Wesley Center for the purpose of creating space for elders and their families to deepen existing relationships and make new ones.
- Cosponsored the inaugural Clergy Bible Camp April 7-9, 2013 with Dr. Jaime Clarke-Soles who facilitated an in depth Bible study of the Gospel of John.

In the upcoming year, and for the remainder of this quadrennia, the focus of the Order of Elders will be to facilitate the growth of a vibrant, life-giving covenant community that strengthens, nurtures, and deepens our relationships with God and with each other and that equips us for authentic, transformative spiritual leadership. To this end the Order of Elders will:

- Sponsor the annual Labor Day Picnic at the Wesley Center Monday, September 2.
- Host the Order of Elder Retreat October 7-10, 2013 at The Wesley Center. Our speaker will be Daniel Wolpert, Director of the Micah Institute (www.micahprays.org). The theme of the retreat will be Practices for Spiritual Leadership and will feature ample time for silence, prayer, and spiritual practice.

We encourage all Elders to make their devotional life a priority and to seek out fellow clergy members with whom they can be in open, honest, and vulnerable covenant relationship with.

Donald L. Wilkinson, Chair

ORDER OF DEACONS

The Order of Deacons is a covenant community striving to support, care for, and hold each other accountable for the sake of the life and mission of the church. We solicit the continuing prayers of the church as we live out our individual and collective identity and vocation.

Highlights:

- Twenty Deacons and one Diaconal Minister met at the Wesley Center with our new Bishop on October 1, 2012. What an honor and blessing it was to meet with Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey as she was getting acquainted with the Louisiana Annual Conference. The Bishop encouraged those present to take the initiative in educating other clergy and laity regarding the scope of ministry of those in the Order of Deacons while faithfully living into our calling to connect the church and the world.
- In 2011 the Order of Deacons adopted a Rule of Life, or sacred covenant, with one another, seeking growth in accountability as well as mutual nurture in personal spirituality and ministry. Many met for a time of retreat on September 30, 2012, at the Wesley Center to prayerfully reflect upon the implementation of the Rule in our lives and ministries.

³ ¶ 306 2012 Book of Discipline

- The annual Deacon/Diaconal Breakfast Meeting was held on June 5, 2012, during Annual Conference. Four persons were recognized to be ordained Deacon in full connection with the Conference: Lauren Frazier-McGuin, Herbert Willard McGuin, III, Cheryl Shannon Sandifer, and Dianne Piper Wooden. We also introduced one new provisional deacon, Linda Katherine Broderick. We celebrated the ministries of Patricia Bates and Rita Chaisson as they entered retired status.

Future Goals:

- Seek new ways to build community within the order including use of the Deacons' Page on the Louisiana Annual Conference website, and possibly regional small group gatherings for fellowship and support.
- Investigate opportunities to collaborate with Orders of Deacons in neighboring annual conferences for the purpose of education, fellowship, and service projects.
- Identify the unique challenges faced by those whose appointments are outside of the local church and those unable to secure paid positions in a local church.
- Pursue clarity concerning the roles, responsibilities, and relationships of ordained Deacons within the churches of the Louisiana Annual Conference in order to enhance the effectiveness of our shared ministries to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world

Attending were the late Rev. Robert Chance, Rev. Carol Richardson and Rev. Pattye Hewitt. The workshop was led by author and leadership consultant Dr. Lovett Weems. Dr. Lovett Weems had some words of wisdom for the group: “Leadership is not about the leader - leadership is helping God’s people take the next faithful step.”

On Saturday, March 9th, the Fellowship sponsored ‘An Afternoon with Bishop Cynthia Harvey’ at the Wesley Center. Forty-two persons were in attendance for this joyful time of sharing and conversing with our Episcopal leader and with one another.

All are invited to attend the annual LP & AM breakfast on Monday, June 3 at 7:00 am in the Whited Room on the Campus of Centenary College. Tickets are $10.00 per person. CARE AND NURTURE TEAM

Policy Number 101

Clergy Counseling Funds

The uses of the clergy counseling funds are overseen by the Care and Nurture Chairperson of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry of the Louisiana Annual Conference. The fund is to be used for the confidential psychological therapy needs of the clergy under appointment and their spouse, and/or dependent children of the Louisiana Conference. As deemed necessary, the CBOM may recommend the use of these funds for clergy within our conference when they may not be under appointment.

The funding is $300 per clergy and/or their family members per each request. The clergy or family member is to make request for funds in writing to the Care and Nurture chairperson, and to include the name, address, and phone number of the licensed therapist for whom they are requesting payment. Payment is made directly from the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry to the therapist. The Care and Nurture Chairperson keeps the names of those being counseled in absolute confidence. The records of the persons helped through this fund are to be kept by the Care and Nurture Chairperson only for the year in which funds are received. At the end of the year, all records of names of those helped are destroyed.

No clergy person or family member will be reimbursed directly. Only providers of licensed psychotherapeutic services will be paid for services rendered.

The amount paid in any given instance may be increased at the discretion of the Care and Nurture Chairperson, in consultation with the Chairperson of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. The maximum amount of $1,200.00 will be offered per clergy or clergy family per calendar year. The Care and Nurture Chairperson will keep the names in confidence but may speak of the factors which are suggesting the increase.

After consultation with the Chairperson of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, the Care and Nurture Chairperson has the discretion to authorize funding for alternative types of counseling such as life coaching, nutritional counseling, etc.

Policy Adopted by Care and Nurture Team on May 10, 2005

Policy Approved by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry on January 24, 2006

Policy revisions adopted and approved June 3, 2012

Who may receive the grants? Clergy of the Louisiana conference and/or their immediate family members.

How much is the grant? Grants are for up to $300 per request.

How do I apply for the grant?

Include the name, address, and credentials (the letters behind the name) of the licensed mental health professional for which you are requesting payment. Payment is made directly to the provider. Include the detailed address to which you, the applicant, want your letter of confirmation sent. (Some clergy prefer correspondence sent to their church, while others want information sent to their home or other location.) Please specify your choice in your letter of request to the CBOM Care & Nurture Chair to help the process go smoothly.

No clergy person or family member will be reimbursed directly. Only providers of licensed psychotherapeutic services will be paid for services rendered. The maximum amount of $1,200.00 will be offered per clergy or clergy family per calendar year. After consultation with the Chairperson of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, the Care and Nurture Chairperson has the discretion to authorize funding for alternative types of counseling such as life coaching, nutritional counseling, etc.

How is my name kept confidential? The name of the applicant does not go beyond the letter requesting the grant, and is kept absolutely confidential as the process is implemented. The grant is requested through the CBOM Coordinator and Treasurer to be sent to the provider (with no applicant name attached). The CBOM Care & Nurture Chair sends the provider a separate, confidential letter stating for whom the check is to be used when it is received. Records of correspondence from the applicant are seen and kept only by the Chair of Care and Nurture, and are destroyed at the end of each calendar year along with any correspondence sent to the licensed mental health professional.

How long does the process take? The letter of request will be processed within a week to ten days from the date of receipt, and the conference office will prepare and send the payment usually within another week. The applicant requesting the grant is sent a letter verifying that the process is under way. If the applicant has not received a response from the CBOM Care & Nurture Chair within 10 days of making application, please contact the CBOM Care & Nurture Chair to make sure the request was received.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Book of Discipline clearly states that the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges (see par. 624). In addition, the Annual Conference provides a program of support for the ministers (not the individual churches) to assure them of a livable level of financial support when serving a full-time appointment. Towards this end, The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends the following policies:

Local churches whose ministerial leadership is receiving an Equitable Compensation Grant are expected:

1. To raise their local compensation by a minimum of 5% annually until there is no longer a need for Conference support.
 2. To pay all apportioned ministerial items (Equitable Compensation, Episcopal and District Superintendents Funds), World Service and Conference Benevolences.
 3. To conduct an Annual Stewardship Campaign.
 4. To carry Louisiana Worker's Compensation insurance on their minister and staff.
 5. Pay 100% of Health Insurance as set by the Board of Pensions and remain current on local congregation's clergy pension obligations.
 6. When the local church treasurer realizes that a delinquency is impending either in payment to pastor of a regularly scheduled payroll or full payment of regular direct billed benefit payments such as pension and health care, and every effort has been made to produce the necessary funds to mitigate the delinquency, notification must be made to the pastor and district superintendent within no less than seven days of the impending delinquency (first expected missed payment).
- A. The minister's Conference relationship sets the Equitable Compensation he/she is eligible to receive as outlined below. Any changes in Conference relationship during the year will change eligibility. The formula rate for full time is 60% of the lower of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) or Conference Average Compensation (CAC) each year. The formula for 2014 grants will be based on the 2014 Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). Thus the full time amount for 2014 will be $39,112 (60% of the DAC of $65,186).

Conference Relationship	Full Time Compensation	Percent Applied	EC Base
+Elder	$39,112	103%	$40,285
+Provisional Elder	$39,112	102%	$39,894
+Associate Member	$39,112	101%	$39,503
+Full-time Local Pastor	$39,112	100%	$39,112

- B. For the purpose of determining the Equitable Compensation Grants, the minister's total plan compensation includes: base salary, cash allowances, utilities and housing allowance (or, when a parsonage is provided, 25% of the plan compensation as the approximate value of that parsonage).
- C. Ministers receive an additional $100 for each year of service as a full-time minister up to a maximum of 10 years' service.
- D. Ministers receive an additional $200 a year for each church over one.
- E. Equitable Compensation pays its share of CRSP and CPP based on the minister's income.
- F. Equitable Compensation pays up to $75 for one Annual Conference sponsored Continuing Education Event per year for clergy who are currently receiving Equitable Compensation Grants.
- G. Annual Grants approved by the Commission shall be paid in monthly installments on the basis of available funds at the beginning of the calendar year.
- H. The charge to which the minister is appointed must be classified by the Cabinet as a full-time appointment for the minister to be eligible for full compensation. The policy of the Louisiana Annual conference is not to provide Equitable Compensation Grants for Associate Pastors.
- I. District Superintendents must submit to the chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, an application for each minister in their District seeking assistance from the Equitable Compensation Fund. These are to be sent after Charge Conference but no later than December 31. For new appointments, application forms furnished by the Commission should be turned in as soon as possible.
- J. All ministers receiving Equitable Compensation Grants are required to renew their applications when receiving a change in appointment, and to notify the chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Compensation of any change in compensation or Conference relationship.
- K. Special consideration will be given in unique cases upon recommendation of the Cabinet and concurrence with the Executive Committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation.
- L. To facilitate Mission appointments, certain funds will be made available to the Cabinet to "provide for supplementing base compensation beyond the minimum base compensation schedule." (par.625.6, The Book of Discipline, 2012)

Regarding Moving Expenses:

Charges of 250 members or less which have frequent changes in pastors shall be eligible for assistance from the Conference with moving expenses on the following basis:

- A. If the pastor is moved after one year and the charge has not initiated the change, the Conference shall pay to the charge 1/2 of actual moving expenses up to a maximum of $500.
- B. If the pastor is moved after two years and the charge has not initiated the change, the Conference shall pay to the charge 1/2 of actual moving expenses up to a maximum of $300.
- C. If the pastor is moved after three or more years, no assistance shall be available to the charge.
- D. The pastor must be living on the charge in order for the charge to receive such assistance.
- E. Verification of moving expenses shall be made by submitting a copy of the bill to the District Superintendent in whose District the charge is located.
- F. Request for assistance shall be initiated by the charge, approved by the District Superintendent (in whose District the charge is), then submitted to the Chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Compensation.
- G. Special consideration will be given in unique cases by the Cabinet's recommendation, by the willingness of the District making the request to provide 50% of the requested amount, and concurrence with the Executive Committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

RETIRED MINISTER'S HOMES BOARD

The purpose of our report to the Annual Conference each year is to keep our Ministry before the local Churches of the Louisiana Conference, which are represented here by their Clergy and Lay Delegates. There are new delegates to the Conference each year that may not know about the Ministry that is performed by our Board.

When Methodist Ministers retire, there is no longer a congregation to provide a parsonage for them and they have not been able to build up any equity in a home. Some cannot afford to purchase a home and make monthly house notes from their limited pension income. At the present time, the Board has thirty-six homes throughout the state with a least one home in each District. Our residents pay a monthly maintenance and insurance fee of nine cents per square foot. For a 1,200 sq. ft. residence, the fee is $108.00 per month. There are homes available in Bossier City, Ruston, Baton Rouge, Amite, Lafayette and Monroe. These homes are also available to Clergy on disability leave.

Our greatest financial help from Methodist people comes when we receive the donation of a home that we can either use for one of our retirees or sell and invest the proceeds in a new home. The last home we purchased was in Hammond with such funds. We are also open to partnering with a Church or an individual in providing a home for a particular retiree. When funds are available, the Board will provide up to fifty thousand dollars in matching funds.

On Sunday, September 8, 2013, the Annual Conference will observe Retired Ministers' Homes Board Sunday and the Churches are to present this Ministry and receive an offering for this work. Our goal is to be able to fund our entire annual administrative cost from the contributions from this offering. This goal could be reached if every Church in the Conference contributed only 60 cents per member. That's just pocket change for each Church but together amounted to $19,736.77 last year. The success of this offering makes it possible for us to keep the monthly fees of our retired clergy as low as possible.

This past year the Board lost its long-time Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Shirley Hoffpauir. She will be greatly missed.

LOUISIANA INTERCHURCH CONFERENCE (LIC)

To Live the Faith We Hold in Common

Originally formed in 1970, and today with a membership of 15 Christian Churches, and an Associate Member – The Order of St. Lazarus, and including representation from Church Women United, the LIC seeks greater Christian Unity through sharing a common faith in witness, worship, study, and service. Fr. Fred Kammer of the Jesuit Social Research Institute was the keynote speaker of the 43rd Annual Assembly of the LIC, held on March 4-5, 2013, at Rayne Memorial United Methodist Church in New Orleans, with the theme: “Practical Models from Business and Education to Lift Louisianans out of Poverty”. Other speakers included Dr. Igwe Udeh of the College of Business and Dr. Louise Kaltenbaugh of the College of Education, both from Southern University, New Orleans. The Rev. Joseph W. Hill of the Presbytery of the Pines was installed as President during the Assembly Worship service held at the Chapel of Notre Dame Seminary, in New Orleans. Bishop Cynthia F. Harvey serves ex officio as a Board Member. Board Designate, Dr. Don Cottrill represented the Louisiana Annual Conference at the Assembly. Other Representatives included Rev. Erica Jenkins, Chair of the UMC Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (CCUIC), and Rev. Larry Miller - Treasurer of the LIC. The Week of Prayer observance, [What Does God Require of Us? (Micah 6: 6-8)], was commemorated with several events around the state. The LIC task force on Social Justice and Public Policy is still actively working on ways to reduce child poverty in LA. Member churches have been asked to endorse Bread or Stones II, a plan still being developed that, when implemented, will offer practical ways for churches, their leaders and members to address the problems of chronic poverty in Louisiana and help overcome this blight on our State.

The LIC Board met in September in Shreveport, LA, and addressed the theme: "Demographics and the Millennials: Shaping the Future of the Church". The Keynote Speaker was The Rev. Dr. Eileen W. Lindner, former Deputy Secretary of the National Council of Churches USA, who provided insight into the faith and spirituality of the next generation. Among LIC Commissions, the Stewardship of the Environment has advocated for the Restore Act that involves coastal restoration working in coalition for rebuilding the gulf coast. The Criminal Justice Commission is planning a conference soon, geared towards involving at risk children and youth, later in the spring. Our Farmer's Advocate, Mrs. Betty Puckett has retired from full time service, but remains ready to assist farm families on an as-needed basis. The LIC continues to partner with the Louisiana Prison Chapel Foundation in completing the building of Chapels on the grounds of State correctional centers.

Largely funded by the member churches we are grateful for the support of the LA Annual Conference and its commitment to ecumenical relationships that keep before the churches Christ's vision of unity in mission, service and witness. The member churches strive to proclaim the Gospel message To Live the Faith we Hold in Common.

RECOMMENDATION TO 2013 CONFERENCE: The Committee on Rules recommends favorably to approve the proposed By-Laws changes for the DCYM as already approved by 2/3 of the CCYM at their April 2013 meeting.

#5 (Elimination of CMT)

RECOMMENDATION TO 2013 CONFERENCE: The Committee on Rules recommends favorably the recommendation of the Structure Revision Team to discontinue the Conference Ministry Team as defined by Article III of the Conference Structure Rules effective July 1, 2013 and that those conference boards and agencies who report to the CMT now report directly to the Conference through the Director of Connectional Ministries who will coordinate the work of the boards and agencies. This recommendation would include maintaining the current Conference Personnel Committee as seated to continue through July 1, 2014 to continue those assigned tasks until an alternative structure can be recommended by the Revision Team to the Annual Conference.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

In late summer 2012, the Louisiana Conference bade farewell to Bishop William and Kay Hutchinson, after 12 years of leadership and service together. Following the episcopal elections at Jurisdictional Conference in July, Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey, first elected among three new bishops, was assigned to the Louisiana Area. She and Dean Harvey and their daughter Elizabeth were welcomed with warmth and excitement by the Louisiana Delegation while still in Oklahoma City. Hurricane Isaac added turbulence to the timely landing of the Harveys in Baton Rouge the first of September.

The Committee on Episcopacy met on September 13 with Bishop Harvey to begin building a relationship of understanding and support for her leadership in our ministry together.

The Louisiana Conference ceremoniously received our new episcopal leader in an installation service of celebration and covenant on Saturday, October 20, at First United Methodist Church, Baton Rouge. In her address in that service Bishop Fierro Harvey issued a Conference-wide Call to Prayer for the forty-plus days from the installation day until the beginning of Advent. Then at the threshold of the new year, she offered the invitation to read a chapter of the New Testament each day throughout 2013. And so our journey together is begun and well-grounded in a mutual commitment to spiritual discipline as priority and foundation for our shared ministry.

On January 12, 2013, Bishop and Dean Harvey graciously hosted the Committee on Episcopacy at the Episcopal Residence for an open house. At that time, Bishop Fierro Harvey also shared a written report of her activities, involvements, and emerging goals from the experience of her first few months in Louisiana.

The Episcopal Residence Committee (formed by representatives from the Conference Board of Trustees, the Council on Finance and Administration, and the Committee on Episcopacy) has organized for the new quadrennium and is exercising due diligence, with the aim of wise stewardship, in the responsibility of providing and maintaining the residence for our episcopal family.

We are honored to support and assist Bishop Fierro Harvey as she oversees and guides our Conference these next four years, and we look forward to faithful and fruitful ministry together.

EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE COMMITTEE

The provision of housing for effective bishops in the jurisdictional conferences is the responsibility of the annual conference comprising the episcopal area to which the bishop is assigned. Within the episcopal area, an episcopal residence committee shall provide for this function. The annual conference shall be responsible for providing an episcopal residence in which the bishop shall reside.

The General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) has not officially adopted standards; however Episcopal Fund Report No. 5 recommends that each annual conference prepare guidelines related to the standards and provisions for an episcopal residence. Certain guidelines are currently under study by the Jurisdictional Conference for adoption in the future.

The Episcopal Residence Committee of the LA Annual Conference met and inspected the current episcopal residence in Baton Rouge for needed repairs and improvements and also considered the proposed guidelines under consideration by the Jurisdictional Conference.

The Episcopal Residence Committee also considered the Episcopal Residence in Shreveport as it related to the use and need of the Bishop.

Items for action by the Louisiana Annual Conference:

In accordance with paragraph 638, Episcopal Residence Committee, 4.a, of The 2012 Book of Discipline, the Episcopal Residence Committee moves that the Episcopal Residence in Baton Rouge and the Episcopal Residence in Shreveport be sold and a new Episcopal Residence be purchased or constructed in the Baton Rouge area that conforms to the guidelines of Report No. 5 of the GCFA. The 2012 Book of Discipline, paragraph 2512.3(d) directs that any resolution authorizing proposed action regarding annual conference property may be executed by and on behalf of the annual conference board of trustees by any two of its officers, who thereupon shall be duly authorized to carry out the direction of the annual conference, and any written instrument so executed shall be binding and effective as the action of the annual conference.

RESOLUTION TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE 2013 MEETING OF THE LOUISIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE BY THE 2012 DELEGATION TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

Resolved, that the Louisiana Annual Conference shall elect its delegates to the 2016 General and Jurisdictional Conferences at the 2014 meeting of the Louisiana Annual Conference, as permitted by Paragraph 502.3 of the 2012 Book of Discipline.

Be it further resolved that the Conference Council on Finance and Administration shall provide within the 2014 conference budget, or through other sources and means within its discretion and authority, adequate funds to conduct the elections.

Rationale: The traditional timing of the election of delegates is during the meeting of the annual conference preceding the meeting of the General Conference. The 2012 General Conference enacted legislation which gives annual conferences the option of holding elections one year earlier—for the 2016 General Conference, as early as during the 2014 meetings of the annual conferences (BOD Par. 502.3).

Under the traditional timing, the delegation is elected in June of the year immediately preceding General Conference, and the deadline for submitting resolutions to the General Conference is in August of that year (BOD Par. 507.5). Due to heavy travel schedules, it is difficult to schedule delegation meetings before the end of August with sufficient attendance to develop resolutions.

The earlier elections of the delegations provides greater opportunities for considering resolutions to be submitted by the delegation, communicating with other delegations around the world and leaders from other annual conferences, and studying relevant materials. This may be particularly significant due to a change in General Conference procedures which now requires that all proposals come not from individuals, but from an official church body; in that respect, the delegation could act as an appropriate clearing house for such petitions that members of the Louisiana Annual Conference might wish to submit.

Additionally, the delegation is also charged with lifting up and endorsing candidates for the episcopacy in the South Central Jurisdiction. Electing a year earlier would allow for a deeper assessment of the leadership gifts of eligible clergy in our Annual Conference, and would ultimately yield a more intentional, prayerful, and less-hurried discernment process about the character and skills needed to lead our denomination into its vital future.

In conclusion, moving the time of the elections a year earlier permits more time allotted to preparation of possible resolutions, the Episcopal endorsement process, and overall preparation, including training in the parliamentary procedure used at General Conference. It also allows more time for the laity and clergy on the delegation to get to know each other and learn how to work together as a team.

After “it will” add “pray.”

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 6 (¶ 6) would read:

Ecumenical Relations—As part of the church universal, The United Methodist Church believes that the Lord of the church is calling Christians everywhere to strive toward unity; and therefore it will pray, seek, and work for unity at all levels of church life: through world relationships with other Methodist churches and united churches related to The Methodist Church or The Evangelical United Brethren Church, through councils of churches, and through plans of union and covenantal relationships with churches of Methodist or other denominational traditions.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – II

On May 1, 2012, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Tampa, Florida, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 731 Yes, 181 No (Calendar Item 205, DCA p. 2430). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In the 2008 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section II, ¶ 14, Article II, (2012 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section II, ¶ 14, Article II)) amend by deletion and addition as follows:

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 14 (¶ 14) would read:

The General Conference shall meet once in four years at such time and in such place as shall be determined by the General Conference or by its duly authorized committees. The change in the preceding sentence shall become effective at the close of General Conference in 2016.

A special session of the General Conference, possessing the authority and exercising all the powers of the General Conference, may be called by the Council of Bishops, or in such other manner as the General Conference may from time to time prescribe, to meet at such time and in such place as may be stated in the call. Such special session of the General Conference shall be composed of the delegates to the preceding General Conference or their lawful successors, except that when a particular annual conference or missionary conference shall prefer to have a new election it may do so. The purpose of such special session shall be stated in the call, and only such business shall be transacted as is in harmony with the purpose stated in such call unless the General Conference by a two-thirds vote shall determine that other business may be transacted.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – III

On May 3, 2012, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Tampa, Florida, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 618 Yes, 306 No (Calendar Item 54, DCA pp. 2672-73). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 32 (¶ 32) would read:

The annual conference shall be composed of clergy and lay members. The clergy membership shall consist of deacons and elders in full connection, provisional members, associate members, and local pastors under appointment. The lay membership shall consist of professing lay members elected by each charge, the diaconal ministers, the active deaconesses, and home missionaries under episcopal appointment within the bounds of the annual conference, the conference president of United Methodist Women, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, district lay leaders, the conference director of Lay Servant Ministries, conference secretary of Global Ministries (if lay), the president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization, the president of the conference youth organization, the chair of the annual conference college student organization, and one young person between the ages of twelve (12) and seventeen (17) and one young person between the ages of eighteen (18) and thirty (30) from each district to be selected in such a manner as may be determined by the annual conference. In the annual conferences of the central conferences, the four-year participation and the two-year membership requirements may be waived by the annual conference for young persons under thirty (30) years of age. Such persons must be professing members of The United Methodist Church and active participants at the time of election. Each charge served by more than one clergy shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members. The lay members shall have been for the two years next preceding their election members of The United Methodist Church and shall have been active participants in The United Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election. If the lay membership should number less than the clergy members of the annual conference, the annual conference shall, by its own formula, provide for the election of additional lay members to equalize lay and clergy membership of the annual conference.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – IV

On May 1, 2012, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Tampa, Florida, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 848 Yes, 57 No (Calendar Item 207, DCA p. 2431). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In the 2008 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section VII, ¶ 40, Article I, (2012 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section VII, ¶ 40, Article I) amend by deletion and addition, as follows:

Delete the first two words, “Changes in” and following “episcopal areas” delete “may be effected” and add “shall be determined” and after “and the central conferences” add “The authority of jurisdictional and central conferences provided herein is not circumscribed or limited by the authority provided to the College of Bishops to arrange a plan of episcopal supervision.”

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 40 (¶ 40) would read:

The number, names, and boundaries of the annual conferences and episcopal areas shall be determined by the jurisdictional conferences in the United States of America and by the central conferences outside the United States of America according to the provisions under the respective powers and pursuant to the respective structures of the jurisdictional and the central conferences. The authority of jurisdictional and central conferences provided herein is not circumscribed or limited by the authority provided to the College of Bishops to arrange a plan of episcopal supervision.

Rationale for Proposed Constitutional Amendments The United Methodist Church Voted General Conference April-May 2012

- I. (¶ 6) The proposed amendment acknowledges God’s action in conferring the gift of the Church by including praying for unity among the tasks of the Church.
- II. (¶ 14) The proposed amendment would allow the General Conference to meet at other times during the calendar year on dates better suited for younger delegates and those with parenting responsibilities.
- III. (¶ 32) The proposed amendment removes the connotation that leadership training is only about preaching in order to develop skills and enhance the spiritual gifts of the laity.
- IV. (¶ 40) The proposed amendment gives the power of boundary decisions to jurisdictional and central conferences, bodies that include lay persons.

PETITION TO THE 2013 LOUISIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Proposed Unaffordable Rate Increases on Flood Insurance for Coastal Communities by FEMA

Whereas, the Louisiana Annual Conference Native American Ministries has worked closely with Clanton Chapel, and other ecumenical groups including Bayou Interfaith Service Organization (BISCO) for the good of all coastal communities and their protection from hurricanes and coastal erosion for many years, and

Whereas, coastal Louisiana has been severely hit by a number of severe hurricanes, but the citizens of these impacted communities, Local governments, and the State of Louisiana have used resources to repair, replace, and elevate homes and businesses, and

Whereas, in Terrebonne Parish and other communities, the citizens have taxed themselves to move forward on the Morganza to the Gulf Hurricane Protection Levee System while the Federal Government and the Corps of Engineers have been studying this plan for ages, and the coast and communities remain vulnerable, and

Whereas, citizens of these communities, local governments, churches including the ecumenical group of churches called Bayou Interfaith Service Organization (BISCO) have unanimously requested that the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) does not raise the flood insurance rates through the National Flood Insurance Program as proposed increases through the Biggert-Waters Flood Insurance Reform Act (public Law 112-141) beyond the affordability of the citizens of coastal communities, and

Whereas, the citizens and businesses of coastal communities have endured tremendous disasters, but have always recovered and reclaimed their homes and businesses, but now face the potential of losing their homes and businesses due to exorbitant insurance increases that will make it impossible for citizens to own their own homes or sell them, now

Therefore, be it resolved that the Louisiana Annual Conference Native American Ministries along with Bayou Interfaith Service Organization (BISCO) ask the Louisiana Annual Conference and all the delegates to request that flood insurance rates be kept at affordable rate and other means of funding be sought by the Federal Government to sustain the flood insurance program, and

Be it further resolved, the Louisiana Annual Conference Native American Ministries requests from the Louisiana Annual Conference that this resolution be supported and shared with all elected officials, especially the members of the Congress of the United States of America, that citizens of coastal communities in the United States may be able to afford their own homes.
